Acknowledgments

This family has been so fun to research. The diversities of personalities uncovered were so vast it made each person come alive again through what they left behind. It also allowed for an excuse to travel to New York State, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and to even do some research in Arkansas.

This book would not have been at all possible without the help and resources of Peg Crouch, Theron and Joy Hanes, the late Florence Hardin, Tom and Joy Hardin, and my immediate family, Jim and Amanda Wells and Jaime and Mike Hanni-Wells.

Thanks also to Amanda Wells who helped with a lot of the more tedious (ha ha) work, such as copying, transcribing letters and diaries, identifying pictures, and accompanying me on many trips to libraries.

There are numerous websites and books cited throughout, but I would like to acknowledge the people who helped directly: Betty Geyer, Karen Kysilka, Ken Everett, Regina Fallace, Laura Dietz, Bruce Cotton, Skip Wiest, Rob Altenburg, Fred Wagner, Barbara Engle, Nancy Schultz, Rich Tumbous, Jean Ann Childers, Norm & Genie Smith, Cindy Lolling, Mary Ellen Maurer, Catherine Martin and her sister Caroline, Michael J. Moore, Ken Everett, Richard Cooley, and Rebecca Furnell. A very BIG thank you to all of you!

I hope you enjoy this and learn a great deal!

Generation No. 2

2. Joseph² Lindesmith (Daniel¹) was born Bet. March 17 - 19, 1750/51 in Pfaltz, Canton Bern, Switzerland, and died March 07, 1815 in Hanover, Tp. Columbiana County, OH. He married Nancy (Anna) Bauman May 03, 1772 in Pa.. She was born 1753, and died October 1836 in Philadelphia, PA.

Notes for Joseph Lindesmith: The following is according to the family data in the "Henry R. Baldwin Records Vol. 53, Historical Record of the Members of the Nathan Hale Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution of Youngstown, OH."

The following is from Ken Everetts of Lisbon, Columbiana County, OH, "THE LINDESMITH FAMILY RECORD. According to recollections of Rev. Eli W. J. Lindesmith, Catholic Priest, regarding the Lindesmith Family. There were four brothers came to America before the Revolution. Whether all came together is not know, but all served as soldiers in the Revolutionary War. They were sons of Daniel and Elizabeth Bernard Lindesmith of Berne Canton, Switzerland and their names were Michael, George - Died June 8, 1826 in Lancaster County, Pa., Jacob - Born Nov. 30, 1748 Joseph - Born 1751, died June 20, 1817 near Dungannon, O. This all he appeared to find in regard to dates. Joseph Lindesmith - native of Berne, Switzerland - came to this country in 1769 at the age of 18 years, and settled in Hagerstow, Md., because the political freedom and religious toleration of Maryland resembled those of Switzerland. He became an apprentice to the joiner and carpenter trade, also learned the family mill trade which he made a life long business. Many of the old farmers in Hanover, Center, and other townships, had family mills of his make, - there were neither nail nor screw in them - all was made of wood excepting part of the crank and the wire sieves. Early in 1772, he went to Gillford Township, Franklin County, Pa. Here the same year he married Miss Nancy Bauman who was born and raised near Philadelphia, Pa., and was descended from a Swiss family. He was a good German scholar, and by self application he learned to read, speak, and write the English language. Nancy, his wife, could write the German language but could only speak English. At the beginning of the Revolutionary War, Joseph enlisted, first for six months, then for the entire war. he was engaged as fifer and bugler. He was at the battle of Yorktown and at the surrender of Lord Cornwallis. He served to the end of the war and was honorably discharged. Daniel Lindesmith, oldest son of Joseph and Nancy Bauman Lindesmith, was born May 7, 1773 and was baptized the same day by Herrn meschler, --"Herrn" here means "Lord".-- Soon after his birth his parents moved to Somerset Couty near Berlin, Pa., to a part then called "The Glades". Here was born the second child, Elizabeth, who when of age married William Knepper. In 1800, Daniel Lindesmith was married to Elizabeth Weymer, niece of William Knepper, of Westermorland County, Pa. Daniel's son Jacob was born March 1, 1901. The mother died soon after. His parents Joseph and Nancy, took the child, Jacob, and raised him from infancy. In 1803, Daniel then married Miss Gertrude Krissinger. Soon afterward they came to Center township, Columbiana county, Ohio. Their home was know for over two generations as "The Stone House" on West Fork Creek five miles west of Lisbon, Ohio. In 1807, Joseph and Nancy in Company with their sons, John and Peter and little grandson, Jacob, moved from Pennsylvania to Ohio. His son, Jacob and William Knepper came in 1810. The four sons of Joseph and Nancy Lindesmith, Daniel, Peter, Jacob and John, were all soldiers in the ward of 1812 and are all buried in Columbiana County, Ohio. Joseph died June 20, 1817 aged 66 years. He was buried at Trinity Cemetery. In 1812, when the War with England began. Daniel enlisted in Captain Daniel Harbaughs Company or Troop of Horse, 2nd. Brigade Division, Ohio Militia, commanded by Lieutenet Col. John Hindman. He was trumpeter for the Company. He served against the British and Indians to the end of the war. He returned to the home on West Fork and died May 5, 1833 aged 60 years. His wife, Gertrude, died in 1841. Jacob, son of Daniel and Elizabeth Weymer Lindesmith, married Barbara Walser. He died when a young man and left his wife with four small sons. The mother being a Catholic, and the sons were up in the Catholic Faith. One son, Eli, becoming a Priest. He served as Chaplain in the United States Army for eleven years.---1880--1891.

"Joseph Lindesmith was born March 19, 1751 in Pfaltz, Canton Bern, a hamlet about nine miles from Bern Switzerland, and died of consumption June 10, 1817 aged 66 years, 3 mos. and 9 days. He came to America with his guardian and resided at Hagerstown Md. until 1772 when he went to Guilford Tp. Franklin County, Pa., where on May 3, 1772 he married Nancy Bauman, a Penna. Dutch girl. She died November 24, 1835 aged 33 years and Rev. Father E. W. J. Lindesmith remembers hearing her describe how (and actually do) she used to mow in the fields when her husband was in the army. In 1774 he removed to "The Glades" as then called, now Somerset County, Pa. and near the present town of Berlin, in Brothers Valley Township and in 1807 removed to Hanover Township, Columbiana County, Ohio near the present village of Dungannon and died there. He owned no land in Ohio but lived on the farm of one of his sons, in a house of his own. Three of his four sons - viz. Daniel, John, and Peter were soldiers of the War of 1812 and Daniel one of them used the bugle his father had used in the Revolution before him. Joseph's brother George was a Corporal in the 10th Pa. Line and Joseph himself used to visit an old comrade on Bull Creek near East Palestine, a Wm. Lee Sergt. Major of the 8th Pa. Line, a pensioner, who Gd. son often told of hearing Wm. say Joseph was a Revolutionary soldier. The inscription on the Tombstone in Trinity Lutheran Churchyard, Hanover Twp, Columbiana County, Ohio is Joseph Lindesmith, died 1817, aged 66 yrs. 3 mos. 9 das. He was a Soldier of the Revolution Bugler and Fifer Served during the entire War and was present at the surrender of Cornwallis.

He is buried in the Trinity Reformed Cemetery. It shows a memorial erected by his great grandson. "LINDESMITH MEMORIAL: Erected by Rev. E. W. J. Lindesmith, Catholic Priest, Chaplain in the United States Army, member of Society of the War of 1812, member of Western Reserve Chapter Sons of the American Revolution, in memory of his great-great grandfather Joseph Lindesmith, soldier, bugler, and fifer in the war of the American Revolution, and Jacob & George, brothers of Joseph, Revolutionary Soldiers." It has a 1776 marker with a flag at this memorial site." It also has Joseph, d 1817, age 66y "great grandfather". - + 10 v. Peter Lindesmith, born October 01, 1785 in of Guilford Twp., Franklin, PA; died July 16, 1845 in of Fox Twp., Carroll, OH.

6. Daniel³ Lindesmith (Joseph², Daniel¹) was born May 07, 1773 in of Guildford Twp., Franklin, PA, and died May 05, 1833. He married (1) Elizabeth Weimer February 14, 1800. She was born July 08, 1778, and died May 15, 1801. He married (2) Gertrude Crissinger 1803 in Columbiana, OH. She was born Abt. 1784, and died February 1842.

Notes for Daniel Lindesmith: He is a soldier of 1812 according to the tombstone of Rev. Lindesmith. It has May 5, 1833 (died) on his tombstone according to the Trinity Reformed Cemetery, Hanover Twp, Columbiana Co., OH records.

I believe it was the Henry Baldwin Records that mentioned his death date being, May 6, 1832.

He is buried in the Trinity Reformed Cemetery, Hanover Twp., Columbiana County, IN. The gravesite had a 1812 marker and flag.

It has 1773 as his birth date according to Karen Kysilka. Information was given to us by Ken Everett.

According to a letter from Rev. Lindesmith to his cousin Sarah Lindesmith Shaw Fillson, "Joseph Lindesmith was born and raised in Switzerland in the Canton of Berne. After much searching, Rev. Lindesmith reports in the letter that he was not able to find the inn which his grandfather was born. Joseph was eight years old when he came to America to live near Philadelphia. he married Nancy (which means Ann) Bauman, a native of Philadelphia and also of Swiss descent. He was a fanning mill make by trade and did copper work and according to Rev. Lindesmith's findings, could make almost anything. Daniel and Elizabeth were his two children, born before the Revolutionary War, Elizabeth married William Knepper, and the father of J. Knepper of Dungannon. When the war broke out, he enlisted and remained in the army under Washington until the close of the war. Elizabeth and William lived near Philadelphia, then moved after the war to Hagerstown, Md., after this they lived many years in the Glades in Somerset Co., Pa. in the Allegheny Mountains. All their children married there except Peter who was married in Hanover Township to Susan Ehrhart. Daniel, Rev. Lindesmith's grandfather was married twice, first to Elizabeth Weymer, also Swiss. She died at the birth of her first child, Jacob Lindesmith, who was Rev. Lindesmith's father. Daniel's second wife was Gertrude Krissenger, Sarah's grandmother. Daniel's family was the first to move in Ohio territory in 1802. They arrived in Dungannon and camped under a big white oak tree opposite the spring on the northside on flat ground. The log cabin was the birthplace of the Rev. Lindesmith. Rev. Lindesmith credits his grandfather with having the best hunting ability in the country and that he shot the only panther ever shot in the neighborhood. He would go hunting in the dead of winter and stay a week at a time. He was a mechanical genius and could make anything. He made a needle with an eye in the point, like a sewing machine needle except it was as large as a saddler's awl. It had a handle on it and he used to sew moccasins with a whang. When the war broke out, grand uncles and grandfather went, according to Rev. Lindesmith. The latter were fifers. Grandfather went in the only cavalry company that went from Columbiana County, he took his own horse, rifle, and powder horn. They went through Indiana, Ohio, and were in the surrendering of General Hull, the traitor. Rev. Lindesmith's letter tells that his grandfather was an English schooled German Scholar, as was his father, who taught school. Other descendents of the Lindesmith family now living here is, Jacob Lindesmith of Dungannon, who is also a third cousin as is Clifford Shaw...."

Notes for Elizabeth Weimer: She died when she was 22 and is buried in the Trinity Reformed Cemetery, Hanover Twp., Columbiana County, OH.

According to the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa. it says that she was the niece of William Knepper of Westmorland Co.

Children of Daniel Lindesmith and Gertrude Crissinger are:

- + 11 i. Katherine⁴ Lindesmith.
- + 12 ii. Jacob Weimer Lindesmith, born March 18, 1801 in Brothers Val. Tp., PA; died September 05, 1834.
- + 13 iii. Susannah Lindesmith, born July 04, 1807 in OH; died August 30, 1886 in Franklin Twp. Columbiana County, Ohio.
- 14 iv. Anna Lindesmith, born April 11, 1811.

Notes for Anna Lindesmith: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

I found a reference to a Nancy and since that name seems interchangeable for Anna in this family, I am guessing this is who this is. If it is true, she married John Mason b. 1815 according to the records of Kenneth Everett of Columbiana County, OH.

On page 6 of the church book for the church of Westfork, it has Anna b. April 11, 1911, parents Daniel Lindesmith and Gertrude (Crissinger).

- 15 v. Samuel Lindesmith, born April 24, 1813.

Notes for Samuel Lindesmith: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

On page 6 of the church book for the church of Westfork, it has Samuel b. 24th April 1813 , parents Daniel Lindesmith and Gertrude (Crissinger).

Notes for Isaac Lindesmith: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

In the church book for the church of Westfork page 23, Isaac b. 14 April 1820 Parents: Daniel Lindesmith and Gertrude (Crissinger)

- 19 ix. Daniel Lindesmith, born July 12, 1822; died July 1841.

Notes for Daniel Lindesmith: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

According to the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa. he died on this date.

This information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa. "He went to Philadelphia when a young man and was never heard of again. It was supposed that he died of a fever soon after arriving."

Entry in the church book for the church of Westfork: Daniel b. 12 July 1822 Parents: Daniel Lindesmith and Gertrude (Crissinger).

- + 20 x. Jacob Lindesmith, born 1824; died 1891.

7. Elizabeth³ Lindesmith (Joseph², Daniel¹) was born 1775 in Berlin, Somerset Co, PA, and died June 01, 1844. She married William Knepper.

Notes for Elizabeth Lindesmith: In the records at the library it said she died June 1, 1844. In the internet records it said, 1792 was her death date. Not sure which is right yet. LDS researchers were CAROLYN PRATT MOCK 985 West 400 South Orem, UT 84058. Laurie Stacey 5453 Walshire Drive Columbus, OH 43232.

They are buried in the Trinity Reformed Cemetery. There are no dates on their gravestones. There is a Adeline Nightingale, d/o J. & F. b Aug. 20, 1811 d Jan. 1, 1860 buried beside them. I am guessing this is a granddaughter and she belongs to either John or Jacob.

Notes for William Knepper: They are buried in the Trinity Reformed Cemetery. They have no dates on their gravestones.

His father is Gotfried Knepper.

Children of Elizabeth Lindesmith and William Knepper are:

21 i. Godfrey⁴ Knepper.

Notes for Godfrey Knepper: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

8. John³ Lindesmith (Joseph², Daniel¹) was born 1778 in Somerset, PA, and died June 24, 1830 in Dungannon, Columbiana County, OH. He married Anna Mary Boyer.

Notes for John Lindesmith:

He is buried at Trinity Ch.; Hanover Twp., Columbiana Co., OH. According to the family data and information in the "Henry R. Baldwin Records, Historical Record of the Members of the Nathan Hale Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution of Youngstown, OH."

In the LDS files it says he was born abt. 1779. LDS researchers were CAROLYN PRATT MOCK 985 West 400 South Orem, UT 84058. Laurie Stacey 5453 Walshire Drive Columbus, OH 43232.

He is a soldier of the War of 1812.

This information is from History of Hanover Columbiana County, Ohio. "REV. E. W. J. Born September 7, 1817 in log cabin in Center township but was reared in Hanover Township. Offered services as a soldier in war with Mexico but not accepted, county's quota for the army bein full. Worked at all kinds of labor; drove cart in deep tunnel approachi in excavating of Sandy and Beaver canal. Entered St. Mary's Seminary at Cleveland September 18, 1849; ordained a priest July 8, 1865, celebrating first mass and preaching at Dungannon Catholic Church, his home parish, the Sunday following; served charges at Doylestown, Canal Fulton, Marshallville, Canton, New Berlin, Alliance, Leetonia and missions of Salem and East Palestine. Appointed Chaplain U.S. A. by President Hayes June 29, 1880, approved by Bishop Gilmour; retired from active duty at age of 64. Following served pastorates at Dungannon, again at Doylestown, Milton and Sterling, St. Peters in Rootstown. Noted lecturer and speaker. Still living at age of 86 being at present chaplin of St. Ann's hospital, Cleveland, O.

In the November 17, 1974 Sunday, Youngstown OH paper it says, "LINDESMITH MONUMENT RECORDS PIONEER DAYS War Heroes Are Buried Near Lisbon by Janie S. Jenkins On a grassy knoll in a little Columbiana County churchyard are the graves of three brothers, all Revolutionary War soldiers, who have not been forgotten because the great-grandson of one of them made sure they would not be. Indeed, the Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith also made sure he himself would not be forgotten, and 22 years before his own death in 1922 had an imposing granite monument erected in St. Paul's cemetery near Dungannon on Columbiana County Route 407. That monument to himself is also a complete family tree and on the rear face is a plaque containing the names of all of his relatives, beginning with his paternal great-grandfather, Joseph Lindesmith, "Soldier of the War of Independence." It was 13 years after Father Lindesmith had his own monument in place that he decided to also mark the graves of his relatives. In a now scarce history of the Bethesda Presbyterian church, owned by Don McKarns of Summitville, is a letter dated March 5, 1913, to Thomas McKarns from Father Lindesmith. He wrote, "I am now getting a gravestone for my great-grandfather Joseph Lindesmith and his two brothers, Jacob and George. All three were Revolutionary soldiers. He is buried at Trinity Reformed Church." Trinity Church Road winds off Route 30 five miles west of Lisbon and the white frame church, now a Friends church, looks out upon fields of drying corn, vining bittersweet and the trunks of massive trees. Behind the church is the well-tended cemetery. The grave stone ordered by Father Lindesmith, who was a priest at St. Philip Neri Church, Dungannon, from 1890 to 1892, is easy to find and the inscription on the bronze plaque tells not only of the Lindesmith brother's heroism. It reads: "Erected by Rev. E. W. J. Lindesmith, Catholic Priest Chaplain in the United States Army, Member of the Society of the War of 1812, member Western Reserve Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, in Memory of his Great-Grandfather Joseph Lindesmith, Soldier, Bugler and Fifer in the war of the American Revolution and Jacob and George, Brothers of Joseph, Revolutionary Soldiers." In the same cemetery are markers for Father Lindesmith's grandfather, Daniel, who fought in the War of 1812, and for his father, Jacob, color bearer with Capt. Lucy's Troop. A brother, Jason, enlisted in the War of the Rebellion as a private in Capt. William Ramsey's Co. K. and was discharged July 5, 1865, in Cleveland as a second lieutenant. On the copper plaque, now weathered with verdigris, on his own monument, Father Lindesmith had his portrait inscribed. One side of the plaque is lettered, "I erected this monument before my death 1900" and the other lettering is a prayer, "May the souls of my departed relations, the American soldiers, and of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen." Between two carved copper chalices is a brief history of Father Lindesmith: "Chaplain of the United States Regular Army. Born September 7, 1827. Son of a volunteer soldier, Grandson of a soldier of the War of 1812. Grandnephew of two soldiers of the War 1812. Great grandson of a soldier of the War of the Revolution of 1776. Ordained priest, July 8, 1835. Served as chaplain in the Rocky Mountains, during the Indian Wars, from June 19, 1880, to Sept. 7, 1891." The plaque is confusing in several areas, beginning with his age when he died. The number "95," apparently ordered by the funeral director, contradicts his actual age if the death date inscribed, Feb. 5, 1922 is accurate. The dates of his pastorate at St. Philip Neri also conflict with his record of service in the Indian Wars. A more complete history of the Columbiana-born priest who spent 67 years in the priesthood is found in "The march of the Eucharist from Dungannon; written by the late Bishop James A. McFadden and pub-(the obit ends, we don't have the 2nd part). In another article, published in the Riverstyle Saturday, May 13, 2000, it has an article called "Marked in Stone" and tells about Rev. Lindersmith and his monuments. It also mentions Ed Copeland wondered if his mother was Catholic because of all the Lindersmith's...he was the only Catholic. He also presided over Protestant funerals. The tombstone was apparently brought to the cemetery in three pieces. The bottom section, according to Copeland, weighed 10 tons, the center section is 17 tons and the top about a ton - 28 tons in all. It reportedly was shipped to Millport and sent to the cemetery on a funeral wagon pulled by eight horses which made three trips. According to family members who have related through the years, it was during the frost season and manure was taken from the stables and thrown onto the road to keep the wagon from sinking."

He redid many of the gravestones for the Lindesmith family that were getting illegible. He is the one that erected the huge (about 15 foot tall) monument with all the "genealogy" names on them. See page iii.

In The Buckeye State, Sept. 2, 1886, Thursday issue, "Last Monday Susan Copeland, wife of the late Patterson Copeland, and mother of G. F. Copeland, President of the County Agricultural Society, died at her home near Millport, Franklin Township, aged about 79 years. Her last illness was not of long duration. She was a lady greatly esteemed for her many estimable qualities, and the whole neighborhood mourns her loss."

On page 6 of the church book for the Church of Westfork lists Susanna b. July 4, 1807, parents Daniel Lindesmith and Gertrude (Crissinger).

Notes for Patterson (L.H.P.) Copeland: Information from 1850 Ohio Census. It looks like Hanna at 21, one of the sons were 15, Laura/Louisa? was 9, Harriett was 6 or 7, Eliza or Liza was 4 and Isabella? was 1. This doesn't match with the names listed for William's brother's and sisters. Four other children match, William 11, Mary 13, Geo. 7, and J. J.18. I previously had J. J. and William's birthdays and they match also.

According to the Ancestry.com he is in the 1840 census of Columbiana Co., OH page 246 Centre twp., He is in the 1850 Columbiana County census, Franklin Twp., OH, page 237.

In the 1840 census there is one male 30-40, 2 males under 5, and one male between 5 and 10. There is a female 30-40, one female under five and one female between 10 and 15.

It says L.H.P. instead of Patterson on the Rev.'s monument: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

I wonder if the L. H. P. stands for Lawrence Herman Patterson since a grandchild was named Lawrence Herman.

In the "Record of Deaths, Probate Court it shows in 1876, number 271, Patterson Copeland, 1875, Sep. 14 Married, 71 years, 9 months, 22 days died Franklin Twp. Place of birth, Penna., was white, and died of disease indirect cause of death. Place of residence was Franklin Twp."

I think he had a brother J. J. J. J. 's wife, Matilda born 1815 would have been the right age bracket to be a sister-in-law to Patterson. She and two of their children are buried beside Patterson. Thomas and Mary Copeland are buried in the same cemetery. Thomas d May 29, 1830 ae 50y 9m 22d. This would have put his birth around 1780. Mary died Sept 12, 1852 ae 65y 10m 7d. Her birth would have been around 1787. Could Thomas be an uncle or older brother?

In his will: Be it remembered that on the 22nd day of October in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy five the last will and testament of Patterson Coupland, late of Columbiana County Ohio deceased was presented for Probate and Record unto Simon Nisden sole Judge of the Probate Court of said county. Which said will is in the words and figures following to wit. In the name of the Benevolent Father of all, I Patterson Coupland of Franklin township do make and publish this my last will and testament. First I give and de--se to my beloved wife Susannah Coupland in lew of her dower the farm which we now reside situated in Franklin Township Columbiana County, Ohio containing about one hundred acres so long as she remains my widow. And all the stock, household goods, furniture, provisions and other goods and chattels which may be thereon at the time of my decease so long as she remains my widow. She howsoever selling as much thereof as may be sufficient to pay my just debts. At the death of my said wife the real estate aforesaid and such part of the personal property or the proceeds thereof as may then remain unconsumed and unexpended I give and device to my sons and daughters equally. James J. Coupland, John W. Coupland, William K. Coupland, George F. Coupland, Mary Coupland, Louisa K. Coupland, Hanrietta Coupland, Liza Jane Coupland, Susan Coupland, Margaret Coupland. I do hereby nominate and appoint Joseph Lindersmith and James J. Coupland executors of this my last will and testament. I do hereby revoke all former wills by me made. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and read this 17th day of April in the year 1861. Notes for John W. Copeland: I am guessing this is John W. His obituary follows. The reason I believe he belongs, is because he is in the right time period for the civil war.

Bryan Democrat Fri, Jan. 19, 1917, "John W. Copeland died at his home in Millport, Ohio, December 27th last. He had lived in Columbiana county for 60 years, but at one time was well known in this county. He was 81 years old at the time of his death and was never married. Mr. Copeland served with great credit in the Civil war, and was badly wounded at Altoona Pass Ga., on the 17th of May 1864. He will be remembered by many who read this but has been away from here an ordinary life time. Mr. Copeland was a cousin of Mrs. Thomas Young, of Bryan."

He is buried in the Bethesda Church Cemetery, Franklin Twp. by his sister (maybe) and brother (George) Information from Bethesda Church Cemetery records of Franklin Twp, Columbiana Co., OH.

On the Rev. Lindesmith's monument it says John H. instead of John W. but in the obit. it says John W. Copeland and he is buried by other family members so I presume John W. is right but not John H.

From the History of the Upper Ohio Valley, (Brant & Fuller - 1891) Volume 2, page 258
Franklin Township

John W. Copeland was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, September 14, 1835, the son of Patterson and Susan (Lindersmith) Copeland. Paterson was born in Pennsylvania in 1803 and died September, 1875. He was a well-known citizen and an honest and intelligent man. He and family were members of the Presbyterian Church. The mother was born in Columbiana County in 1807. Their children were: James, John W., Mary, William K., (enlisted August 7, 1862, in Company K, Ohio volunteer infantry, One hundredth regiment. Served three years and three months. He was with Sherman on his "March to Sea." Was mustered out June 20, 1865); Mrs. Kate Norris, Jennie R., George F., (enlisted in the One Hundred and Forty-third regiment, O.N.G., May 2 1864. Discharged September 13, 1864); Mrs. Susie Brandon, Mrs. Margaret Chain, and Mrs. Harriet Fletcher. John W. in early life was a carpenter. He enlisted September 5, 1861 in Company I, First regiment Ohio volunteer infantry. Colonel McGook organized the regiment at Dayton, Ohio. The first engagement was at Shiloh, later siege of Corinth, Stone River, Tullahoma, Chickamauga, Mission Ridge, Buzzard's Roost, Resaca and Altoona Pass. He was severely wounded May 27, 1864, at the battle of Altoona Pass. , having been shot through the right lung, the ball passing through the body and cutting three holes in his suspenders. He still preserves these as a relic. He was confined in the hospital at Acworth, Ga., and later at Chatanooga. Returning to his regiment he remained with it until his term of service expired, September 14, 1864. Since the war, Mr. Copeland has been engaged in farming and carpentry, although much of the time, has been unable to do anything on account of his wound. Mrs. Jennie Ramsey, his sister, lives with him, and her two son's, Frank and Charles assist him on the farm. Mr. Copeland is a member of the G.A.R. post of Hanover, and is also a member of the P. & H. No. 535. In politics, he is an active and enthusiastic republican. He is a man of much force and ability.

In his obituary given to us by Edwin Copeland in the summer of 2000. "WAR VETERAN PASSES AWAY John W. Copeland Answers to the Final Roll Call Millport, O., Dec. 27 - John W. Copeland, Civil War veteran and one of the best known perhaps of the men of Franklin Township died at his home near here this morning at 4:00, his age being 81 years. While deceased had been in failing health for years and had never been a rugged man in the true sense of the word since Civil war days, his final illness resulted from a general breakdown which had its inception about four weeks ago. Mr. Copeland was one of the number of a regiment in which were many of the Franklin township veterans and was found in many of the fiercest conflicts of that historic struggle among them Mission Ridge, Chickamauga, Resaca, Rocky Ford, Champion Hill, Altoona Pass and the skirmishes in Atlanta. On the evening of May 27, 1864, at Altoona Pass, Ga. Mr. Copeland was shot evidently by a sharp shooter and fell it was believed mortally wounded, the ball cutting through his suspender entering the flesh at the side of the right nipple and passing entirely through the body penetrating the lung. For several hours he lay upon the field before given attention, and upon examination then by army surgeons was told he but a brief time to live and asked of any word he might desire sent home. Mr. Copeland however spurned the thought of death telling the physician to do his duty and he would recover, and he did recover, and while not seeing active service after came home with his company comrades at the close of the war. Mr. Copeland was born in Center township but for sixty years had lived in the neighborhood of the home where he died, possibly upon the same farm, the farm ever having been his abiding place. He was a splendid man, citizen, and neighbor and ever held the respect and esteem of all who knew him. He was a member of Presbyterian church, every loyal to the tenets and faith of the Christian fathers. He was never married. Surviving is one brother, George F. Copeland and four sisters, Mrs. A. W. Bowman of Medina, Mrs. Maggie Chain, of Cleveland, Mrs. Huber Norris, near Dungannon, and Mrs. S. E. Morledge at the home. Funeral service will be held Friday at ten o'clock from Bethesda Presbyterian church, Rev. E. J. Travers to have charge. Burial will be made in Bethesda cemetery."

In the Bethesda Cemetery Book, it has a picture of the Soldier's Monument with John B. McQuilkin, John W. Copeland, and George F. Copeland standing in front of it. The book also has this story, "SOLDIERS' MONUMENT This Monument was erected and dedicated as a memorial to the soldiers of Franklin township, who served in the Civil War, 1861-1865. Many of these soldier boys were members of the Bethesda church or attendants upon its services, and forty-one were born within the bounds of the community. The monument was dedicated with impressive and inspiring ceremony on Memorial Day, May 30, 1897. A large crowd of people gathered for the occasion, not only from the immediate vicinity and county but many came considerable distance.....The leading spirits in the conception of this monument for Bethesda cemetery were George F. Copeland, John B. McQuilkin, and John W. Copeland. These men who were neighbors had been in attendance at the dedicatory exercises of the soldier's monument at Hanover the year previous, 1906, and while they were on their way home talking of the events of the day, the suggestion was made by Mr. George F. Copeland: "Why not a monument to the soldiers of Franklin township in Bethesda cemetery?" Soon plans were formulated and activity was manifested in the raising of money. The burden of raising the money seems to have naturally fallen upon the shoulders of Mr. George F. Copeland. His efforts were crowned with great success, and to him belongs the credit of having procured the greater part of the necessary money. Rev. Father Lindesmith was one of the contributors to the fund. The monument is indeed very beautiful: the statue of the soldier is composed of light beryl granite and has been pronounced by experts as unsurpassed. The main shaft is dark Quincy granite; the whole monument was finished at the quarry with the exception of the names, which were cut in the granite at Lisbon. The cost of the monument was $450, but probably could not be duplicated today for two or three times that amount. The names of the soldiers engraved upon the monument are: J. C. Morgan, Daniel Morgan, A. M. Roach, Archie McMullen, Jason Wellington, Jacob Shaub, James Gamble, J. L. Anderson, S. L. Connell, David Connell, George F. Copeland, John C. Anderson, John W. Fife, Thomas R. Fife, William Johnston, James McQuilkin, John Hamilton, John Patterson, Joseph Chambers, Israel Beebout, Samuel Moore, Noah Knepper, John W. Copeland, John b. McQuilkin, John Garver F. W. McCauley, Hugh Dobson, William H. Cool, D. L. McQuilkin, John Collins, Emanuel Custar, John Brown, Samuel Brown, I. J. Brown, John Donnelly, C. T. McCauley, William Gamble, Alcinus Swaney, Patrick Rafferty, Thomas Herbert, (Canadian), William Laughlin, Strewen Morrison, T. J. Heckathorn. Other Franklin township soldiers whose names do not appear upon the monument were Charles Metzgar, William Metzgar, James Laughlin, Jacob Heckathorn, and William King Copeland.....The lives of two of these soldier veterans were indelibly linked together. They were John W. Copeland and John B. McQuilkin, both neighbor boys in youth and living upon adjoining farms. As soldiers they entered the war together, remaining together while in the service of their country, occupying the same tent and bunk, returned home together at the close of the war and lived as neighbors until death separated them. Copeland was a sharpshooter and rose to the rank of corporal; McQuilkin was a color-bearer taking the colors following the battle of Stone River and carrying them until he was discharged. Both were farmers and members of Bethesda church and both rest in final repose in Bethesda cemetery near the monument. Copeland died Dec. 27, 1916; McQuilkin, April 3, 1918. On the evening of May 27, 1864, at Altoona Pass, Ga., John W. Copeland was badly and at the time believed mortally wounded, evidently by a sharpshooter secreted in some elevated position--this is indicated by the nature of the wound. The fact that he survived will ever be one of the marvels of the war. The ball cut through his suspenders entering the flesh at the side of the right nipple, penetrating the lung and passing entirely through the body, coming out at the side of the bone at the back. For three hours or longer he lay on the field before comrades could bear him away and his wound be given attention. Following examination by the army surgeon, Mr. Copeland was told that if he had any word he desired to send home or to friends that he, the surgeon, would send it as the wound was a fatal one and death but the matter of a little time. Imagine the surgeon's astonishment and the surprise of the comrades around him when from the lips of the wounded man as his eyes met those of the physician came the words, "That rebel bullet was never molded to kill me! Get to work and do your duty and I'll get well." The surgeon with a smile set to the task of saving his life, one of the things done in the dressing of the wound being the insertion of a silk handkerchief and drawing it entirely through the body that the wound might be cleared of any lint or particle of clothing carried by the bullet in its course. He did get well but saw no active service afterward--at the discharge of his company at the close of the war he returned home with his comrades. Naturally, after this he was never a robust man, and "seldom," he said "free from pain." The suspenders he wore at the time he retained throughout his life and he was holding them in his hand at the time of the picture of the monument was taken. His faith, grit, determination, and indomitable will power, with no thought other than of again being with the boys at the front had much, if not all, to do with his recovery. The flag held by Mr. McQuilkin as seen in the picture is one with a history. It was made in 1855 by the young ladies of that day living in Franklin township and presented to the boy of young men of the township then forming a military company. Miss Rhoda Ann Sinclair, who later became the wife of William Gamble, made the presentation address with practically these words: "We, the ladies of the Franklin township, present to boys this flag. May you never allow it to be dishonored or to be trampled upon the ground." It was thus accepted and has never been dishonored and so long as its folds cling together will ever be a cherished and treasured heirloom of the veterans and the people of the township." NOTE: Edwin Copeland in the summer of 2000, said that his father (Lawrence Herman Copeland) had the suspenders for a while but his father (George Frease Copeland) asked for them back to loan to someone. They were then lost.

- 76 x. Mary L. Copeland, born Abt. 1837. She married Howard M. Bowman January 17, 1888 in Williams Co., OH.

Notes for Mary L. Copeland: In William King Copeland's obituary in the Waterloo Press, Sept. 21, 1911 it says a paragraph about his brothers and sisters. It says, "Brother Copeland came of a family of twelve children, one of those large families that formerly graced our stalwart settler's homes. The following brothers and sisters tarry behind awaiting the reunion beyond the veil of time, James of Montpelier, O.; Mrs. Huber Norris, J. W., G. F. and Mrs. Jennie Ramsey, all of Milport, O; Mrs. Susan Brandon, of Hillsdale, Mich.; and Mrs. Maggie Chain., of Kensington, O."

Bryan Press, Thursday, June 6, 1929, "FORMER BRYAN MAN DIES IN CLEVELAND HARVEY LINDESMITH DEAD Harvey W. Lindesmith died suddenly at his home at 479 East 188th Street, Cleveland, May 28th. Funeral services were held last Friday afternoon at the home of his sisters in Lisbon, Ohio. The services were attended by friends from Pittsburgh, Cleveland, East Liverpool, Youngstown, Warren, Salem, Alliance, and Leetonia, Ohio and Angola, Ind., and by many relatives from Lisbon and surrounding communities. Mr. Lindesmith was a resident of Bryan for many years and was a member of the firm of Lindesmith Bros., who manufactured carriages for years here in the building now occupied by Poast 7 Dawson. Their product was high grade and was known all over this part of the country, some of their buggies still being in service after 30 or more years of use. Mr. Lindesmith was a popular young man in Bryan and well known around here, but left at the time the buggy business began to yield to the encroachments of the motor. Several years ago he was married and for a long time has lived in and near Cleveland. His widow survives and he has many friends in this county who are grieved to know of his passing."

He is buried in Lisbon Cemetery, Columbiana County, OH.

Birth and death date according to Karen Kysilka. Information was given to us by Kevin Everet

In the church book for the church of Westfork it has, Anna Maria 16th April 1818 Parents: Daniel Lindesmith and Gertrude (Crissinger).

"ALMOST CENTURY SPANNED BY LIFE CLOSED TUESDAY The death of Mrs. Mary Mason a most highly respected pioneer resident of Center township occurred at 6:30 o'clock, Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John M. King on West Walnut Street. A week ago, Mrs. Mason was stricken with paralysis but recovered from the stroke and was getting along remarkably well for one of her advanced years until Monday morning when she was again stricken and lay in an unconscious condition until death came. The deceased was born in Center township, west of Lisbon on April 16, 1818 and was thus in her 95th year. Her entire life was spent in Center township and for sixty-seven years, prior to three years ago when she came to Lisbon to make her home with her daughter, she resided on the old Mason home farm three miles west of here. In many respects Mrs. Mason was a remarkable woman, for although the year given to her had almost spanned a century, she remained to the last in full possession and enjoyment of all of her faculties to a remarkable degree. She remembered Lisbon as it was years ago as a straggling village of but a few houses, and much of the county roundabout as a wilderness, and the stories told by her of those days were most interesting. She was widely known and had many friends in the county about Lisbon who will be sorry to learn of her demise. In 1843 she was united in marriage with John Mason, whose death occurred in 1876. Of those eight children were born, only four of who are living: Harvey Mason and Mrs. Carrie King, of his city, George Mason of Center Township, and Mrs. Hattie Horne, of Pittsburgh. For many years the deceased had been a member of Mt. Zion Reformed church west of Lisbon, and was a faithful and consistent member. The funeral will occur from the King home at 10:30 o'clock, standard time, Thursday, and interment will be made at Mt. Zion church west of town."

30. John⁴ Knepper (Elizabeth³ Lindesmith, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born 1793, and died 1883. He married Hannah Custer. She was born 1804, and died 1878.

Notes for John Knepper: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

I am guessing this is the right John. It is the right age group and is in the right place, buried with a lot of Lindesmith's etc. at Trinity Lutheran Cemetery.

They also have an John buried in the same area. This is probably a nephew to John Jr. and grandchild to John Sr. Albert is prob. a son of John Sr. because of the time period. Information on stone, "John, son of Albert, 1870-1888."

Notes for Hannah Custer: Information from the Trinity Reformed Cemetery, Hanover Twp, Columbiana County, OH.

She married John (Jonathan) Williard April 08, 1824 in Columbiana Co., OH, son of Philip Williard and Catharine Knouff. He was born June 03, 1801 in Frederick County, Maryland, and died April 11, 1891 in Columbiana County, OH.

Notes for Elizabeth J. Lindesmith: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

Exact birth Information from "History of Columbiana County, Ohio and Representative Citizens edited and compiled by William B. McCord Salem, Ohio 1905."

Notes for John (Jonathan) Williard: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

Information from "History of Columbiana County, Ohio and Representative Citizens edited and compiled by William B. McCord Salem, Ohio 1905."

They are buried at the Trinity Reformed Cemetery, Hanover Township, Columbiana County, OH. It is Willyard on their tombstone. It is also Willard on the memorial stone of the Reverend Lindesmith. Sometimes it is also spelled Williard. On the internet it had their names as Willard.

In the four generation ancestor chart by Ruth Cox, it says John died Sept. 11, 1891.

"John was born in Maryland and went to Ohio with his father's family and settled. His father established a tannery and employed his son John who afterwards conducted it, attending to farming in connection with his other business. He was an active Democrat and filled the office of justice of the peace for thirty years, being widely known as Squire Williard. He enjoyed the respect of the whole community. He died at the homestead at the age of ninety years. His wife died twenty years earlier at the age of sixty-five years. She was the daughter of Jacob and Susan (Crissinger) Lindesmith." This was from the Montgomery County Federation of Historical Societies, Biographical Annals of Montgomery County, Pa., Vol 1 by Roberts." Information from the Willyard book that Anne K. Hertzner compiled that Ken Everett made available for us to look at. Same source: "The Williard family were French Huguenots and were driven from their native country by religious troubles. They settled on River Rhine, from where they emigrated to this country, settling first in Maryland and then in Ohio."

All birth dates of he, his wife, and children all line up with the Bible Records.

Marriage Notes for Elizabeth Lindesmith and John Williard: Information from Columbiana Ohio Marriages, 1800-1870.

In the four generation ancestor chart done by Ruth Cox, it said they were married April 18, 1924.

Children of Elizabeth Lindesmith and John Williard are:

- + 180 i. Elias⁵ Williard, born July 13, 1825; died December 04, 1894.
- + 181 ii. Susanna Williard, born January 20, 1827; died March 02, 1899.
- 182 iii. Jacob Williard, born December 25, 1828; died May 25, 1890. He married Jane Hays November 16, 1852 in Columbiana Co., OH; died Bet. January 01 - 07, 1894.

Notes for Jacob Williard: Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa.

Jacob was a good farmer and an active citizen of the Millport community. His name is associated with the publishing of "The Combined Atlas of Columbiana County, 1841-1869" and with the "Columbiana Couty, Ohio Cemetery Location Maps." Another Jacob Williard (middle initial G.) lived in the area and I guess caused some confusion in researching. That Jacob was involved with the Beaver Canal development. Jacob and Jane provided a home for her brother John and his sons, and after John's death she raised her nephews, James, John, and George Hays. He died at age 62 leaving his wife Jane a great deal of property. Jane named her husband's nephew, Frank Kennedy in her will. Information from the Willyard book that Anne K. Hertzner compiled that Ken Everett made available for us to look at.

This is the entry for the church book for the church of Westfork. Jacob b. 25 Dec 1828

Information from "History of Columbiana County, Ohio and Representative Citizens edited and compiled by William B. McCord Salem, Ohio 1905."

I am not sure if this is definitely the right John to this birth date. He is buried at Trinity Reformed Cemetery in Hanover Twp., Columbiana County, OH. According to other sources, this is the right John. He died of heart complications.

Entry in the church book for the church of Westfork: Johannes Jr. b 11 July 1832 Bapt. 6 Jan. 1833 Parents: Johannes Willyard and Elizabeth (Lindesmith).

Notes for Margaret Ann Gaver/Giver: This is this John's wife, if John's birthdate is correct.

The name giver is: information from Ruth Williard (sent to Anne Hertzner).

Marriage Notes for John Williard and Margaret Gaver/Giver: Information from Columbiana Ohio Marriages, 1800-1870.

They were married at the old Gaver homestead in Center Township and lived to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary, an unusual occasion at that time. They began housekeeping of a farm near Millport and moved twice during their married life, having lived forty-one years at their last home near New Garden.

Information from the Elias Williard Bible Records (we found it in Toledo, OH in 2001)

Notes for Mary Williard: Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa. Never married.

She never married - cared for Francis W. Kennedy upon the death of his mother. She died while he was attending Heidelberg College. Francis was the father of Anne K. Hertzner. This information from Ruth Williard (sent to Anne Hertzner).

46. Hannah J.⁴ Lindesmith (Jacob³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born December 08, 1813 in Columbiana County, OH, and died April 01, 1869. She married John Young April 20, 1837 in Columbiana, OH. He was born September 08, 1815 in Columbiana County, OH, and died April 23, 1873.

Notes for Hannah J. Lindesmith: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65. According to her tombstone she was 55y 3m 22d. It has a fancy curved top with bible on top of a sandstone tombstone.

Notes for John Young: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

This information is from a genforum page. It mentions that this family moved to Williams County, OH.

On his tombstone it says, Sept. 8, 1815 (by subtracting 57y 7m 15 d from his death date of April 23, 1873) and it says Sept. 9, 1815 according to the biography of his son Benjamin Young in the "History of Williams County, Ohio" and Michael J. Moore thought he was born prob. in Columbiana County, OH. He and Hannah were married by R. G. Richardson, J. P. in Columbiana County, OH according to the Marriage Book 1800-1870. Hannah was born Dec. 8, 1813 (tombstone) or Dec. 3, 1813 Biography of Benjamin Young in Columbiana County, OH. Again according to Michael J. Moore, he thinks that John Young may have been the son or grandson of a William Young, who appears on page 246 (as William Young, Sr., aged 80-90) of the 1840 Columbiana County census. There is a John Young on page 247 who fits perfectly the profile of our John Young (3 boys under the age of 5, 1 woman 20-30, and one man 20-30). Furthermore a Joseph Lindesmith (presumably the son of Daniel Lindesmith?) is also listed on page 246. John and Hannah moved near the town of Galion in Polk township, Crawford County, Ohio in 1844 (according to the bio of their son Benjamin Young). In 1860 the Youngs were still living in Polk township. Abt. the year 1865 the Young family moved to Superior Township, Williams County, OH. Hannah Young died there on April 1, 1869. John Young died there on April 23, 1873.

George Brannan/Brandon July 24, 1879 in Williams Co., OH.

Notes for Susan B. Copeland: Could she have gone by Hannah also?

Notes for George Brannan/Brandon: Brandon spelling is from: Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa.

Marriage Notes for Susan Copeland and George Brannan/Brandon: It is listed in the Ohio Marriages, Vol. IV of Williams Co., OH. I figured the way they phonically spelled names then that Brandon was Brannan. There was a Mary that married a Brannan, too but he is listed in the obituary as Bowman. It could be typos in the obit which was common. Even more common was the marrying of two sisters to two brothers because of the limitations of travel.

246 i. Harley⁶ Brannan.

74. James Joshua⁵ Copeland (Susannah⁴ Lindesmith, Daniel³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born January 14, 1832 in Columbiana County, OH, and died February 12, 1916 in Williams Co., OH. He married (1) Henrietta Jordan Crabb October 31, 1861 in Williams Co., OH. She was born Abt. 1840, and died March 21, 1878 in prob. Williams Co., OH. He married (2) Susan B. Walz 1879 in Defiance Co., OH. She was born Abt. 1844 in Maryland, and died September 22, 1891 in prob. Williams Co., OH.

Notes for James Joshua Copeland: His obituary was in with family history obituaries so am guessing he is a brother to William King. He was born about the same time and came from the same area (Columbiana County, Ohio) and then he moved to Williams County, OH.

He was living at the time of his brother, William K.'s death at Montpelier Ohio. (1911)

In the cemetery books, it confirms information that I got from his obituary. He has a marble stone that faces east. He and his wives are buried at West Bethesda Cemetery.

A small obituary in the Bryan Dem., Feb. 15, 1916, "Prominent Farmer Called James J. Copeland, well known farmer, died Saturday afternoon at his home in South Superior township. He was 84 years old and one of the pioneer citizens of the county, and was a member of the Horticultural society. Seven children survive. The funeral services will be held at the West Bethesda church Tuesday afternoon at 1:30."

A bigger obituary says, "James Joshua Copeland was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, January 14, 1832 and passed into the better life Feb. 12, 1916, aged 84 years and 28 days. His early years were spent in the county of his birth; during his twenty-first year he removed to Williams County, Ohio, settling up on the homestead where the chapters of his life closed. In 1879, bereaved of the wife of his youth, he was united in marriage to Susan B. Walz who, some years ago preceded him to the better land. When still in early youth James Copeland gave his heart and life to the keeping of his Saviour, uniting with Bethesda Presbyterian church in Columbiana. On arriving in Williams he presented his certificate of membership to the West Bethesda Presbyterian church of Williams County under date of January 15, 1859. Mr. Copeland continued in the communion of the church until June 24, 1887. He was elected an elder in the session of the West Bethesda, a relation and officed continued until his death on Feb. 12, 1916 at his home three miles south of Montpelier. To know James J. Copeland was to honor and love him; to admire the sterling qualities of faith, honesty and rugged piety inherited from his Scotch ancestors. Mr. Copeland leaves four sons, G. M., J. C., Frank, and Charles; three daughters Mrs. Nettie Campbell, Mrs. Bell Kyes, and Mrs. Alta Myers, some grandchildren, many other relatives and a wide circle of friends to mourn their loss. The funeral sermon was preached by the Reverend Edwin Elliott Parkinson, pastor of West Bethesda church and the obituary was read and the benediction pronounced by the Reverend Money of West Unity M. E. Church. Interment at West Betheseda Presbyterian cemetery."

He had a William according to: Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa.

Notes for Henrietta Jordan Crabb: Her gravestone says, according to the cemetery books at Williams Co., "Henrietta Copeland, d. 3-21-1878, aged 38y, 8m, 25d. Tall sandstone stone partially unreadable. North side reads infant children of J. J. & H. J. Copeland." Beside her gravestone is a gravestone of a Rev. John M. d. 3-17-1859, in the 55 year of his age. I presume he is her father or uncle.

Marriage Notes for James Copeland and Henrietta Crabb: Information in the Williams County, Ohio Marriage records.

Notes for Susan B. Walz: Her gravestone at West Bethesda Cemetery (according to cemetery book in Williams Co. library), says, "Susan B. Copeland, wife of J. J. Copeland, d. 9-22-1891, aged 47y 2m 17d. Stone faces west with poem 'Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God.'"

Children of James Copeland and Henrietta Crabb are:

- 253 i. Belle⁶ Copeland, died Aft. 1920. She married R. J. Keyes.

Notes for T. O. Meyers: Information from "History of Williams County, 1920."

259 iv. J. C. Copeland.

77. William King⁵ Copeland (Susannah⁴ Lindesmith, Daniel³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born March 30, 1839 in Columbiana Co., OH, and died September 15, 1911 in Waterloo, IN. He married Mary McCafferty February 08, 1866 in Bryan, OH, daughter of Benjamin McCafferty and Jane/Susan Divney. She was born July 08, 1839 in Papertown, PA, and died August 14, 1922 in Waterloo, IN.

Notes for William King Copeland: He served in the Union Army. It has C.O.C. 100 Ohio Inf. on his gravestone.

According to the Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa., he had a son Charles. Note: This is possible that he might have and may have been living in the area of Columbiana Ohio and maybe died rather young. If he is a son, he wasn't alive when his father died.

In the Nov. 22, 1883, Waterloo Press, "While hulling clover at Mr. Copeland's last week, the wind blew sparks from the engine into the barn, igniting the hay and burning barn, 10 or 12 tons of hay, straw stack, clover stack, and what farming implements were stored in the barn."

In the paper Oct. 26, 1894, it says W. K. Copeland and family have been visiting relatives in Bryan and Evansport, OH.

July 9, 1897, The Butler News, "Mrs. Susan Culbertson and two little nieces, of Bryan, Ohio, are the guests of W.K. Copeland and family."

In the "Butler Record" Sept. 23, 1898, it says, "W. K. Copeland sold a hog to Aldrich and Lowe Saturday that weighed 680 pounds."

Nov. 8, 1900, The Butler Weekly Record, "W. K. Copeland, of Butler, who recently purchased the property in Southeast Waterloo of Mrs. J. A. Boozer, has reroofed the house, and is having the premises placed in good repair preparatory to his moving here in one week. We welcome him to our community. he is an ex-soldier, and is one of the "boys" who received a letter from Congressman J. M. Robinson, enclosing sixteen cents in postage. He informed Mr. Robinson that his vote could not be purchased for sixteen cents, which made Mr. R. "look like thirty cents." If there was anything smart in these letters sent to old soldiers with eight two cent stamps enclosed, the effect was lost in the inability of the old veterans to see the point."

In the Butler paper, Oct. 4, 1901, "W. K. Copeland returned home Tuesday evening from the G.A.R. encampment. He could almost be termed a "straggler," but he explains that he was visiting relatives in the old Buckeye state - Press."

In the Oct. 7, 1904 The Butler Record, "FOR SALE - Buff Plymouth Rock cocks and cockerels. W. K. Copeland, Waterloo, Ind."

Sept. 15, 1911, The Waterloo Press, "W. K. Copeland of Waterloo is in serious condition, the effects of a runaway horse. Tuesday morning he was driving his horse in a light wagon when his hat flew off and scared the horse. He fell out and was run over by the wagon. When picked up it was found that he was injured about the head in such a way as to cause paralysis. His age and physical condition is said to be against recovery."

He is on the monument family listing of Rev. Lindesmith: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

Obituary in Thursday, September 21, 1911 Waterloo Press, "WILLIAM COPELAND DIES FROM INJURIES SUSTAINED IN ACCIDENT HONORED SOLDIER - CITIZEN SPENT A LIFE OF USEFULNESS AND DIES TRIUMPHANTLY IN PAIN William K. Copeland was born March 30, 1839, to Patterson and Susannah Copeland in Columbiana county, Ohio, and was very suddenly called from this life through a painful accident at Waterloo, Ind., Sept 15, at eight o'clock in the morning, aged 72 years, 5 months, and 15 days. He spent his boyhood days at the country home of his parents with the routine duties that usually fell to a lad in those early western farming days. But with the word that Mayor Anderson had been compelled to surrender Fort Sumter flashed across the country followed by the appeal of President Lincoln for 75,000 volunteers, Comrade Copeland, with 300,000 other boys, answered the call and went forth singing, "We are coming Father Abraham 500,000 strong." His ninety day enlistment extended from April 27, 1861 to Aug. 13, of the same year being a member of Company C., 14th Vol. Inf. Returning home he remained there until stirred by the needs of his country his patriotic spirit pledged itself to a three years service to his flag. This time he enlisted as a private in Co., C., 100th Reg't. O.V.I. 2st Brigade 3d Division, 23d Corps. Army of the Ohio. This enlistment began August 7, 1862 and he was mustered out with his regiment at the close of the war, June 20, 1865, and making a total of over three years service devoted to the defense of his country and of his flag. With his regiment Comrade Copeland was engaged in the following battles; Limestone Station, Tenn.; Rocky Face Ridge, Ga.; Resacca, Ga.; Dallas, Ga.; Kenesaw Mt., Ga; Utoy Creek, Ga.; Siege of Atlanta, Ga.; Columbia, Tenn.; Franklin, Tenn.; Nashville, Tenn.; Town Creek, N.C.; and Wilmington, N.C. It will be seen by this last that this soldier boy who has just so recently been mustered out of life's battles was one of those thousands of silent heroes without which that grand old fighter, George H. Thomas, could not have won the battles that history now so greatly honors him with. Returning home he took up the peaceable avocations of life and has lived a life that has proved to the world, as many other boys in blue have done, that our most loyal citizens are to be found among the men who wore the blue and are now recognized by the button of bronze. On Feb. 18, 1866, our brother Copeland was married to Mary McCafferty Culbertson who was the widow of a soldier who lost his life in one of the battle of the Civil War. Their marriage took place in Bryan, O., and here their family of seven children were born. After continuing their residence for some twenty years they removed to a farm near Butler, Ind. After several years on the farm Brother Copeland found his age and health were against his strenuous work so he removed to Waterloo about 11 years ago, where he (was) known as a good representative citizen. Of his family one daughter died in infancy. The other six who remain are George B., of Montpelier, Ohio; Harry E., Denver, Colo.; Howard of California; James O. of Butler, Ind.; Mrs. Wilmetta Hanes, of Pawnee Rock, Kan.; and Jennie of Waterloo. Brother Copeland came of a family of twelve children, one of those large families that formerly graced our stalwart settler's homes. The following brothers and sisters tarry behind awaiting the reunion beyond the veil of time, James of Montpelier, O.; Mrs. Mary Bowman, Medina, Ohio; Mrs. Huber Norris, J. W., G. F. and Mrs. Jennie Ramsey, all of Milport, O.; Mrs. Susan Brandon, of Hillsdale, Mich.; and Mrs. Maggie Chain.; of Kensington, O. Shortly after his marriage, with his companion, he joined the Reformed church and removing to a place where there was no church of his denomination they together united with the Presbyterian church. After moving to Waterloo he was detained at home a great part of the time on the account of an affliction in the home and had thus never removed his membership to this city. He was held in high esteem by his comrades in arms and by his wide acquaintance of friends. His wife told the writer that he was a most kind hearted and thoughtful husband and our wives are most capable of knowing us as we are. He always espoused his belief in God and to him we commend this brother, this husband, this father, this comrade, this neighbor, this friend, trusting we shall someday meet him in God's own city above. Comrade Copeland was admitted to membership in Post 52, G.A.R. by transfer from the Butler Post, soon after he took up his residence in Waterloo and remained a loyal member until his death. The funeral, conducted by Rev. G. H. Hubbart, of the M. E. church, under the auspices of Post 52, was held in the Presbyterian church in Waterloo at 10 o'clock a.m. Monday, Sept. 18. About 25 of his comrades marched to the late residence and escorted the cortege to the church. Six members of the post, F. C. Waterman, F. H. Baidler, A. W. Wherley, Phil Plum, J. P. McCague, and John Lightner were detailed as pall bearers. Four comrades, C. R. Reed, F. N. Beidler, Robt. Patterson and F. W. Willis rendered two appropriate selections with Mr. Dilts presiding at the organ. Rev. Hubbart selected Ecclesiastes, 8th chapter and 8th verse as the foundation of a brief discourse in which the victories of the soldier's life was emphasized and the real victory over death is revealed in the Christian faith. There was quite a large attendance at the funeral and nearly a score of comrades accompanied the funeral procession to the cemetery one mile east of Butler. About 20 comrades of the Butler Post, G.A.R., met the procession in Butler and served as an escort to the grave where the ritual service of the G.A.R. was completed. The fidelity of the comrades, both in Waterloo and Butler, testified of their loyalty and esteem in which the departed comrade was held in the order."

Notes for Mary McCafferty: In the Aug. 17, 1922 Waterloo Press, her obituary has "MRS MARY COPELAND DIES Ill for Over a Week Funeral Held Yesterday Afternoon Mrs. Mary Copeland, who lived in the east part of town along the state highway, died at her home Monday evening at about six o'clock after an illness of ten days. During her last illness it soon developed that she could not survive long with the complications that had set in owing to her advanced age. Mrs. Copeland was a woman of many excellent qualities and was loved as a neighbor. The funeral was held from the late home yesterday afternoon at one o'clock and the remains were taken to Butler for interment, Rev. D. A. J. Brown, of the M. E. church officiated at the services. Mary McCafferty was born in Papertown, Pa., July 8, 1839, and died at Waterloo, Ind., Aug. 4, 1922 aged 88 years, 1 month, and 6 days. After, she reached womanhood she was united in marriage to William Culbertson, who was about to enlist in the Civil War, and three months after their marriage he was killed in action. At the close of the war, on Feb. 8, 1866 she was again married to William B. Copeland, who also had served in the Union army. To this union was born four sons and three daughters, as follows: George B. Copeland of Montpelier, O., Harry E. Copeland, of Denver, Col, Howard Copeland, of Little Rock Arkansas, James O. Copeland, of Butler, Maggie Copeland who died in infancy, Wilmetta, wife of Harry Haines of Waterloo and Jennie Copeland, who lived with her mother at the time of her death. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Copeland lived on a farm near Butler, and prior to that time lived at Bryan, Ohio. About twenty two years ago they moved to Waterloo. Mr. Copeland passed away in September 1911. After moving to Waterloo, the deceased became a member of the Waterloo Presbyterian church, and was faithful to the church as long as the church organization was continued. She was a kind mother and a good neighbor, and was loved by all who knew her."

The dates on his enlistment and their 3 month marriage before he died doesn't add up. They either married while he was on a leave or else they were married 3 years not 3 months.

In the Butler Record, May 31, 1912 Friday paper it says, "Mrs. Alton Campbell of Ft. Wayne and Mrs. Mary Copeland of Waterloo and Mrs. Henry Copeland of Denver, Colo., visited Tuesday with Stephen VanDusen and wife."

The Butler Record, May 30, 1913, "Mrs. Mary Copeland and daughter, Miss Jennie Copeland of Waterloo were the guests of Stephen VanDusen Tuesday enroute home from a visit with relatives in Montpelier."

Aug. 17, 1922, The Butler Record, "WATERLOO WOMAN, 83, DIES OF HEART FAILURE, "Mrs. Mary McCaffery-Copeland of Waterloo, passed away Monday evening at 6 o'clock when stricken with heart failure. She was 83 years of age and had been a resident of Waterloo for many years. The deceased was the widow of W. K. Copeland. Surviving are: Three sons, J. O. Copeland of Butler; G. R. Copeland of Denver, Colo.; and Bert Copeland of Montpelier, Ohio; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Hanes of Waterloo and Jennie Copeland at home. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 1 o'clock. Interment was made in the Butler cemetery."

Marriage Notes for William Copeland and Mary McCafferty: In Mary's obituary and in their marriage records it says the 8th. In William's obituary it says the 18th, which I think I have found other typing errors in William's obituary also.

Children of William Copeland and Mary McCafferty are:

- + 260 i. George Burton⁶ Copeland, born April 25, 1867 in Bryan, OH; died February 1973 in Brownsburg, IN.
- + 261 ii. Harry Emmett Copeland, born January 29, 1869; died in Denver, Colorado.
- 262 iii. Howard Wesley Copeland, born November 23, 1871.

Notes for Howard Wesley Copeland: He is living in Little Rock, Arkansas at the time of his mother's death in 1922. Some information on him from Family group sheet that Nancy Sines Schultz had.

- + 263 iv. James Orrin Copeland, born December 19, 1874 in Williams Co., Bryan, Ohio; died November 13, 1961 in DeKalb Co., IN.
- 264 v. Margaret Bell (Maggie) Copeland, born Dec. 09 - 19, 1874; died October 09, 1877.

Notes for Margaret Bell (Maggie) Copeland: If she was born on Dec. 19, and her brother was born then too, they were twins. There is a possibility that the information for James is wrong but it mentions his birthday is Dec. 1874 twice (census and his obituary).

- + 265 vi. Susan Wilmetta Copeland, born April 30, 1882 in Butler, IN; died September 23, 1937 in Waterloo, IN.
- 266 vii. Jane Edith (Jennie) Copeland, born October 1884.

Notes for Jane Edith (Jennie) Copeland: She lived with her mother at the time of her death. Information from Mary Copeland Obituary.

Information about her birth is from the 1900 Wilmington Twp, DeKalb County Census. She was slow mentally. According to Theron Hanes, she died of cancer.

The Butler Record, May 30, 1913, "Mrs. Mary Copeland and daughter, Miss Jennie Copeland of Waterloo were the guests of Stephen VanDusen Tuesday enroute home from a visit with relatives in Montpelier."

79. George Frease⁵ Copeland (Susannah⁴ Lindesmith, Daniel³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born March 30, 1843 in Centre Twp., Columbiana Co., OH, and died 1930. He married Tamar Geneva McCurdy. She was born 1848 in OH, and died 1933.

Notes for George Frease Copeland: Age from the 1850 census.

He was admitted to the Nat'l So. Sept 12, 1913 Ohio Aug 27, 1913 Chap. Apr. 25, 1913. He was in the Chapter #91, Ohio #1152, and Nat'l #34992. According to the family data and information in the "Henry R. 80. Jenny E. (Elizabeth)⁵ Copeland (Susannah⁴ Lindesmith, Daniel³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born 1847, and died 1917. She married (1) Samuel Ramsey. She married (2) Scott Morledge.

Notes for Jenny E. (Elizabeth) Copeland: In William's obit it says her last name is Ramsey but there is a Jennie E. born 1847 died 1917 buried between John W. and George F. Copeland. This could be a wife of George's but I know John is not married according to his obituary. In the 1850 census I think she went by Elizabeth (maybe that is what the E. stands for). This was common to go by the middle name in that time era.

According to the History of the Upper Ohio Valley sent to us by Ken Everett, it says her middle name is R.

85. Elizabeth (Lizzie)⁵ Lindesmith (Joseph⁴, Daniel³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born September 19, 1850 in Dungannon, OH, and died August 29, 1928. She married Thomas J. Young May 23, 1876, son of John Young and Hannah Lindesmith. He was born 1838, and died 1904.

Notes for Elizabeth (Lizzie) Lindesmith: Information from the monument of Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, Chaplin U.S.A. 1861-65.

The Bryan Press, Sept. 6, 1928, Thursday, "Mrs. Elisabeth Lindesmith Young daughter of Joseph and Mary Lindesmith was born near Dungannon, OH September 19th 1850. Passed from her earthly home to her heavenly, August 29th, 1928, having reached the ripe age of 77 years, 11 months and 10 days. In the year 1876, May 23, she was united in holy wedlock with Thomas J. Young who preceded her. To this union were born one daughter and four sons. Two sons preceded her into the great beyond. Two sons and one daughter survive, also three sisters and two brothers. She was the happy grandmother of twelve grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Early in life she united with the Mt. Zion Lutheran church near Dungannon, Ohio. Later in life she transferred her membership to East Bethesda and Bryan Presbyterian churches. For a number of years before her death she was a faithful member of the First Presbyterian church at Bryan Ohio. When in reach of the church she was faithful in her attendance and always loyal. She has the church at heart not only for herself but for her children and grandchildren. She was mother and grandmother to the motherless children in the home of her son where she spent the years of her widowhood. Her friends and loved ones will miss her greatly but their loss we believe to her eternal gain. Funeral services were held at the home of her son, her late residence, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 2. Rev. C. R Harmon officiating by interment at West Bethesda cemetery."

Notes for Thomas J. Young: He is buried in West Bethesda Cemetery, Williams County, OH. Some information from Michael J. Moore mjmoore@mail.utexas.edu

In the Bryan Democrat, June 23, 1904, page 2, Thursday, "Thomas Young Killed Thomas J. Young was almost instantly killed last Saturday afternoon, while engaged in helping to raise a barn on W. E. Stough's farm east of town. He was under a beam being raised with a block and pulley, taking up the distance with a long pole as fast as the beam moved, when the upper end swung down, overbalancing the bottom end, and struck him on the head. Those present saw his impending danger and called to him to get out of the way, but he stepped in the wrong direction and received a sharp blow on the top of the head. After he was picked up his pulse was not bad for a few minutes, but before a quarter of an hour it became unsteady and stopped. He was unconscious from the time he was struck. It is the opinion of the physician who examined the wound that death did not result directly from the blow on the head, as it was not sufficiently hard to produce a fatal result, but that the shock was too much for a bad heart which he had had for a long time. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, and the remains were interred in Bethesda cemetery north of town. Many friends and relatives were present at the obsequies. Mr Young was 66 years old last March and had been in ill health for a good while. He leaves a widow and four children three sons and a daughter, besides many relatives."

In the Bryan Democrat, June 30, page 4, Thursday, "Thomas J. Young who was killed on the 18th of June 1904 by the falling of a piece of timber while assisting to raise a barn, was born in Columbiana County, March 25th, 1838. He came with his parents to Crawford county, near Galion, O., in 1844. In 1862 he came to Williams County where he resided until his death. He leaves a wife, one daughter and four sons; four sisters, Mrs. Susan Lemon, of Galion, O., Mrs. Mary Ann Moore, and Mrs. Martha Keister, of Bryan and Mrs. Elizabeth Brannan, of Denver, Colorado; three brothers, John and James living in this county and Benjamin living in Nebraska, besides many other relatives throughout the state. Mr. Young united with the Presbyterian church at Bryan during the pastorate of Rev. K. K. Richardson who served the church during 1867-89. Mrs. Young and three children are also members of the same church. Dessa, the only daughter is a teacher in the public schools in Bryan. The funeral was held at his late home on North Beach street, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Geo. M. Miller preaching the sermon and the pastor assisting in the services. A large crowd of friends and neighbors assembled in sympathy for the suddenly bereaved family to whom the shock came with severity. The interment was in the cemetery adjoining the Bethesda Presbyterian church where a number of his children and friends are buried. The family desires to express their appreciation of the kindly help and sympathy shown them in their sore trial." Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa. - 286 iii. Lewis L. Young, born Bet. 1861 - 1873 in prob. Crawford County, OH; died 1883 in Williams Co., OH.

Notes for Lewis L. Young: Under July 5, 1883, Thursday, Bryan Democrat, "Friday June 29th, of scarlet fever, Lewis L., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Young, aged 2 years and 16 days. Saturday June 30th of scarlet fever, May Anna daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Young, 8 yrs. 5 mos. and 9 days. The bereaved parents have the earnest sympathy of a host of friends in the great affliction that has visited their homestead."

In the July 5, 1883 paper, Thursday, it says, "The children of Thomas J. Young have been terrible sufferers from the dreadfully fatal disease scarlet fever. Lewis, the little ten year old son, after eight or two (do they mean ten) days of intense suffering, died Saturday morning and was buried Sunday forenoon. Anna, eight years old, when thought to be out of danger, took a relapse and died Sunday evening a few hours after the burial of her brother. Disa, aged five, the only remaining child of the family, except Homer, who is living with an uncle in the country, is lingering in an uncertain state. Nothing is known of the origin of the disease."

His gravestone (according to Bethesda Cemetery records) says 1861-1883.

NOTE: WE ARE NOT SURE WHO'S CHILD HE IS. WE KNOW HE BELONGS TO THOMAS BUT NOT SURE WHICH MOTHER YET.

Notes for Clarence Young: Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa.

Clarence B. Young died at his home in Grand Rapids, Mich., on the 10th of September. He was 24 years old the 6th of last April, and was married July 31, 1917. Mr. Young passed his boyhood in Bryan, uniting, while a lad with the Presbyterian church here. He studied telegraphy while in Bryan, and became a very expert operator, and later an employee of the Western Union company, which he served in a trustworthy way up to the time he was overtaken by his fatal illness. His work took him to various parts of the country and he was in Minnesota and other western states during his employment. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and Chapter and also the Knights of Pythias, in Grand Rapids, and his funeral, which was held of the 13th, was conducted by Doric lodge F. and A. M. While in his youth he was attacked with a malady that for a time seemed to be conquered, but which developed again in his prime, and resulted in his death. He was laid away amid a profusion of flowers and other mute tributes of respect. Besides his wife, Josephine, his mother, Mrs. T. J. Young, of Bryan survive him, and also a sister, Miss Dessie, of Minneapolis, Minn., two brothers, Elmer, of West Unity and Walter J., who is in camp at Ft. Crook, in Nebraska. Excepting the last named, all were present at the funeral."

Jan. 2, 1908, Bryan Press, Thursday, "L. S. Lindesmith is here this week renewing acquaintances with his old time Bryan friends. He is located in Lima, where he has a good business. He has not been here for five years."

He is buried at Fountain Grove, 803-E lot number.

Sept. 4, 1908, Friday, Page 5, Bryan Democrat, "The sad funeral rites of Lewis Lindersmith, whose death from apoplexy occurred at his late home in Lima, O. Sunday night were observed Wednesday forenoon at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Young on West High street. Rev. Homer Carpenter, pastor of the First Disciple church at Lima accompanied the bereaved family and conducted the services. Lewis Samuel Lindesmith was born December 1852 and passed away August 30, 1908, almost the full meridian of life. Mr. Lindesmith was a resident of this county for twenty-one years, coming to Bryan in 1877, he remained here with the exception of five years spent in business in Montpelier, until 1898 when he moved with his family to Fostoria. His first business connection with Bryan was with E. G. Fay and Son and Chas. Pitcarn, who owned and successfully operated the Bryan carriage company. Subsequently his brother Harvey purchased an interest in the concern which was conducted for several years under the firm name of Lindesmith Brothers. This business which occupied the building now in use as office and ware room of the Bryan Plow Co., became a prosperous and representative carriage factory in these parts. At the dissolution of this partnership he continued in business here selling agricultural implements, until he moved to Fostoria. He remained in that city three years going to Lima six years ago, where he and his two sons have since been conducting a carriage business. He was married Feb. 11, 1880, to Miss Rosa Scott, who with the two sons born to them and a grandchild, are the immediate family who mourn his departure, besides two brothers, fives sisters, and other relatives and friends."

Sept. 1, 1908, Tues. Bryan Dem. "The intelligence was received yesterday morning by H. W. Lindesmith and Mrs. Mary Young that their brother, Lewis S. Lindesmith who suffered a stroke of apoplexy Thursday noon, had passed away Sunday night. Mr. Lindesmith whose home was at Lima, Ohio, did not appear to be in an alarming condition until Friday morning when he lapsed into unconsciousness from which he failed to rally. The body will be brought here for burial and the funeral services will be held from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Young on West High street, tomorrow forenoon at 10 o'clock; the pastor of the Christian church at Lima will officiate."

FOUND PARALYZED (Someone has written in, February 18th, 1901)
Henry Clay Knepper Goes Fishing and suffers a Paralytic Stroke.

ON THE ICE OF ENGLE LAKE

Henry Clay Knepper one of our best known citizens, and a member of Stansbury Post, no. 125, G.A.R. was found in a unconscious condition on the ice of Engle Lake about one mile south of this city on Monday afternoon.

It appears that he had gone to the lake to fish through the ice, leaving his home about 9 o'clock in the morning, feeling as well as usual and thinking only of the fish he hoped to catch, as the day was one propitious for such a sport. Shortly after reaching the lake he was stricken with apoplexy, but was not rendered totally unconscious at that time. Realizing his dangerous condition, he made a heroic effort to reach the land, but fell at the edge of the ice, where he lay until found by a second fishing party about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. They at once removed their overcoats and made a bed upon which they laid the unfortunate man, and then hurried to the home of C.W. Stites and secured his team and bob sleds, returned to the lake and brought the suffering man to his home in this city.

His cousin, Dr. E.W. Knepper was hastily summoned and upon his arrival made a hurried examination and administered heroic treatment, which had the desired affect. Mr. Knepper regaining consciousness and telling of his terrible experience. He seemed to improve, but at six o'clock suffered another stroke, which was more then his condition from severe exposure while laying upon the snow at the lake could stand and at about 7:30 his spirit took its flight.

He was a good citizen and had a host of warm friends who extend sympathy in this hour of bereavement. Kind in disposition, he not only made friends but the happy faculty of retaining them. Generous to a fault, he was ever ready to meet those from whom he differed, and in a simple manner make plain his views, always according others the same rights as he claimed for himself.

Among his G.A.R. comrades he was held in high esteem, and by them was honored with many offices, the duties of which he faithfully and conscientiously discharged. At the time of his death he was post-Commander of Stansbury Post 125, G.A.R., of this city under whose officiation the funeral services were held from the M.E. church on Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, being largely attended. Truly a good man has died.

The following obituary notice, covering his personal life, and army record, is given to us by a member of the family.

Henry Clay Knepper was born August 3, 1842, in Mansfield, Richland County, Ohio, and was the youngest child of Daniel and Elizabeth Knepper. While he was yet a child, his father died and soon after he came with his mother and brothers to Indiana. His boyhood was spent near Albion, Ind. Under Lincoln's first call he enlisted as a private in Co. D. 44th Ind. Vol. Inf. With this regiment he served until Aug. 1st, 1864 and with it fought at Fort Donaldson, Shiloh, Perryville, Stone River, Murfreesboro and other minor engagements. August 1, 1864 he was made a corporal and transferred to the 1st U.S. engineers corps with which he served until the end of the war.

Returning from the war, he was first time married to Barbara Ann Billman, Sept. 13th, 1867. To them was born four children, Elmer, Marion, Clyde and Hattie. His first wife died Sept. 24th, 1874, and he was again married Feb. 21st, 1875 to Mary A. McNair. His second companion died April 22nd, 1876 leaving him with an infant son, Albert. On Feb. 25th, 1877, he was again married to Barbara A. Tillapaugh, whom with three children Otis, Edwin, and Mae are left in the broken home.

In 1877, he united with the Methodist church at Wawaka, Ind., and remained a member of this society of Christians until his death.

Those from out of town who attended the Henry Knepper funeral were: Mr. And Mrs. Jesse Knepper, of Elkhart, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Knepper, of Auburn, Clyde Knepper, of Toledo, Mrs. Hattie McClure, of Chicago, Mrs. Gary Mowry, of Auburn, Charles North and family, of Wawaka, Anthony Butler and wife, of Cosperville, and Mrs. Wm. (Lock?), of Elkhart.

183. Philip⁵ Williard (Elizabeth J.⁴ Lindesmith, Jacob³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born September 24, 1830 in Millport, Columbiana County, OH, and died August 28, 1914. He married Anna E. Prizer October 16, 1860. She was born 1832 in Trappe, PA, and died October 05, 1914 in Trappe, PA.

Notes for Philip Williard: Information from "History of Columbiana County, Ohio and Representative Citizens edited and compiled by William B. McCord Salem, Ohio 1905."

Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa.

He studied for the ministry, but ill health prevented his becoming a minister. Lived in Trappe, PA. Information from Ruth Williard (sent to Anne Hertzner).

He graduated at Jefferson College and Mercerburg Academy in PA. His health failed, and he taught school for several years, continuing his study for the ministry until 1864, when he entered the employment of Mr. Kingsley of the Excelsior Coal Company and became the trusted bookkeeper and cashier of the firm for 37 years. Phillip became a wealthy and influential man in Trappe, serving as treasurer and mayor soon after the incorporation of the borough. When Dad Kennedy needed a loan to go to college, Uncle Philip loaned him $600, a good sum at that time. Later, when Dad was preparing to pay off the loan in October of 1914, he received word that Uncle Philip had died, and the note was returned to him. I do not find any reference to this not in Uncle Philip's will, so we must assume that the settlement had been agreed upon by Uncle Philip and his executors. One newsy family letter has been preserved, written to his sister-in-law, Becky Williard, Joseph's widow, back on the home farm in Columbiana County, OH. He implies that he has had a car for some time.

The 1900 and 1910 census of Trappe showed Philip living on the farm with his son, Percival, his wife having died in 1900.

Entry in the church book for the church of Westfork: Philip b. 24 Sept. 1830 Johannes Williard and Elizabeth (Lindesmith).

Notes for Anna E. Prizer: Another source had her name as Crezan.

She is the daughter of Henry Prizer and Catharine Dewees Prizer. Her father died at age 38 and her mother reared the family "with credit," her biography says. Anna's grandfather, David Dewees was sheriff of Montgomery County and was prominent in politics. Information from the Willyard book that Anne K. Hertzner compiled that Ken Everett made available for us to look at.

Marriage Notes for Philip Williard and Anna Prizer:

Children of Philip Williard and Anna Prizer are:

- + 388 i. Chester⁶ Williard.
- + 389 ii. Percival (Percy) Williard, died November 15, 1933.
- + 390 iii. Mary Catherine (Katie) Williard.

185. George⁵ Williard (Elizabeth J.⁴ Lindesmith, Jacob³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born February 20, 1834 in Franklin Twp. Columbiana County, Ohio, and died November 30, 1902. He married Margaret Fife May 04, 1856 in Columbiana Co., OH, daughter of Robert Fife and Jane Roseburg. She was born 1835 in PA, and died August 24, 1910.

Notes for George Williard: It is spelled Wilyard on the tombstone and Williard in the History of Columbiana County. It says, "George Williard, deceased was born in Franklin township, Columbiana County, Ohio, in 1834, and after a long, busy and useful life, died on November 30, 1902, leaving to his family a finely improved farm of 216 acres, situated in section 36 Hanover township. His parents were John and Elizabeth (Lindesmith) Williard. Philip Williard, the paternal grandfather, came to Franklin township, Columbiana County, from Maryland, and entered 600 acres of government land, and part of this land still remains in the possession of the Williard family. John Williard was born in Maryland and was one of the family of four children born to Philip Williard and wife. Fourteen children were born to John and Elizabeth (Lindesmith) Williard and of these but three now survive, namely: Philip, John and Peter. Of these, John is a farmer near New Garden, and Peter follows the same avocation in Center township. Philip resides near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was educated for the ministry of the Reformed Church, but failing health prevented his taking up work in that calling and he became a clerk in a coal mine for a time, gradually acquired property, became independent and now owns a considerable estate in the vicinity of Trappe, Pennsylvania. The late George Williard grew up on his father's extensive farm and there learned to be a practical agriculturist, classed with the best and most successful farmers of the locality. He attended the schools of Franklin township and was a well-formed young man. In 1856 he was married to Margaret Fife, a daughter of Robert and Jane (Roseburg) Fife. Robert Fife was born in Pennsylvania and came with his family and parents to Ohio in 1839, his daughter Margaret being then four years of age. Mr. Fife purchase (purchased) a farm of 120 acres in Franklin township, where he died in 1867, aged 55 years. His wife survived until 1892, dying in her 87th year. The children of Robert Fife and wife were: Margaret; Mary Jane and Sarah, both deceased; and Thomas R. of Liverpool. The children of George Williard and wife were: John L., who married Hannah Greer and has three children,--Laura M., Mary V. and Nena J.; Jane who married Isaac France and has two children,--Chester J. and Harry W.; Elizabeth, who married Lewis Held, deceased in April, 1897, and resides with her mother on the homestead farm; and Anna, who married John C. Pollack and has fine family of six children,--Raymond W., Lawrence J., George H., Myrtle M., Norman J. and Harry L. A part of the homestead farm became Mr. Williard's by inheritance, while a considerable portion became his by purchase. He was a consistent member of the Reformed Church. He was an excellent business man and won the respect and esteem of his neighbors by his justice and kindness. He was a devoted husband and a careful father, a good citizen and an upright man."

Exact date of his death is information from Ruth Williard (sent to Anne Hertzner).

"Death near Millport: Mrs. Rebecca Williard passes away in her eightieth year—injured in a fall. Millport, OH, May 22, 1919. Mrs. Rebecca Williard, widow of the late Joseph Williard, died Thursday, May 30th at about 6 p.m. at the home of her son, John A. Williard, near Millport, deceased being in the 80th year of her age. Mrs. Williard has been in apparently good health and looking after the care of the home and family of her son since the death of his wife last February. On Monday afternoon, Mrs. Williard stood on a chair on the back porch to reach for something on the shelf. The chair tilted, and she fell off the porch to the sidewalk, a distance of over four feet. She received a severe cut on the top of her head and injured her spine, death being due to these injuries. Mrs. Williard was a most estimable Christian woman and ever held the respect and esteem of a wide circle of friends. She was a life member of the Trinity Reformed church near Dungannon. She is survived by two children, John A. Williard, and Mrs. Frank (Ella) King, both of the vicinity of Millport. Funeral services will be held at the Trinity church on Friday afternoon at one o'clock eastern time, conducted by the Rev. George Gaver, Pastor of St. Jacobs church. Internment in the Trinity Cemetery." Information from the Willyard book that Anne K. Hertzner compiled that Ken Everett made available to us.

Entry in the church book for the church of Westfork: Elizabeth b. 8 June 1841 Bapt. 30 Oct 1841 Parents: John Williard and Eliz (Lindesmith).

She was the last family marriage and she was the only girl to marry anyone outside of the community. The family Bible does not record the marriage; there really was no more room on the page. Her mother had died in 1869, leaving three unmarried daughters at home; Elizabeth, Matilda, and Mary. Elizabeth was 33 years old and probably was considered an "old maid" when she met James Kennedy, a widower with a small daughter. With her limited opportunities beyond the church and surrounding farms, we wonder how Elizabeth could have met this foreigner. He must have been a worker on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, which was being built in that area and which crossed the Williard and Laughlin farms. Scotch-Irish immigrants in great number came to the Pittsburgh area in the wake of the potato famine in Ireland about the middle of the nineteenth century. Railroads were being built in all directions and the prospect of steady work drew young men. Anne K. Hertzner's father said that his father came alone to America. He married in Pittsburgh and had a small daughter, but his wife died when Sadie was three or four years old. My father always emphasized that James Kennedy was a Scotchman whose family had been living in Ireland due to hard times in Scotland. Another theory was there were a family of Kennedys living near J. Williard and James in that family is close to the age of Elizabeth. Anne K. preferred believing her father's story. Elizabeth's marriage made quite a difference to the little group left in the big house. Matilda had died suddenly the year before (1872) and Elizabeth's going so far away to Pittsburgh meant that Mary and Squire John would be alone. When Elizabeth died after the birth of her second child (1876), her father insisted on taking the two babies back to the farm. Mary tried caring for the two for a while, but she found that her brother George and his wife wanted the new baby, Lewis. They already had one son and three daughters. Little Frank Kennedy, as they always called him, must have added a new dimension to Squire John's life, and Mary soon considered him her own son and loved him as his second Mother. Her brother Joseph and his family, living on the same farm, were like an extended family. Aunt Becky mothered him, and Ella, eight years old, was a big sister to him all his life. Cousins on all the neighboring farms were playmates and schoolmates. Frank Kennedy grew into a very tall gangly young man, reaching a height of 6 ft. 4 in by the time he reached college age. He always expressed appreciation for the exemplary influence of his grandfather, Squire John, in shaping his life and his ambitions. At an early age, he expressed a desire to become a minister and worked toward that goal. Squire John died before my father reached college age, but he worked his way through college like most of the other farm boys of that period. Information from the Willyard book that Anne K. Hertzner compiled that Ken Everett made available to us.

direction and received a sharp blow on the top of the head. After he was picked up his pulse was not bad for a few minutes, but before a quarter of an hour it became unsteady and stopped. He was unconscious from the time he was struck. It is the opinion of the physician who examined the wound that death did not result directly from the blow on the head, as it was not sufficiently hard to produce a fatal result, but that the shock was too much for a bad heart which he had had for a long time. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, and the remains were interred in Bethesda cemetery north of town. Many friends and relatives were present at the obsequies. Mr Young was 66 years old last March and had been in ill health for a good while. He leaves a widow and four children three sons and a daughter, besides many relatives."

In the Bryan Democrat, June 30, page 4, Thursday, "Thomas J. Young who was killed on the 18th of June 1904 by the falling of a piece of timber while assisting to raise a barn, was born in Columbiana County, March 25th, 1838. He came with his parents to Crawford county, near Galion, O., in 1844. In 1862 he came to Williams County where he resided until his death. He leaves a wife, one daughter and four sons; four sisters, Mrs. Susan Lemon, of Galion, O., Mrs. Mary Ann Moore, and Mrs. Martha Keister, of Bryan and Mrs. Elizabeth Brannan, of Denver, Colorado; three brothers, John and James living in this county and Benjamin living in Nebraska, besides many other relatives throughout the state. Mr. Young united with the Presbyterian church at Bryan during the pastorate of Rev. K. K. Richardson who served the church during 1867-89. Mrs. Young and three children are also members of the same church. Dessa, the only daughter is a teacher in the public schools in Bryan. The funeral was held at his late home on North Beach street, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Geo. M. Miller preaching the sermon and the pastor assisting in the services. A large crowd of friends and neighbors assembled in sympathy for the suddenly bereaved family to whom the shock came with severity. The interment was in the cemetery adjoining the Bethesda Presbyterian church where a number of his children and friends are buried. The family desires to express their appreciation of the kindly help and sympathy shown them in their sore trial." Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa.

The Bryan Press, Sept. 6, 1928, Thursday, "Mrs. Elisabeth Lindesmith Young daughter of Joseph and Mary Lindesmith was born near Dungannon, OH September 19th 1850. Passed from her earthly home to her heavenly, August 29th, 1928, having reached the ripe age of 77 years, 11 months and 10 days. In the year 1876, May 23, she was united in holy wedlock with Thomas J. Young who preceded her. To this union were born one daughter and four sons. Two sons preceded her into the great beyond. Two sons and one daughter survive, also three sisters and two brothers. She was the happy grandmother of twelve grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Early in life she united with the Mt. Zion Lutheran church near Dungannon, Ohio. Later in life she transferred her membership to East Bethesda and Bryan Presbyterian churches. For a number of years before her death she was a faithful member of the First Presbyterian church at Bryan Ohio. When in reach of the church she was faithful in her attendance and always loyal. She has the church at heart not only for herself but for her children and grandchildren. She was mother and grandmother to the motherless children in the home of her son where she spent the years of her widowhood. Her friends and loved ones will miss her greatly but their loss we believe to her eternal gain. Funeral services were held at the home of her son, her late residence, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 2. Rev. C. R Harmon officiating by interment at West Bethesda cemetery."

Under July 5, 1883, Thursday, Bryan Democrat, "Friday June 29th, of scarlet fever, Lewis L., son of mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Young, aged 2 years and 16 days. Saturday June 30th of scarlet fever, May Anna daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Young, 8 yrs. 5 mos. and 9 days. The bereaved parents have the earnest sympathy of a host of friends in the great affliction that has visited their homestead."

In the July 5, 1883 paper, Thursday, it says, "The children of Thomas J. Young have been terrible sufferers from the dreadfully fatal disease scarlet fever. Lewis, the little ten year old son, after eight or two (do they mean ten) days of intense suffering, died Saturday morning and was buried Sunday forenoon. Anna, eight years old, when thought to be out of danger, took a relapse and died Sunday evening a few hours after the burial of her brother. Disa, aged five, the only remaining child of the family, except Homer, who is living with an uncle in the country, is lingering in an uncertain state. Nothing is known of the origin of the disease."

196. Jacob A.⁵ Young (Hannah J.⁴ Lindesmith, Jacob³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born Abt. March 07, 1840 in prob. Columbiana County, OH., and died March 18, 1882 in Williams Co., OH. He married Nancy Brannan November 28, 1868 in Williams Co., OH, daughter of Christopher Brannon and Nancy McColley. She was born January 27, 1848 in Columbiana County, OH.

Notes for Jacob A. Young: Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa. He was in Company K. of the 81st Ohio Volunteer Infantry in the Civil War. He settled in Superior Township. Information from Michael Moore. He was in the Superior Township census of 1880. He is in W. Bethesda Cemetery, Williams County, OH.

Also information from Cemetery records of Williams County.

His obituary in the Bryan Press March 23, 1882, Thursday under deaths: YOUNG -On Saturday morning, March 18, 1882, of pneumonia, at this home in Superior township, Jacob Young, aged 42 years and 11 days. Mr. Young came to this county at the close of the war and shortly afterward married a daughter of the late Christopher Brannan of Superior township, and on the death of his father a few years later, he purchased the old homestead and has resided there since. He served in the 81st Regiment, Ohio Volunteers, through the war. Enlisting as a private he won his way to the rank of Second Lieutenant. The disease which finally terminated his life dates from an accident which occurred at Cheraw, S. C., while Sherman's army was marching north to Richmond after its famous march to the sea. While passing through the town a magazine, containing a large amount of powder, exploded, which stampeded ambulance teams, and one of them wheeling around struck him with the end of the pole in the back, breaking three ribs. There being no hospital in which he could be left he was hauled in an ambulance two or three hundred miles and never has been really well since. Mr Young was the candidate on the Democratic ticket of this county for Sheriff last fall, and has been honored by nominations for other prominent county offices during his residence here. He was a member of the Bethesda Presbyterian church, and was highly respected by all his acquaintances. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his death."

In the obituary, placed in the Bryan Democrat, March 23, 1882, Thursday, "DIED Jacob Young died at his residence in Superior Township Saturday morning of inflammation of the lungs, aged 42 years. He was born in Columbiana County in 1840 and removed to Crawford county where he remained until 1862 when he enlisted in Co. K, 81st Ohio volunteers and marched with his regiment to the front. He endured the hardships suffered the privations and shared in the glories of all the campaigns in which his regiment participated, winning the good will of his comrades and the confidence of his superior officers. Though frequently offered a commission, he persistently declined until a short time prior to the close of the war he was commissioned a Lieutenant, which rank he held when mustered out of service. After the close of the war Mr. Young came to this county, and at once took a prominent place in community, and in the political party of which he was a member. He was highly respected because of his intelligence, integrity and manfulness and he grew in the good opinion of the people in proportion as his acquaintance extended. He was partisan, but he never lost sight what was due to his own self respect of the rights of his political opponents; as a candidate he did not seek to achieve success by the sacrifice of co-candidates or of his party principles. Defeat never lowered him in the estimation of his fellow citizens because they know him to be conscientious in the advocacy of what he believed to be right. In all the relations in life he was respected not more for his liberality and frankness than for his probity and moral worth. Where best known and his virtues and usefulness were most highly appreciated, his loss, as a public man or private friend is most painfully felt and deeply lamented."

From the Presidents-Soldiers-Statesmen, Volume 2, 1892 "John and Hannah (Lindersmith) Young, both deceased, are the parents of Jacob A. who was born March 7, 1840 in Columbiana county, Ohio; he married Nancy, daughter of Christopher and Nancy (McColley) Brannon, both deceased, who was born Jan. 27th, 1848 in Columbiana County. They were united in marriage Nov. 28, 1868 in Williams County, Ohio and four children have been born to their union, Henry E., who is working his mother's farm, Blennie S., who is teaching school, Alida and Viona who are being educated as school teachers. Mr. Young enlisted at the age of 21 as a private in 1861 in Crawford county, Ohio, in Co. K, 81st O.V.I. and was promoted to 2d Lieut. A runaway team of horses attached to a cannon carriage ran over and severely injured him and he was treated in hospital at different times. He participated in all the engagements that his command took part in. He died at his home in Williams County, Ohio, March 17, 1882, of disease contracted in the army. Mrs. Young has application for pension still pending, and her post office address is Bryan, Ohio."

Bryan Democrat, Nov. 10, 1898, "Henry Elwood young, son of Jacob and Nancy Young, was born March 23, 1869; died Oct. 22, 1898, aged 29 years, 6 months, and 29 days. The deceased spent his life on the farm of his mother, four and one-half miles south of Montpelier. As a son he was true, loving and obedient, there was no act of kindness he was not willing to perform; as a brother he possessed those genial traits and pleasant ways that the more endeared him to the minds and hearts of his three noble sisters, who are left to mourn their irreparable loss. Henry was a favorite with all who knew him, and while the hour of gloom hangs heavily over those who are left, we are glad to know that our loss is his eternal gain. He was converted about seven years ago and united with the Presbyterian church at West Bethesda, from whence his funeral occurred Wednesday, Oct. 26, Rev. Miller, his pastor, assisted by Rev. Smith of Montpelier, conducted the service. The pastor spoke words of comfort to the heart broken mother and family from Luke 7; 13 "And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her: Weep not. Friends and neighbors made a splendid floral offerings, and as the fierce north wind was blowing, the mortal remains of the only son and brother were born to the cemetery by six cousins. The dark cloud of sorrow which now envelopes our mourning friends has yet a silver lining of light and joy, for

When a good man dies
For years beyond our ken
The light he leaves behind him lies Along the path of men."

Oct. 17, 1898 Bryan Democrat, "At an early hour last Sunday morning Henry Young, aged about 29 years, son of the late Jacob Young, was found dead in the road in front of his mother's farm residence four miles north and two miles west of Bryan. He came to Bryan Saturday afternoon to make some purchases, and started for home between nine and ten o'clock, taking with him some groceries which he had purchased for John Bunting, who lives about a mile and a half south and east of the Young residence. As he did not stop at Bunting's to deliver the packages, it is presumed he died on the road before arriving at Bunting's and the body remained in the buggy until the horse stopped in front of the house. When found the body had a shawl on and the lower limbs were wrapped in a robe, just as he had started from town. The horse had evidently wandered up and down the road between the house and barn for several hours after the body had fallen from the buggy. Coroner, Harry Wertz assisted by Dr. Blair held an autopsy Sunday afternoon and found that a foreign substance obstructed the valvular action of the heart causing instantaneous and painless death. Henry Young was an exemplary young man, of most exemplary habits and pleasing disposition. His untimely demise is greatly lamented by all who knew him."

Bryan Press, Thursday Nov. 13, 1913, "Samuel B. Moore died at his home on South Main Street Wednesday morning about half past ten o'clock. He had been very ill for a long time all hope of his ever recovering was given up by his family months ago. Mr. Moore was about 76 years old and leaves a widow, one son, A. R. Moore, of Garrett, Ind., and one daughter, Mrs. S. G. McCord, of Bryan. At this time no funeral arrangements have been made."

Bryan Democrat, Friday, Nov. 14, 1913, "AFTER LONG ILLNESS SAMUEL B. MOORE CALLED BY DEATH The death of Samuel B. Moore which for several weeks has been expected, occurred Wednesday forenoon at his home on South Main street Mr. Moore was afflicted with paralysis for the past three years, and most of the time a constant and heavy care to his family. He leaves a wife, a son, A. R. Moore of Garrett, Ind., and a daughter, Mrs. S. G. McCord of Bryan. Funeral services will be held at two o'clock this afternoon, from his late home, his pastor, Rev. E. S. Marshall of the Presbyterian church officiating."

Bryan Democrat, Friday Nov. 21, 1913, "Samuel Bishop Moore was the son of William and Jane Bishop Moore, and was born March 4, 1837, on a farm in Morrow county, near Mansfield, Ohio. He was the last of a large family of five brothers and three sisters. He was united in marriage to Mary A. Young, June 30, 1864 at Bryan, and the following spring came to Williams County, locating on a farm a few miles north of Bryan. In 1900 he and his wife moved into town where they have since resided. He was connected with the Royal Arcanum for a period of thirty years and was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Bryan. He was a consecrated and faithful Christian man, and for a number of years took a wholesome interest in all that concerned the welfare of his community. His friends and loved one can testify to his kind an generous spirit and the uprightness of his character. He had learned to do justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly with his God. After a serious illness which confined him to his home for over three years, he peacefully departed this life November 12, 1913, aged 76 years, 8 months, and 8 days. He is survived by a wife, a daughter, Mrs. S. G. McCord of Bryan, a son Alfred R. Moore of Garrett, Ind., and two grandchildren, Lehr McCord and Harlan Moore, all of whom have the heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends."

200. James L.⁵ Young (Hannah J.⁴ Lindesmith, Jacob³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born November 11, 1846 in near Galion, Crawford County, OH, and died November 11, 1908 in Centre Twp, Williams County, OH. He married Elizabeth Calvin June 10, 1869, daughter of Joshua Calvin and Nancy. She was born April 04, 1852 in Williams Co., OH, and died January 30, 1888.

Notes for James L. Young: He is buried in W. Bethesda Cemetery in Williams Co., OH. In the spring of 1873, he bought the farm on which he now lives. It comprises of 100 acres of good land, and is well improved. This information and information about his children from the Goodspeed History of 1882, Williams County, OH.

Nov. 26, 1908, Bryan Press, Thursday, "James. L. Young was born near Gailon, Crawford County, Ohio, November 11, 1846 and came with his parents, John and Hannah Lindesmith Young to Williams County in the early spring of 1865, locating upon the Caldwell farm of 180 acres, in the southeast corner of Superior township where he resided until after his marriage June 10, 1869 to Miss Elizabeth Calvin, daughter of Joshua Calvin. Soon after his marriage he purchased 80 acres of land in Center township, where he resided the remainder of his life. He was the father of eight children, two of who are dead. Osmond L. the eldest son, died in early childhood, and Maude E., died August 11, 1897, in her sixteenth year. The wife and mother departed this life Jan. 30, 1888 leaving the children entirely in the care of the father who continued faithful to that duty until his sudden death of apoplexy at his home, Nov. 11, 1908, at the age of 62 years. Funeral services were held by Rev. J. N. Scoles of Newark, Ohio, at the Lick Creek church of Christ. Thus the supposed afternoon of life proved to be the twilight of evening. Thus closed a noble upright life whose very earnestness ad simplicity should be a powerful inspiration to those who knew him."

- vi. Maude E. Young, born Abt. 1881; died August 11, 1897.

Notes for Maude E. Young: Thursday, Bryan Democrat, Aug. 19, 1897, "The terrible casualty that occurred at the farm residence of Mrs. Samuel Leek, five miles northwest of Bryan on Wednesday afternoon, August 11th which resulted in the almost instant death of one young lady and the possibly fatal wounding of another; is still the subject of comment every part of the county. The principals in the melancholy affair were Miss Maud Young aged fifteen years, daughter of James young who resides one mile east of the Leek homestead, and Miss Jennie Myers, tow or three years older, daughter of Frank Myers whose farm is one mile north and one mile west of Mrs. Leek's. The girls were most intimately acquainted were frequently together, shared each others confidences and were altogether "chummy." Never a cloud had come between them to darken their respect and love for each other. Maud Young had been living with Mrs. Leek for some time and was as much at home there as one of the family. On Wednesday the threshers came to the Leek farm to thresh the summer's crop and a number of farmers accompanied by their wives and daughters assembled to aid i the work in field and house, as in the custom among farm neighbors. Among those who came was Jennie Myers. Maud and Jenie were as usual in the best of spirits and made the whole party merry with their jests and pranks. The threshers finished their work at an early hour, and supper was prepared for them and Maud and Jennie were foremost in its preparation. When the supper was laid upon the table and the men called in, Maud said to the other ladies present, "Jennie and I got the supper, now you may wait upon the table" and the two girls retired to another room and closed the door after them. What immediately followed can only be conjectured, as one of the girls is dead and the other one too seriously injured to tell the story. Just as the men sat down to the table the report of a gun was heard, followed by a piercing shriek. They jumped from the table and rushed into the room to find Jennie prostrate on the floor with a bullet hole immediately under the right eye. As they entered Maud exclaimed, "My God, I've shot Jennie." The wounded girl was quickly carried out to a porch where she could have the benefit of fresh air. Maud assisting in carrying her friend and a messenger dispatched for a surgeon. While the frightened and grief-stricken party were caring for the sufferer Maud slipped away from them and entered the room where the shooting occurred. A minute of two later another report was heard. The party rushed into the room and found Maud gasping in the agony of death. She had placed the muzzle of the gun near the center of her forehead and fired the bullet into her brain--She died an hour and a half later. The fatal weapon was a Smith & Wesson, 32 caliber double action revolver. There is a great deal of speculation about the unfortunate affair, but no one has the hardihood so intimate that the shooting was premeditated. it is said by those most likely to know that Maud was accustomed to handling revolvers and that on the Sunday previous the girls were together and were fooling with the revolver, the chambers being empty. If this statement is true it rationally accounts for the shooting. The gun had been loaded sometime between Sunday and Wednesday and left lying on a stand in the room. Upon entering the room Maud saw the revolver, picked it up, and supposing it to be unloaded picked it up, playfully pointed it at Jennie's head and pulled the trigger.--Frenzied with grief over the shooting of her dearest friend she turned the gun and took her own life. The funeral of Maud Young took place on Friday afternoon from the Lick creek church and was very largely attended by sorrowing relative and neighbors. Taken altogether--the standing of the respective families, the high character of both young ladies and their unusually intimate friendship for each other, and the summary ending of their young lives--the affair is one of the saddest and regretful that ever occurred in the county. Jennie Myers has recovered consciousness and related to her friends the events that occurred after they left the supper room. She says that when they went into the other room the revolver was lying on the stand. Maud Young picked it up and playfully pointing it at Jennie said "Your money or your life." Jennie responded, "I have no money, so you will have to take my life." Maud pulled the trigger with the results written above. Neither one believed that the gun was loaded."

Notes for George B. Lindesmith: His Uncle Curt set him up in business. Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa.

In the Feb. 5, 1902 Steuben Republican, (Angola IN), it says, "Geo. B. Lindersmith, the township clerk of Montpelier, Ohio, has left for parts unknown to his family, a wife and two children. He persuaded his wife to sign a chattel mortgage on their furniture for $35 and then drew the money and skipped, leaving her to pay off the mortgage. It is intimated that whiskey and a disreputable woman are to blame for his downfall." I am not sure yet if this is the right George B.

DEATH OF PETER LINDERSMITH Editor Press: I learn by the Blade that Peter Lindersmith died in Toledo on July 21, 1915, after an illness of over two months. As he was a Williams county boy and had many friends among your readers, a few words concerning him may not be void of interest. He came to this county with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lindersmith, from Columbiana in 1848. He was then in his eighth year, and grew to manhood on a farm which he helped make about five miles south and west of Montpelier. At the age of twenty years, in October, 1861, he and two brothers enlisted in Company K, 68th Regiment Ohio Infantry, for three years, or during the war. David, aged 24, contracted typhoid fever and died in April 1862, at Savannah, Tennessee. George W., who at enlistment had not reached his 18th birthday, though severely wounded, served throughout the war, and survived till September 1913, when he died at Fayette, O. Peter passed through four years of war, and at the front escaped injury from the enemy, but during the early part of the service he was frequently in infirm health and at times was in the hospital, but he never gave up and as soon as fit for duty returned to the ranks and cheerfully performed any service required of him. He was on the front line from Ft. Donelson to the surrender of the Confederate armies and participated in the grand review at Washington in 1865. His army service and history was identified with that of the Army of the Tennessee from Donelson to the end of the war. His one distinctive service apart from this company was during the siege of Vicksburg. He not being in condition to accompany Grant's army in his campaign against Vicksburg he was detailed to remain with the regimental baggage as guard at a camp on the Louisiana side of the river a short distance above Vicksburg. An officer in command of a mortar raft, finding his squad disabled by the concussion of the firing, day and night, at regular intervals, asked for volunteers for one trick to rest his regular detail. Peter volunteered and in describing his experience said, "The mortar was charged with a heavy charge of powder and a large bombshell. When time for firing was announced the men were to retire to the opposite side of the raft stand on tiptoes with open mouths and with arms extended above the head, closely covering the ears." In spite of these precautions the percussion was so great that a 24 hour trick would cause the hands, face, and bodies to puff like puff-balls, and if anyone failed to observe precaution and stand on his heels with his mouth shut he would be disabled at once. Shortly after returning from the war, in November 1865, he married Miss Margaret Bechtol, a Daughter of Ezra E. Bechtol, a comrade in the ranks with him, who died at Vicksburg, during or shortly after the siege. She with their five children survive him. His remains were buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Toledo. Dimmeon Gillis.."

The funeral was in the family home at 721 Palmwood Avenue.

222. Mary Catherine (Kate)⁵ Lindesmith (Daniel⁴, Peter³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born November 15, 1848 in Williams Co., OH, and died April 24, 1910 in Angola, IN. She married David Rinehart March 14, 1869 in Williams Co., OH, son of Fred Rinehart and Mary. He was born November 04, 1847 in near Shelby, OH, and died September 21, 1931 in Angola, IN.

Notes for Mary Catherine (Kate) Lindesmith: This family had 3 daughters. Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa. Her Christening was April 24, 1910 in Angola, IN. This is her death date. She is buried in the Powers Cemetery.

In the Steuben Republican, Wed., April 27, 1910, "MARY KATHERINE LINDERSMITH Was born in Williams County, Ohio, Nov. 15th, 1848, and died in Angola, Ind., April 24th, 1910 aged 61 years, 4 months and 9 days. She lived in Williams County until 1883 when she moved to Indiana and settled in Steuben County on a farm near York. Here she remained till 1907 when she moved to Angola, where she spent the remainder of her earthly life. On March 14th 1869, she united in marriage with David Rinehart. To them were born seven children: Mrs. R. A. Hawkins, of Bryan, OH, Wm. C. Rinehart, deceased, Eli L. Rinehart, Angola, IN, Mrs. S. P. Goeitzenlenchter and Mrs. J. O. Worthington, of York, IN and Miss Lola L. Rinehart, of Angola, IN. Mrs. Rinehart united with the United Brethren Church in 1871. She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in York when she moved there, and remained a consistent member of the same till her coronation. When she transferred her church membership to Angola, she also became a member of the Martha Society. She is survived by her husband and all her children except William, as above noted, also by four brothers, Peter Lindersmith, of Toledo, Ohio, C. W. Lindersmith, of Fayette, Ohio, R. E. Lindersmith, of Seattle, Wash., and Guyan Lindersmith of Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Rinehart's failing health covered a period of several years. She bore all her sufferings and deprivations with great patience and fortitude. She greatly appreciated the kindly remembrance of friends and loving assistance of neighbors. Her pastor was a welcome visitor and his ministrations were received with gratitude. She spoke freely of her decease, and while she regretted to leave her family, she longed to at rest. With her the end of life was hallowed with great peace. Her funeral service was conducted in the Powers church on April 27th, 1910 by her pastor, the Rev. M. S. Marble, after which her mortal body was tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery."

Notes for David Rinehart: He was from Angola Indiana and this family had 3 daughters.

They are in the Williams County, Superior Twp., OH 1870 census.

He is the son of Fred and Mary Rinehart. Birth and death information from the Steuben County Cemetery records. He is buried in the Powers cemetery.

June 18, 1902, Steuben Republican, "David Rinehart and Mr. and Mrs. Eli Rinehart, visited friends in Defiance county last week. Mr Rinehart says it is very wet there."

Steuben Republican, Sept. 30, 1931, "David Rinehart, son of Fred and Mary Rinehart was born near Shelby, Ohio, November 4th, 1847, and departed this life at his home in Angola, Ind., Monday, Sept. 21st 1931 at the age of 83 years, 10 months and 17 days. He heard and answered the call of his country on April 14th, 1865 when he enlisted as a private in Company C., Regiment 64 of the Ohio volunteers. He was honorably discharged from the service on the 18th day of September, 1865. On March 14th, 1869, he was united in marriage to Mary Catherine Lindersmith. This union was blessed with seven children, Malissa Guthrie, (deceased), William C. Rinehart, (deceased), Eli L. Rinehart of Camden, Mich., Lewis E. Rinehart of Angola, Ind., Hattie J. Goeitzenleuchter, of Quincy, Mich., Chloe D. Huss of Fremont, Ind. and Louia L. Reese, of Fort Wayne, Ind. On April 24th, 1910 his wife Mary Catherine, preceded him to the great beyond. The greater part of his life was spent in and near Angola, Ind. During the early years of his life he confessed his faith in Christ and since then has been a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church of this city. He leaves to cherish his memory his sons and three daughters, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. He was blessed with a loving and kind disposition which endeared him in the hearts of all those with whom he came into contact. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church Wednesday, Sept. 23, with Rev. Davies officiating. A military escort from the American Legion attended the procession to the Circle Hill cemetery."

He married Della (Belle) R. Shasteen October 02, 1901. She was born 1884 in of Superior Twp., Williams Co., OH, and died 1971.

Notes for Frank B. Copeland: Information from his father's obituary.

From the Williams County History Book, "Frank Copeland It has been the privilege of Frank Copeland, of Superior Township, to live where he was born July 3, 1881, three miles south of Montpelier. He is a son of James J. and Susan B. (Waltz) Copeland; the father born January 14, 1832, in Columbiana County, and the mother a native of Maryland. Both families came to Defiance County where they met and were later married and they located in Williams County. There were eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Copeland and six of them were living when Frank Copeland narrated the family history. G. M. Copeland lives in Detroit; Nettie is the wife of Elmer Campbell; Belle is the wife of R. J. Kyes; Frank of this sketch; Alta is the wife of T. O. Myers, and Charles is in Detroit. The Copeland children all had common school advantages and some of them went to high school, and Frank Copeland has continued farming, having bought the family homestead from the others. In 1901, Frank Copeland married Belle Shasteen, of Superior Township, and their children are: Leota B., Lilah, Ralph, and Marjorie. As they graduate from common school they are given high school education. The Copelands are Presbyterians and Mr. Copeland is a member of Superior Lodge No. 269, Knights of Pythias, and of the Montpelier Grange. He is a breeder of Oxford sheep and Chester White hogs. Mr. Copeland is treasurer of the Williams County Agricultural Society. He is abreast of the times in agriculture."

Notes for Charles B. Copeland: Information from James J. Copeland's obit. Death and birth information from the cemetery inscription book that includes Riverside Cemetery.

He is living in Detroit in 1920: Information from "History of Williams County, 1920."

I am not sure if this is the same Charles Copeland. In the Butler Record, Aug. 9, 1912, "CHARGES FILED Prosecutor Hartman filed five informations with Clerk of the Court Austin Saturday and warrants were issued for the arrest of the offenders. The defendants are proprietors of the moving picture shows at Auburn and they are charged with violating the Sunday laws by having their places of amusement open on Sunday and charging an entrance fee. In each of the cases Geo. H. Snyder signed the affidavits. Charles Copeland is charged with violating the law on two different dates, to-wit; July 14 and 18. Arry Henry is charged with the same offence and the dates are similar Miss Leah Little is charged with violating the law on July 28. All of these people were arrested and gave bonds for their appearance before Judge Powers. Miss Little was arrested several weeks ago on another complaint. --Auburn Dispatch."

Notes for Belle (Georgia Lee): Death and birth information from the cemetery inscription book that includes Riverside Cemetery Child of Charles Copeland and Belle Lee) is:

- 511 i. Maurice Lee⁷ Copeland, born December 17, 1913; died January 13, 1915.

Notes for Maurice Lee Copeland: Information from his obituary. Part of it was torn off on the ride edge. Words are missing.

I got his obituary from papers that Theron had copied from the family scrapbook that Aunt

Clara had. The scrapbook started out being part of the book (started because the book wasn't big enough) that was kept from year to year for the family reunion. Florence Hardin had it last but she doesn't remember what happened to it.

"Maurice Lee Copeland, son of Charles and Belle Copeland was born in Montpelier on December 17, 1913, and died January 13, 1915, aged one year and twenty-seven days. Maurice was a strong and winsome boy and had endeared himself to all who knew him. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. M. S. Pettit in the Presbyterian church, Friday morning at 10 o'clock and were attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Interment took place in Riverside cemetery."

260. George Burton⁶ Copeland (William King⁵, Susannah⁴ Lindesmith, Daniel³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born April 25, 1867 in Bryan, OH, and died February 1973 in Brownsburg, IN. He married (1) Gladys Yoder. He married (2) Mary Margaret Rohelig. He married (3) Cora J. Kanauel September 23, 1893 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for George Burton Copeland: He is living in Montpelier, Ohio at the time of his mother's death in 1922.

There is a Bert Copeland that is living in Coldwater, Michigan at the time of his brother, James O. Copeland's death. This may be the same as George B. (B. maybe standing for Bert) Need to check it out.

In the Butler Record, Nov. 16, 1900, it says, "Geo. Copeland and wife, of Massilion, Ohio, are here visiting his parents, W. K. Copeland."

Additional information from: Information on him from Family group sheet that Nancy Sines Schultz had.

At the time of his death he was living at Brownsburg, Hendricks, IN. Social Security Index names his address as 46112 Brownsburg, Hendricks, IN 263. James Orrin⁶ Copeland (William King⁵, Susannah⁴ Lindesmith, Daniel³, Joseph², Daniel¹) was born December 19, 1874 in Williams Co., Bryan, Ohio, and died November 13, 1961 in DeKalb Co., IN. He married Viola Nodine December 08, 1896 in Butler, DeKalb County, IN, daughter of John Nodine and Lovina King. She was born June 1879 in Indiana, and died March 18, 1919 in DeKalb Co., IN.

Notes for James Orrin Copeland: He is living in Butler, IN at the time of his mother's death in 1922. This is according to her obituary.

Buried in the Waterloo Cemetery.

In the Death Records, it said he was born Dec. 19, 1874.

Again in the 1900 Census it has he was born Dec. 1874 and apparently on his gravestone it says, 1876.

James O., Viola, Orpheus, Lester, and Lloyd are in the 1910 census.

In the Butler Record, Friday, Oct. 11, 1895 it says, "Ora Copeland has been very sick with typhoid fever, but is getting better."

In the Waterloo Press, Thursday, Nov. 16, 1961, "SERVICES FOR JAMES O. COPELAND HELD ON WED. Funeral Services for James Oran Copeland, 86, father of William Copeland, were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Johnson funeral home in Butler. The Rev. Dwight McClure, pastor of the First EB church in Butler, officiated at the services and burial followed in the Waterloo Cemetery. Mr. Copeland died at the Sheehy Nursing home in Butler at 2 a.m.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that this is essential for ensuring transparency and accountability in the organization's operations.

2. The second part outlines the specific procedures for recording and reporting data. It details the steps involved in data collection, analysis, and the frequency of reporting to the relevant stakeholders.

3. The third part addresses the challenges associated with data management and provides strategies to overcome them. It highlights the need for robust security measures to protect sensitive information from unauthorized access.

4. The fourth part discusses the role of technology in enhancing data management processes. It explores various software solutions and tools that can streamline data collection, storage, and analysis.

5. The fifth part focuses on the importance of training and development for staff involved in data management. It stresses that continuous learning is necessary to keep up with the latest trends and technologies in the field.

6. The sixth part provides a summary of the key points discussed in the document and offers recommendations for future actions. It encourages the organization to regularly review and update its data management policies and procedures.

7. The final part of the document includes a conclusion that reiterates the overall goal of achieving efficient and effective data management practices. It expresses confidence that the outlined strategies will lead to improved organizational performance and decision-making.

Monday from complication of advanced age. He had been a resident of the nursing home for 20 years and became ill several months ago. Before moving to the nursing home, Mr. Copeland resided on Rt. 1 Butler, for a number of years. He was a retired New York Central railroad employee. He was born at Bryan O., on Dec. 19, 1874, and was the son of the late William and Mary McCafferty Copeland. His wife, Mrs. Viola Copeland preceded him in death. Other survivors include two other sons, Lester Copeland of Ann Arbor, Mich., and James Copeland Jr., of New Richmond, Ind.; six grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren and a brother Bert Copeland of Coldwater, Mich."

On another family sheet, it said his birthday is 1873. The paper might have made a mistake because his sister was suppose to have been born the next year.

He worked at the NYC RR. He died of Hypo static Pneumonia. He died at Sheehy Nursing Home.

Notes for Viola Nodine: Death information from A. E. Phelps Funeral Home records.

In the Butler Paper, March 20, 1919, "MRS. ORA COPELAND TOOK CARBOLIC ACID ROUTE Committed Suicide on Tuesday Morning Death Shortly Followed Dead Body Found in the House by Her Oldest Son - Woman Demented - Daughter of John Nodine East of Town. Mrs. Ora Copeland, aged forty-one years, committed suicide at her home just northwest of Butler Tuesday morning. She arose with the family as usual and after doing up the morning work sent her two younger children to school, the oldest son, aged 21, going to school with them. On his return home he went to the house and found the dead body of his mother on the bed. Investigation revealed the fact that she had taken carbolic acid with suicidal intent. A number of years ago Mrs. Copeland suffered from scarlet fever, at which time the entire family were victims of the disease. One daughter was left in a weakened condition as a result and afterward died. Mrs. Copeland's brother, Myron Nodine died last fall at Camp Taylor as a result of the flu, and it is thought that the worry over her brother's death, and the effect of the scarlet fever had much to do with her unbalanced condition of mind and health. Mr. and Mrs. Copeland lived for a number of years four miles east of Waterloo and only last week moved to their new home northwest of Butler. The house in which they moved was rather small and it is believed that she was also troubled over this, as it was with difficulty that they could get all of their household effects in the house. W. E. Byers, county coroner, went to Butler Tuesday afternoon to hold an inquest and he rendered a verdict of suicide. Mrs. Copeland was considerably burned from the acid, but she had taken a sufficient dose to cause her death in a short time."

Marriage Notes for James Copeland and Viola Nodine: In the DeKalb County Marriage Records. Their marriage announcement is in the "Buter Record" on Dec. 11, 1896. It says, "At the Lutheran parsonage in this city, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 8, 1896, by Rev. J. M. Dustman, Mr. Oren Copeland and Miss Viola Nodine, both of DeKalb County, IN.

Children of James Copeland and Viola Nodine are:

518 i. James⁷ Copeland, Jr..

Notes for James Copeland, Jr.: He is mentioned as a surviving son of James Sr. He could be Lloyd (with Lloyd being his middle name and they could have used it so as to not confuse names between James Sr. and Jr.). He is living in New Richmond, IN in 1961.

519 ii. Pearl W. Copeland, born April 01, 1898; died April 26, 1905 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for Dessa Lenora Young: She is buried beside her parents in Shiffler Cemetery. Her tombstone says Dessie L. and was 1 mo. 24 days. She is named after two of her aunts.

Tues., Bryan Democrat, Sept. 28, 1909, "Dessa Lenora, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Young, was born July 25, 1909 and died September 18, 1909. Thus in the brief space of 1 month and 23 days the dear one was called hence from this world of pain and sorrow to be at home where only are the good and pure. And while this bereavement and crushing disappointment is now dark and mysterious to us and cannot now be understood by us, yet it is sweet and comforting to fully and confidently trust Him who knowing the end from the beginning, doeth only what is bet and will "some sweet day" make all things plain. We pray grace so bow in humble submission and in our heart to feel the full force of the poets language when he says "My Father Knows" He Knows. For the child we may not grieve, but for the hearts that have been made sad. With these we may mingle our tears and supplicate a throne of infinite compassion while our faith grows stronger as we know that this dear little babe has gone.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that this is essential for ensuring transparency and accountability in the organization's operations.

2. The second part outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data. It mentions the use of both traditional and modern techniques, highlighting the need for continuous improvement in data management practices.

3. The third section focuses on the role of technology in enhancing data collection and analysis. It discusses how advanced software and hardware can streamline processes and provide more accurate and timely information.

4. The fourth part addresses the challenges associated with data collection and analysis, such as data quality, security, and privacy. It offers strategies to overcome these challenges and ensure the integrity of the data.

5. The fifth section discusses the importance of data in decision-making. It explains how data-driven insights can help leaders make informed choices and drive the organization's success.

6. The sixth part covers the ethical considerations surrounding data collection and analysis. It stresses the need to protect individual privacy and ensure that data is used responsibly and for the benefit of the organization.

7. The seventh section provides a summary of the key points discussed in the document. It reiterates the importance of data and the need for a robust data management strategy.

8. The final part of the document offers recommendations for future research and development. It suggests areas where further exploration is needed to improve data collection and analysis practices.

Where the faded flowers shall freshen,
Freshen never more to fade;
Where the shaded sky shall brighten Brighten never more to shade.
The funeral services were held at the home, conducted by the Rev. G. A. Stauffer. Interment

Children of Marion Knepper and Sarah Wile are:

Notes for Wallace W. Knepper:

Nov. 9, 1917, The Butler Record, "Wallace W. Knepper and Georgia E. Good, both of this city were quietly married last Friday afternoon, by the Rev. R. J. Burns, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of this city. The couple went to Auburn Friday morning where they secured the license after which they took a car to Fort Wayne where they expected to spend the afternoon returning home in the evening where they expected to be married but Cupid had planned differently and finding Rev. Burns on the car plans were changed and the couple were married in a beautifully furnished room at the Anthony hotel. The beautiful ring ceremony was used that made them husband and wife. Mr. & Mrs. Knepper are two of Butler's most excellent young people and will be missed in the social circles of the city. Mr. Knepper is a young man of good habits and industrious and will fit nicely into the activities of a busy world. Mrs. Knepper is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Good of this city and is a woman of most excellent qualities possessing a pleasing manner and will doubtless add to the graces and dignity of a home. These two start out in life with the best wishes of a host of warm friends. They will reside in Elkhart."

Jan. 4, 1918, The Butler Record, "Mrs. Wallace Knepper of Elkhart has been spending the past week with her parents, Frank Good and wife. She has been quite ill since coming to Butler, threatened with appendicitis."

Aug. 16, 1918, The Butler Record, "Wallace Knepper, who is stationed with the army at Camp Taylor, writes that 100 soldiers, of which number he was one, were poisoned there last week. Although it is thought that the poisoning resulted from eating ham that had been tainted, a though investigation will be made. The whole company of 365 men were rushed to the hospital where medical officers assisted by fifty nurses gave them emergency treatments and kept them under observation over Sunday. Of the 100 soldiers who were found poisoned, all are now out of danger and most of them have returned to duty."

Notes for Georgia E. Good: She is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Frank Good of Butler.

Mrs. Wallace Knepper is visiting her brother Elza Good and wife at Jackson, MI. July 29, 1921, The Butler Record, Friday.

Notes for Francis Williard Kennedy: Information from the records of Jack M. Lindersmith, Sr. of Ocean Shores, Wa.

His middle name (and the full name Francis) comes from Ruth Williard (sent to Anne Hertzner).

A story that was told by Anna K. Hertzner about her father.

My father, Francis W. Kennedy, had many stories to tell us about his life on grandfather's farm and his year of teaching (1893) at the country school near his home after the Boxwell Exam. Some of his cousins, bigger than he was, attended during the winter months, all aiming to make life difficult for the new teacher. The teacher was expected to get to school in cold weather and start the fire in the big, potbellied stove, break the ice on the bucket of drinking water, and have the place neat and clean when the pupils arrived.

One emotional experience is associated with his early life. There had been no communication between the Williards and James Kennedy after Elizabeth's funeral. During my father's college days at Heidelberg, he had occasion to being Pittsburgh and seized the opportunity to try to visit his father. He made arrangements with the railroad to interview his dad in the office of the company, not telling his father who was calling. When they stood face to face, my father said, "Do you know who I am?" James Kennedy said, "You must be Francis!" There was much getting acquainted to be done. At the end of the visit, Dad's father pulled out a $20 bill from his pocket, the only money he had, and handed it to Dad. My father always smiled when he said, "And I took it!" It was hard getting through college without the benefit of parents.

Another incident occurred many years later after I had left home to teach in Medina County. My sister was still in college. A telephone call informed my mother and dad that Sadie Altman would like to stop over night in Tiffin on her way to Pittsburgh and pay the family a visit. This was the cause of great amazement and joy because Sadie Altman was Dad's half sister--the little girl who had lost her mother and come to love Elizabeth Williard as her second mother, along with baby brothers Francis and Lewis, only to lose her in three short years. Sadie had never seen Francis after that tragic event, but somehow she knew where he was to be found at Heidelberg. She left the next morning, but Sadie and Francis had one long evening together. She left her address on a slip of paper with an extra line, "Don't forget me!" Information from the Willyard book that Anne K. Hertzner compiled that Ken Everett made available to us.

He married Georgia Ann Motson November 25, 1902 in Willard, Huron County, OH, daughter of Samuel Motson and Mary Selby. She was born September 26, 1882 in Willard, Ohio, and died February 08, 1975 in DeKalb Memorial Hospital, Auburn, IN.

Notes for Alfred Reuben Moore: They are buried in Willard, OH. Information from Michael J. Moore mjmoore@mail.utexas.edu

At the time of his father's death (1913) he is living in Garrett, IN.

ALFRED R. MOORE DIED AT AGE 74 - Cerebral Hemorrhage Fatal to Retired Garrett Railroader, the Father of Harlan A. Moore of Auburn

Alfred R. Moore, age 74, of Garrett, the father of Harlan A. Moore, an instructor in the Junior High school in Auburn, died in his home at 108 South Franklin street, Garrett, at 8:30 p.m. Thursday. The immediate cause of his death was a cerebral hemorrhage but Mr. Moore had been in poor health for the past six and a half years.

Mr. Moore was born on Sept. 7, 1877 in Bryan, O., the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Moore. He was united in marriage to Miss Georgia Ann Motson on Nov. 25, 1902 in Willard, O., Mrs. Moore survives.

The deceased retired from the Baltimore & Ohio railroad on March 21, 1945 after 43 years of service. He was a telegraph operator and chief dispatcher for the railroad. He resided in Garrett from 1906 until 1933 when he moved to Akron, O. In the year 1943 he returned to Garrett to reside.

Besides the widow and son, four grandchildren survive. He was a member of the Garrett Presbyterian church, the Masonic lodge in Garrett and the Scottish Rite of Fort Wayne.

The body was removed to the McKee funeral home in Garrett for burial preparations. The Scottish Rite will hold the ring ceremony in the funeral home at 8 p.m. Saturday.

The body will be taken to the Presbyterian church in Garrett at noon Sunday where it will remain for services to be conducted at 12:30 p.m. The Rev. Peter Soudah, pastor, will officiate at the services. The body will then be put aboard B. & O. train No. 10 Sunday afternoon and taken to the Fink funeral home at Willard.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Fink funeral home at 2 p.m. (EST) Monday and the body will be buried in the Greenwood cemetery at Willard.

According to Michael J. Moore mjmoore@mail.utexas.edu Nov. 2000, he says "My great-grandparents, Alfred Reuben Moore and Georgia Ann (Motson) Moore, moved to Garrett, IN in the 1900's (the decade, not the century) because Alfred was working for the B&O Railroad at the time Alfred was the only son of Samuel B. and Mary Ann Young Moore) They moved back and forth between Garrett and Ohio several times, but they both died in Garrett. (Alfred in 1952) and Georgia in 1975 and I don't have their obituaries.....Their only son Harlan Moore was my grandfather. He grew up in Ohio, but wound up in Auburn in the early '40's. He and my grandmother, Mary Evelyn (Baumgardner) Moore, had four boys, and my dad, Jim, was the third. The other boys were Bob, Dick, and John. As I said, they all grew up in Auburn, but now they're all out of the state of IN (in fact Dick passed away 6 years ago, and the other three live in Minnesota, Texas, and Georgia.).

Notes for Georgia Ann Motson: Original name Information from Michael J. Moore mjmoore@mail.utexas.edu

Mrs. Georgia A. Moore, 92, 108 S. Franklin St., Garrett, died of heart failure Saturday at 10:10 p.m. at DeKalb Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient two days.

Born Sept. 26, 1882, in Wilard, Ohio, to Samuel and Mary (Selby) Motson. Mrs. Moore had moved to Garrett in 1907.

She was married Nov. 25, 1902, in Willard to Alfred Moore, who died Mar. 20, 1952.

Survivors include one son, Harlan Moore, Auburn, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Moore was a member of the Garrett Order of the Eastern Star and the Garrett Presbyterian Church.

Friends may call at the McKee Funeral Home today after 1 p.m. Calling will also be held at the Garrett Presbyterian Church from 9:30-10 a.m. Tuesday.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Garrett Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Allen Reed, officiating. Burial will be in the Greenwood Cemetery, Willard.

In the Bryan Press, August 4, 1927, "MRS. H. A. GUTHRIE MET DEATH AS CAR SWERVES INTO RAIL Mrs. Guthrie was killed Sunday afternoon at the north entrance in the viaduct over the Wabash railroad eight miles north of town on No. 2. She and her daughter, Mrs. John Gabriel were occupying the rear seat of their car, while Mr. Guthrie was driving. In approaching the grade over the viaduct from the north, a car travelling north driven by Mrs. A. H. Wise, of Dayton, Ohio, accompanied by her husband, was coming down the grade. The right wheels of the northbound car slipped off the stone road and the driver gave it a sharp turn to get back into the driving portion, going far enough to the west to nick the fenders of the Guthrie car. Mr. Guthrie turned his car a little to the west to avoid a collision, and ran into the end of the guard rail which jammed through his car on the west side and struck Mrs. Guthrie with such force that she lived only a few minutes and died in Deck's ambulance on the way to Bryan. The other occupants of the car were not injured much. Funeral services were held for Mrs. Guthrie Wednesday afternoon at the Gabriel residence, 704 East Mulberry street with interment to Brown's cemetery."

Notes for Ruth Anabel Copeland: In the "DeKalb County Birth Records."

THREE KILLED ON A WATERLOO CROSSING Robert E. Shipe, Age 19, drove his car into path of passenger train - All of bodies pinned in wrecked auto

DeKalb county's traffic toll for 1949 soared to 17 late Wednesday night when an eastbound train struck an automobile at a Waterloo crossing, killing three persons. The victims were Mrs. Ruth Mahlum, 28, of Railroad Street, Waterloo, 19 year-old Robert E. Shipe of R. 2 Pleasant Lake and his fiancée, Miss Edna Pearl Owens, 18, of Kendallville. The crash occurred at 9:20 p.m. Wednesday at a crossing at the west edge of Waterloo, just west of the New York Central railroad station. Train Engineer R. L. Buricok of Elkhart told police that he saw the automobile, driven by Shipe, turn and approach the crossing without slowing and move directly into the path of the steam locomotive.....Police said all three of the bodies were badly mangled.....The coroner said Mrs. Mahlum died of a fractured skull, broken neck and internal injuries. The official said she also was killed instantly....The sheriff reported that Shipe and his fiancée were driving Mrs. Mahlum to her home after the three had attended prayer meeting at the Waterloo Nazarene church, where all three were members. Mrs. Mahlum lives within 200 feet of the crossing where the crash occurred. She resided with her husband, Clarence in a house trailer.....

Final rites for Mrs. Mahlum will be conducted at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Waterloo Church of the Nazarene. The pastor, Rev. A. G. Meadows will officiate with burial in Waterloo cemetery. The body will remain at the funeral home where friends may call. Mrs. Mahlum was born Ruth Annabelle Copeland, March 2, 1921 at Butler, the daughter of the late Orpheus Copeland and Minerva Pearson Copeland. Her mother is now Mrs. Raymond Krontz of Waterloo. She is survived, in addition to her husband and mother, by a step-brother and four step-sisters. For the past 20 years, she had resided in Waterloo. She was married to Mr. Mahlum Aug. 31, 1946 at Angola. They had no children." This was in the Sept. 29, 1949 paper and was brought to my attention by Connie Krontz, a classmate.

FAMILY

Descendants of William Latson

This section has all the descendants of William Latson b. bef. 1790 that I know of except for the Sarah A. Latson Altenburg line. This line can be found under the Altenburg section. This was to save room and not be repetitive.

Generation No. 1

1. William¹ Latson was born before 1790 in Tiago Co., NY. He married Hannah Valteau, daughter of Steven Valteau. She was born Abt. 1786 in NY, and died November 25, 1866.

Notes for William Latson:

In Hannah's, (his daughter's death records), it says her father is William Latson and her mother is Hannah Valteau, born in NY.

In a Latson Family History Book found in the Indianapolis Genealogy Library, it mentions he was born in Tiago Co., NY and he might have been born abt. 1790. It had a note that most of this information was from Trevor Latson, Indian Rock Beach, Fla. and some from Mrs. Mike Knickerbocker, Chealsea, MI.

On the internet, it says, "Latson genealogy, Author: John Procter dated June 5, 2000 In Reply to: by Pamela...Yes, the Latson family originated from Dutch immigrants to the area which is now Albany, NY. They came in the early 1700's. However, there are many "Latson" names mixed up, actually the Latson name doesn't appear until the mid 1800's when a William Lassen changed the family name to Latson. The first surname in the family was Lase, Pieter Pertense, then follow the surnames Lansing, Lansigh, Letson, Lassen and others. All interchangeable in documents referring to the same person in the same document. Let me know if you are interested, and I would be glad to help you and share information. John

There was a Michael Latson of Augusta (New York) Dated Dec. 21, 1801 Probated July 13, 1802. Mentions: wife Hannah sons: William, John, Isaiah daus. Amey, Stafford, Easter Cory, Abigail Pettis This was around where our Latson's lived. Could it be our William's father? William would have been 12-15.

In the 1830 NY Census for Erie Co., Aurora Twp. it has a Wm. Latson 60-70 with a wife 50-60. Three residences away, there is a Wm. Latson, Jr. that is the right age for our William (30-40) with 2 boys under five. In the same household was 1 girl under 5, 2 girls five to ten, 1 girl 10-15, 3 girls 15-20, and one woman 30-40.

In the 1830 Dutchess Co. census p. 172 Town of Amenia There was a William Latson that had a male under five, 2 males under 15, and was 60-70. There were girls and women; 2 that was 15-20, 1 20-30. one 50-60. Two residences down, there was a Stephen Latson that had males; 1 under 5, 1 15-20, 2 20-30, 1 40-50, Females; one 20-30

Stephen would have been 23, Isaac about 19, James 11. Mary was 24, Sarah would have been 19, and Hannah would have been 6.

A Rowland Latson had boys 1 was 5-10, 1 was 10-15, 1 was 20-30, 1 was 40-50 and girls; 1 was 10-15, 2 15-20, and 1 30-40.

Notes for Hannah Valteau: Death date from Cemetery Records. Says "mother of J. J. Latson."

Griswold Recorder.

On the internet it says that she has a daughter Cynthia Latson by a Stephen Latson. In the Latson family history located in Indianapolis and Ft. Wayne, it says her parents were William Latson and Hannah Valleau.

Information from Norm and Genie Smith. They are the 1850 census, The town of Darien, Genessee Co., NY John Thomas 69 NY, Hannah Thomas 63 NY, George Thomas 26 NY, Hannah Valleau 25 NY, Mary Valleau 2 NY, Ann Thomas 22 England, Wm. Thomas 2 NY, Chad Thomas 2 1/2 NY.

Her father was Stephen Valleau according to World Connect Project (Rootsweb). It was put on by Rich Turnblom rturnb@aol.com.

Burial: Evergreen Cemetery, Auburn, IN

We found two pictures that we think may be her. She has the same features as her daughter Sarah but Sarah died before that age. In one picture, she is surrounded by Altenburg children (would have been her great-grandchildren). See pages i and v.

Children of William Latson and Hannah Valleau are:

- + 2 i. Mary Ann² Latson, born Abt. 1806 in NY; died Bet. June 06 - 14, 1849 in DeKalb Co., IN.
- + 3 ii. Stephen Latson, born Abt. 1807 in NY; died May 24, 1862 in DeKalb County, IN.
- + 4 iii. Isaac Latson (not definitely proven yet), born Abt. 1811 in NY.
- + 5 iv. Sarah A. Latson, born September 12, 1811 in Genessee Co, NY; died May 24, 1862 in DeKalb Co., IN.
- + 6 v. James J. Latson, born June 02, 1819 in NY; died November 24, 1905 in Angola, IN.
- + 7 vi. Cynthia Latson, born August 29, 1820 in Genessee Co., NY; died May 05, 1879 in Avondale, Oceola, MI.
- + 8 vii. Hannah Latson, born August 09, 1824 in New York; died January 20, 1905 in DeKalb Co., IN.

Generation No. 2

2. Mary Ann² Latson (William¹) was born Abt. 1806 in NY, and died Bet. June 06 - 14, 1849 in DeKalb Co., IN. She married Levi J. Walsworth 1826. He was born May 05, 1803 in Caledonia, Livingston County, NY, and died July 16, 1880 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for Mary Ann Latson: They moved to DeKalb County at the same time Sarah and Daniel Altenburg did. I believe Stephen moved about the same time. He might have traveled with them and went back to Ohio to get his wife. They also lived next door and when they moved from Genessee Co., NY, and went to Sandusky OH, they all did together. So I am presuming they are very close relatives. Note: They are related. It is now proven in various ways.

Information from a letter written by Cos Altenburg in 1931 to the Hanes-Altenburg Reunion, "Immediately they built a log house and two families occupied it in December 1839 as the early settlers in DeKalb County, Indiana. A mild winter favored them and scant provisions brought with them and a few dollars in their pockets only, furnished the supplies for the family of Altenberg and his brother-in-law, Levi J. Walsworth. In the coming spring they were to seek provisions by hunting and in the coming spring they were to seek provisions by hunting and fishing and carrying corn meal from fish creeks, where the Houlten settlement had occurred." Note, at the old settler's meeting notes, and in the local history books, it says that they actually settled in Dekalb county in 1938.

Her stone says she died June 6. She died of a billous fever (whatever that is).

In the 1850 Indiana Mortality Census, "WALSWORTH, MARY ANN DEKALB CO. IN 43 F JUNE NY BILLOUS FVR

Notes for Levi J. Walsworth: On the graveyard cemetery transcription book it says he died June 10, 1860 age 77 y 2 m 11d. I have a tendency to believe the History book because it was his son and the book would have come out only 5 years after his death. I will try to find an obituary in the paper later. Also this is more in line with the ages if Mary is a sister to Sarah.

He is in the 1860 Union Twp. census. Levi is 57, Elizabeth is 52, George is 25, Wesley is 18, Mary M. is 15.

In the 1870 Union Twp., DeKalb County census he is 67 and his wife Elizabeth is 62. They are living next door to his daughter, Matilda.

He is in the Union Twp., DeKalb County census. He is living with his daughter, Matilda that is married to Jeremiah Likens. He is 77 and is retired.

They are neighbors of Daniel Altenburg, besides traveling from Ohio to Indiana together.

A partial obituary says, Levi J. Walsworth was born in Caledonia, Livingston County, N. Y. May 5, 1803. He married Mary Ann Latson in 1826 and lived in Caledonia until 1834, when he moved to Sandusky Ohio where he resided four years, and then moved to DeKalb county, Indiana, in the fall of 1838 with his wife and four children, where he remained up to the time of his death. He was one of the early settlers of this county, and endured without a murmur the hardships consequent to pioneer life. All who knew him so knowledged him to be a man of great industry, unimpeachable honesty and stern integrity; besides being an affectionate husband, a kind father, an obliging neighbor and a good citizen. By his industry he amassed sufficient wealth to afford himself and family a comfortable living, and by his honesty, kind heart, and willing hands, made many warm friends all over the county. He was converted and joined the M. E. church in 1828, and together with his wife he entered the Methodist class in Auburn. Their house was the home for the preacher and the place of worship, where many that mourned were comforted and many hearts were made to realize the power of God unto salvation." In the balmy days of June 1849, God laid his hand heavily upon him by removing his companion to the house not made with hands. He then married Mrs. Elizabeth (Betsy) McEnterfer see page ii, but again found himself alone by the death of this companion in 1872. He was the father of seven children, five of whom mourn his departure. For several years his system was prayed upon by consumption which caused his death July 16, 1880 aged 77 years, 2 months, and 11 days. After having lived a devoted follower of the Lord Jesus for 52 years, the Master said, "it is enough," and he has gone to his reward. In addition to the above which was handed us we would say that the deceased lived and died upon the farm entered by him forty-two years ago, and that when they first came to the county, Esq. D. Altenburg, now living in this city and himself cut the first road from the Seventh street bridge on the east of town to their farm which adjoined. The funeral services were held at the house of J. D. Likins, his son-in-law, Rev. H. J. Norris, officiating, and his burial took place in the old graveyard in this city, on Sunday last, witnessed by a large concourse of friends. In his death we are reminded that the old land marks are being rapidly erased and that those who converted the wilderness into a garden are dropping off one by one, until soon the last will have passed eternal repose." See picture on page ii.

Children of Mary Latson and Levi Walsworth are:

- + 9 i. William J.³ Walsworth, born January 12, 1827 in Genesee County, NY; died July 26, 1902 in Auburn, IN DeKalb Co..
- 10 ii. Sarah E. Walsworth, born Abt. 1831. She married Charles Piatt.

Notes for Sarah E. Walsworth: She is 19 in the 1850 Union Twp. census.

- + 11 iii. George J. (Prob. Jefferson) Walsworth, born Abt. 1835 in OH.
- 12 iv. Wesley P. Walsworth, born Abt. 1842 in IN.

Notes for Wesley P. Walsworth: He is 18 in the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN. He is 8 in the 1850 census. See page ii.

- + 13 v. Matilda E. Walsworth, born November 04, 1844 in Auburn, IN; died April 18, 1923 in Lincoln, Nebraska.

3. Stephen² Latson (William¹) was born Abt. 1807 in NY, and died May 24, 1862 in DeKalb County, IN. He married Abigal (Abbie). She was born Abt. 1815 in NY, and died May 20, 1888 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for Stephen Latson: Information from his tombstone. He was 54 y, 9 m., 9 d old when he died. He died the same day as his sister.

He is in the Auburn, Union Twp. 1850 census. He is a shoemaker. He is also in the 1860 census and is listed as a farmer.

From The Auburn Courier June 25, 1891 "Stephen Latson, brother of James Latson, ex-coroner of county, died in Auburn, about 1863."

Notes for Abigal (Abbie): She is in the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN census.

She is living by herself in the 1880 Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN census. She is 65.

In the Waterloo Press, May 24, 1888 Thursday paper, "Mrs. Abbie Latson died last Friday night, in the 74th year of her age, having lived alone for nearly a quarter of a century past, her husband and children having gone before her. The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon in the M. E. church, of which she has long been a faithful and consistent member."

Children of Stephen Latson and Abigal (Abbie) are:

- 14 i. James H.³ Latson, born Abt. 1833 in NY; died May 02, 1852 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for James H. Latson:

PROB. DOES NOT BELONG
I am guessing this is a son since it is the right time period and he is buried with them. He is buried in Old Auburn (Evergreen) cemetery. He was 19 when he died.

- + 15 ii. Charles E. Latson, born June 27, 1840 in OH; died June 09, 1907 in Waterloo, IN.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 3, 1862. It is a very important document, as it contains the President's views on the state of the Union and the progress of the war.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War Department, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the military operations of the Army during the year 1861.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Navy Department, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the naval operations of the Navy during the year 1861.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the operations of the Department during the year 1861.

5. The fifth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Department of the Treasury, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the operations of the Department during the year 1861.

6. The sixth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Department of the State, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the operations of the Department during the year 1861.

7. The seventh part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Department of the War, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the operations of the Department during the year 1861.

8. The eighth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Department of the Navy, dated January 10, 1862. It contains a detailed account of the operations of the Department during the year 1861.

- iii. Stephen E. Latson, born Abt. 1848 in IN; died June 03, 1863 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for Stephen E. Latson: He is buried between Stephen and Abigal. I am guessing he is a son since he is buried with them and it is the right time period. He was 15 y. 4 m and 6 da when he died.

He is in the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co. census with Stephen and Abigail.

4. Isaac² Latson (William¹) was born Abt. 1811 in NY. He married Lusetta Draggoo February 05, 1848 in DeKalb County, IN. She died Abt. 1892.

Notes for Isaac Latson: This is a guess so far as of January 2000. He has a son Orville. He was born in NY. He is in Auburn in the 1850 census. He died while his son was a young boy according to his son's obituary.

Notes for Lusetta Draggoo: Information from her son's obituary. I got her maiden name from the marriage records.

Marriage Notes for Isaac Latson and Lusetta Draggoo: Information from the DeKalb County marriage records.

Child of Isaac Latson and Lusetta Draggoo is:

- 17 i. Orville³ Latson, born July 22, 1848 in Auburn, Indiana; died January 08, 1915 in Auburn, Indiana. He married Amanda Hemstead March 17, 1900.

Notes for Orville Latson:

In the Waterloo Press, Thursday March 29, 1900, it says, "On Monday, Judge Bratton granted a divorce to Amanda Hemstead from Frederick, and the same day, Isaac O. Latson procured license and married the divorced woman. All the parties reside in Auburn."

In the Auburn Courier, Thursday, Jan. 14, 1915 LIFELONG RESIDENT OF AUBURN EXPIRES Isaac Orville Latson, Succumbs of Rheumatism -- Was Buried Tuesday Morning. For sixty-six years, his entire life, a resident of Auburn Isaac Orville Latson, passed away at his home at Fifteenth street and Indiana Avenue at 11:30 o'clock Saturday night. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning. The late Mr. Latson was born in Auburn July 22, 1848, and ever since lived in his native city. For the past five months he suffered from rheumatism, the ultimate cause of his death. Mr. Latson had no definite occupation. He was a man of toil, and worked wherever a day's work could be obtained. Surviving him are a widow, a stepson, Charles Hamman, of LaOtto, Indiana, who was at his bedside when death came, and a half brother, at Concord. The funeral was held from the family residence at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning with Rev. F. F. Thornburg officiating. Burial was made at Woodlawn."

In the Courier, Mon., Jan. 18, 1915, OBITUARY OF ORVILLE LATSON Isaac O. Latson, son of Isaac and Lusetta Latson, was born in the city of Auburn July 22, 1848, and died at his home, corner Fifteenth and Indiana avenue, January 9, 1915, aged 66 years, 5 months and 18 days. He was married to Amanda Hammon, March 26, 1900. While just a boy he suffered the loss of his father, and 22 years ago last June his mother departed this life. In his death he leaves his wife, a half brother, Ira Bone, of Concord, Indiana, a step son, Charles Rammon (Hamman) of LaOtto, Indiana, two grandchildren and two brother-in-laws."

Notes for Amanda Hemstead: They divorced (Frederick and Amanda) on the same day she married Isaac Orville Latson.

5. Sarah A.² Latson (William¹) was born September 12, 1811 in Genesee Co, NY, and died May 24, 1862 in DeKalb Co., IN. She married Daniel A. Altenburg March 14, 1833, son of William Altenburg and Elizabeth V.. He was born July 19, 1809 in Montgomery County, NY, and died January 19, 1888 in Auburn, IN. See the Altenburg genealogy for details on Sarah, Daniel and their descendants. ONLY their children will be shown below.

Children of Sarah Latson and Daniel Altenburg are:

| 18 | i. | Daniel Wells ³ Altenburg, born May 05, 1834 in Utica, Genessee Co., NY; died December 01, 1895 in Gratiot, Newark Twp., MI. |

6. James J.² Latson (William¹) was born June 02, 1819 in NY, and died November 24, 1905 in Angola, IN. He married Charlotte W. Rowley. She was born June 21, 1820 in NY, and died August 26, 1897.

Notes for James J. Latson: See pictures of this family on page ii. They moved to Auburn in May 5, 1854 according to a daughter's obituary.

He is a brother of Sarah's. He is buried in the Evergreen cemetery. Sarah, a child of his was born in Genessee Co., NY so I am guessing he stayed there with his family and then moved to DeKalb County later to be near his siblings. He is definitely a brother of Sarah's. In the paper, June 25, 1891 it says his brother Stephen died abt. 1863 (Stephen died May 24, 1862)

Jan. 18, 1900, The Auburn Courier, "J. J. Latson was here a while yesterday. Just now he is making his home with his son, Toad Latson, in Butler. He reports that Mrs. Andy Baxter is in Toledo with her daughter Mrs. Rilla Duncan. His son Will, is with, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Plum at Waterloo and in very poor health."

In the Dec. 27, 1900 paper it has his daughter's obituary (Emma Plum) in it. It names he and his wife as her parents. In another Butler paper it says, Hattie (Mrs. William Hanes) went to her cousin Emma Plum's funeral. This is the proof that I needed to tie them together as definite relatives. I also have family members mentioned in other areas showing they tie in together.

In the Oct. 21, 1904 Butler Record, "Mrs. Fannie Cowen, of Angola, is caring for her aged father, James Latson at the home of J. H. Latson. "

According to the Smith family, he is in the 1850 Darien, Genesee Co., NY.

In the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN census James is 41, Charlotte is 39, Emeline is 17, William is 15, Mary is 12, Harriet 10, Sarah is 8, Franklin is 4, Francis is 4.

He is in the 1870 Union Twp. census. James is 51, Charlotte 48, William A., 24, Hariet 20, Franklin 14, Frances 14, Joel 12, and Alda 8.

He is in the 1880 Union Twp., DeKalb County census. He is 61 and is a shoemaker.

They are buried in the Evergreen Cemetery, Section D., Lot 107

He died of a brain lesion, according to his death records. It said that he was b. Nov. 25, 1905 at Greenlawn with L. N. Klink undertaker. It also says he was a farmer and his parents were William Latson and Hannah Valleau of NY.

Notes for Charlotte W. Rowley: She is the wife of J.P. Information from the DeKalb Co. cemetery book.

In the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN census James is 41, Charlotte is 39, Emeline is 17, William is 15, Mary is 12, Harriet 10, Sarah is 8, Franklin is 4, Francis is 4.

She is in the 1870 Union Twp. census. James is 51, Charlotte 48, William A., 24, Hariet 20, Franklin 14, Frances 14, Joel 12, and Alda 8.

She is in the 1880 Union twp, DeKalb Co., IN census. She is 58.

Sept. 2, 1897, The Butler Record, Friday, "Mrs. Charlotte Rowley, was born in Lancaster, N. Y., Oct. 31, 1820; died at Auburn, August 26, 1897; aged 75 years, 9 months, 25 days. She was married to James Latson April 7, 1842, and they lived in Wyoming County, N. Y., until 1854, when they settled in Auburn where they have since resided. To this union were born nine children, three sons and three daughters, all of who with the husband survive her, and the death of the mother was the first break in the family circle. The children were all present at the funeral, save one daughter who resides at Quincy, Mich., and who is afflicted with heart failure. The funeral was held Sunday p.m. in the M. E. church at Auburn, Rev. Brosy officiating. The deceased had been a member of the church for over half a century and lived and died in the faith of Him who she served. During the life that passed she knew of the hardships and struggle to rear a large family, but she has gone to her rest and her good deeds will live after her."

In the Butler Record, July 8, 1910, Friday, "Mrs. Josie Wyatt and Mrs. J. H. Latson and daughter Beulah spent Tuesday with their sister at Spencerville." also Mrs. Josie Wyatt of Elkhart, Ind., spent the 4th with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Latson."

Children of James Latson and Charlotte Rowley are:

- 27 i. Emeline (Emma)³ Latson, born March 24, 1843 in Darlen Center, NY; died December 22, 1900. She married Philip (Phil) Plum August 19, 1866; born 1841; died Oct. 18, 1917 - July 12, 1926.

Notes for Emeline (Emma) Latson: In the Waterloo Press, Dec. 27, 1900 it says, "MRS. PHIL PLUM DEAD Called to Her Final Rest last Saturday RESOLUTIONS OF LODGES As to Her Esteem and Respect as a Member - The Sketch of the Deceased - A Useful Life The death of Mrs. Philip Plum, last Saturday afternoon was not unexpected, and while the death of such a woman is a loss to the community, and a bereavement to a husband, it was the reward for a noble woman to be called to an everlasting home. Just a few day prior to her death her sister, Hattie Britton was buried at Chicago. Emmeline Plum, eldest daughter of J. J. and Charlotte Latson, was born in Darien, NY, March 24, 1843, departed this life Dec. 22, 1900, aged 57 years, 8 months and 28 days. She was united in marriage to Phillip Plum, Aug. 19, 1866, whose faithful and loving wife she was until death did them part. Mrs. Plum was an earnest and faithful Sunday School and church worker. She commenced teaching in Sabbath school when 14 years of age and remained a faithful worker until failing health deprived her of further attendance. She joined the Presbyterian church of Waterloo, May 20, 1867 of which she was a member at her death. She was a member of the Rebekah Lodge and Rathbone Sisters of Waterloo, also a member of the Minerva Club, of Waterloo. She had represented both the lodges of which she was a member in the Grand Lodge of the State. She was a teacher to the public schools for a number of years and was a member of the first Teacher Institute ever held in DeKalb Co. She came to Auburn,

In the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN census James is 41, Charlotte is 39, Emeline is 17, William is 15, Mary is 12, Harriet 10, Sarah is 8, Franklin is 4, Francis is 4.

Waterloo Press, May 22, 1884, "Mrs. Phil Plum, of Butler, has been in town several days this week, assisting Uncle Jerry with his assessment books. She returned home yesterday."

Notes for Philip (Phil) Plum: Feb. 7, 1889, The Waterloo Press, "Last week one day, Phil Plum and his brother Martin, of Iowa, , thought to visit their brother Andy, and on arriving at Newville found he had gone to Auburn for a day or two. they remained until after dinner, when they returned to Auburn thinking to find him there, when lo, and behold, Andy had been at Auburn, and found they had gone to Newville, he took a hasty dinner, and a hasty retreat, and on arriving at home only to find them gone. He looked quite serious the next day and felt pretty badly sold."

They lived in Auburn in 1890. Information from a family reunion article in the paper, Jan. 2, 1890 The Waterloo Press.

The Waterloo Press, April 16, 1908, "Mr. & Mrs. Phillip Plum expect to leave Waterloo soon after Easter for White Cloud, Michigan, where they will move onto their farm. Mr. Plum will hold his residence in Waterloo and expects to return here later."

June 8, 1916 The Waterloo Press, Thursday, "Philip Plum is improving some under special treatment that he has been taking. However he is not yet able to attend public gatherings, and has been avoiding attending any meetings under the advice of his physician."

The Waterloo Press, Sept. 7, 1916, Thursday, "Mrs. Philip Plum has returned home from a pleasant visit at White Cloud, Mich. with her daughter."

Aug. 23, 1917 Thursday, "Philip Plum went to Frankfort, Mich., Monday evening to spend a week with his niece."

His wife applied for a widow's pension July 12, 1926.

The Waterloo Press, Unknown date, "Mrs. Philip Plum has gone to White Cloud, Mich. to visit with her children."

- ii. William A. Latson, born Abt. 1845 in NY; died Abt. 1933 in Auburn, IN.

Notes for William A. Latson: There are no dates given and he is buried next to them. From the DeKalb County cemetery book.

He is in the 1860 Union Twp. census. He is also in the 1870 DeKalb Co. census and he is a shoemaker.

He is in the 1870 Union Twp. census with his family. James is 51, Charlotte 48, William A., 24, Hariet 20, Franklin 14, Frances 14, Joel 12, and Alda 8.

Jan. 18, 1900, The Auburn Courier, "J. J. Latson was here a while yesterday. Just now he is making his home with his son, Toad Latson, in Butler. He reports that Mrs. Andy Baxter is in Toledo with her daughter Mrs. Rilla Duncan. His son Will, is with, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Plum at Waterloo and in very poor health."

"Wm. Latson of Atlanta, Ga. visited his brother J. H. Latson and family from Wednesday until Thursday," The Butler Record, May 3, 1912.

His death information from the Smith family.

- + 29 iii. Mary Helen Latson, born Abt. 1848 in NY.
- + 30 iv. Harriet (Hattie) E. Latson, born March 09, 1851 in Colesville, NY; died December 19, 1900 in South Chicago, IL.
- 31 v. Sarah A. Latson, born Abt. 1852 in Genessee Co., NY. She married (1) Unknown Harris. She married (2) William E. McIntyre December 30, 1869 in DeKalb County, IN. She married (3) Henry G. Balliet September 06, 1892 in Corunna, IN; born in Carbon Co., PA.

Notes for Sarah A. Latson: She was 40 when she married Henry G. Balliet. From the marriage records of DeKalb County. Sarah was married three times. The 1st time to William McIntyre 2nd time to Harris, the third time to Henry G. Balliet.

She is in the 1860 Union Twp. census. She is 8.

Marriage Notes for Sarah Latson and William McIntyre: I am guessing this marriage. I am not sure when Sarah was born but she was married 3 times and the third time was when she was 40. I presume she married young.

Notes for Henry G. Balliet: His parents are Samuel and Sarah (Rannaolbin) Balliet. From the DeKalb Marriage Records. He was a farmer and had one previous marriage.

- + 32 vi. Francis (Fannie) Latson, born December 23, 1855 in IN; died 1932 in Butler, IN.

Notes for Alda J. Latson: She is in the 1870 DeKalb Co. census with her family. She is 8. James is 51, Charlotte 48, William A., 24, Hariet 20, Franklin 14, Frances 14, Joel 12, and Alda 8.

The following information is from the Latson family history found in the Indianapolis genealogy library. "It has her name as Alta and that she married Nichols and has a daughter Marjorie."

Notes for Howard W. Shaffer: His name is in the Waterloo Press, March 3, 1881, "Howard W. Shaffer and Alda J. Latson." They were issued a marriage licenses by the county clerk in the month of February.

Marriage Notes for Alda Latson and Howard Shaffer:

It was in the Waterloo Press, Thursday, March 3, 1881 that they got their license.

7. Cynthia² Latson (William¹) was born August 29, 1820 in Genesee Co., NY, and died May 05, 1879 in Avondale, Oceaola, MI. She married John C. Symonds February 03, 1847 in Hillsdale, MI. He was born December 28, 1821 in Locke Twp, Cayuga, New York, and died August 28, 1881 in Allegan, MI.

Notes for Cynthia Latson: Information from the Latson family history located in the Ft. Wayne Library and State Library. On another record on the internet it says that her birthday was Aug. 29, 1824 and she died abt. 1898 Avondale, MI. It also says her parents were Hannah Valteau b. 1802 and Stephen Latson b. 1798 NY.

Information from the Smith family (Norm and Genie) They supplied the exact death date. They got it from the internet. I had abt. 1878.

They were suppose to have had four children...from the Smith family.

Notes for John C. Symonds:

Information from World Connect Project (Rootsweb). It was on Rich Turnblom rturnb@aol.com. It had a note that it came from Bernie Hunter.

Children of Cynthia Latson and John Symonds are:

- + 36 i. Mary³ Symonds, born January 31, 1848; died March 16, 1921 in Reed City, Osceola, MI.
- 37 ii. Caroline Symonds, born Abt. 1850.

8. Hannah² Latson (William¹) was born August 09, 1824 in New York, and died January 20, 1905 in DeKalb Co., IN. She married William Valteau July 30, 1843 in Scottsville, Monroe County, New York. He was born in New York.

Notes for Hannah Latson: They are in the Union Twp. 1860, DeKalb Co., IN census living next door to Stephen Latson. William is 40, Hannah is 36, Helen is 12, Alice is 9, and Charles is 3. Hannah Thomas is living with them and she is 73. An aunt? A grandmother to William or Hannah? They prob. moved to DeKalb between 1851 and 1857 since Charles was born in Indiana and he was 3. Proven: She is the mother of Hannah.

She is buried in Union cemetery and this information if from the death records in the Auburn Library.

From the Auburn Courier, August 1, 1893 "Another DeKalb couple has just celebrated the fiftieth year of married life. Wm. Vallou (Valteau) and wife, whose home is near Garrett, called in their friends on Sunday, July 30, 1893, to celebrate with them this happy though rare occasion. They were married July 30, 1843, in Scottsville, Monroe County, N., Y. and in October of the same year came west, settling in Indiana, then a very new and not very attractive country. Mr. Vallou is now about 73 years of age, and his wife about 69. Her name was Hannah Latson, she being a sister of James J. Latson of Auburn. On this occasion a large circle of their friends gathered at the home, numbering in all about sixty, and though we have not full particulars, yet we know enough of those present to say they had a good time, and that the memories of old days as they were called up, were very pleasant. We know, too, that they had an abundant and splendid lunch, and a generous display of presents and that the guest all left an abundance of good wishes with the aged couple as testimonials of their friendship and regard."

Notes for William Valteau: In the 1860 census, he is a carpenter.

They are in the Union Twp. 1860, DeKalb Co., IN census living next door to Stephen Latson. William is 40, Hannah is 36, Helen is 12, Alice is 9, and Charles is 3. Hannah Thomas is living with them and she is 73. An aunt? A grandmother to William or Hannah? They prob. moved to DeKalb between 1851 and 1857 since Charles was born in Indiana and he was 3.

Cousin Hattie and family (This letter was from Charlie Valleau, son of Wm. to Harriet Hanes.) I did not receive your note until last evening and in reply I will say that I feel very grateful to you all for the invitation to attend that which undoubtably will be very pleasant to all who are present but as the notice is short and my work at present is you will not be disappointed if I am unable to be there. I am setting some machinery that must be finished this week at all hazzards and no body to fill my place. but I will try my best to get away if so I and Pearl will drive over. But if it should happen that I can not come I guess Father will come in my place mother is visiting in michigan with Aunt Emeline so of course She knows nothing of it. as for the Bride also the Groom I wish them everlasting joy, Happyness, and Prosperity, all through life, and when they are called upon to leave this earthly abode that their pillow may be surrounded by the warmest of friends and their spirit gently wafted unknown. trusting you will accept this paltry gift as a token of deep affection of a friend I ever remain your Cousin Charlie if Father is unable to come I will remit by Express.

9. William J.³ Walsworth (Mary Ann² Latson, William¹) was born January 12, 1827 in Genesee County, NY, and died July 26, 1902 in Auburn, IN DeKalb Co.. He married Elizabeth Fisher January 15, 1851 in prob. DeKalb County. She was born May 13, 1828 in OH, and died January 29, 1915 in Auburn, IN.

Notes for William J. Walsworth: In his obituary July 31, 1902, "William J. Walsworth was born in Livingston Co., N. J. January 12, 1827 and died at his home in this city at 12 o'clock, noon, July 26, 1902, aged 75 years, 6 months, 14 days. When he was but three years old his parents removed to Sandusky, Ohio, Ohio, and when he was twelve years of age pursued their way westward, moving with an ox team through almost impenetrable forests and over almost impassable roads. They arrived at Auburn in the latter part of December 1839, and for a week or ten days, were entertained by the hospitable Mr. and Mrs. Parks, well known, to all the early settlers. During these days, the men erected a cabin on the farm entered by William's father four miles east of Auburn into which the family at once moved. This farm still remains in the hands of the family. On the 15th day of January 1851, the subject of this sketch was married to Elizabeth Fisher. To them were born two children, a daughter Mary E. known in this community as Mrs. Mary Boyer, who passed from this earth the 14th of February; and a son Amos B., who resides near the old homestead east of this city. The widow and son, his wife and their two daughters, and two sons with Nellie and Cary Boyer, children of the deceased daughter, from the immediate family circle now living. The deceased was happily and soundly converted at a prayer meeting held in the school house near his home in the fall of 1850, and united with the Methodist Episcopal church the following winter, at which time a great revival swept the neighborhood under the labors of Rev. Samuel Lamb, Bro. Walsworth stayed converted, and for 52 years rendered the church the best service he could pay. His home was always open wide to Methodist preachers, and many of the pioneers found rest and comfort there. He was not a man of loud pretensions, but possessed a stable Christian character and an abiding faith in God. When the church society which was formed at the school house near his country home broke up about 23 years ago, he transferred his membership to Auburn, and eight years ago moved to this city. He was for several months a great sufferer yet, he never complained but patiently endured till the time of his release. A good man has fallen, let all emulate his virtues. Funeral services were held at the family residence by Revs. L. M. Krider and J. W. Welch at 10:30 a.m. Monday, July 28, and the interment took place at Woodlawn cemetery under the direction of G. S. McCord, funeral director."

In the Auburn Dispatch, July 31, 1902, Thursday, it says "Death of William J. Walsworth Wm. J. Walsworth, whose illness was noted in THE DISPATCH at various times, died at his residence on west Ninth street at noon on Saturday. The deceased was one of the earliest pioneers of DeKalb County; was born in Genesee county, New York, January 12, 1827. In 1838, when but a lad, he settled with his parents on the well-known Walsworth farm four miles east of Auburn. He remained at home until twenty-one years of age. He was married to Elizabeth Fischer. To them were born two children, Mary E., who died in Auburn a few months ago, and Amos B., who lives on the farm east of Auburn. Mr. Walsworth was a consistent christian and attended the M. E. church as long as able."

In the 1850 census, it says he was born in NY.

In the 1860 census, William is 22, Elizabeth 33, Mary 5, and Amos 4. Lewis Fisher (a brother?) 17 is living with them.

In the 1870 census, Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN it shows that he is 43, Elizabeth is 42, Mary 15, and Amos is 13. Elizabeth's sister, Sarah Fisher is living with them and she is 23.

He is in the 1880 Union twp, DeKalb County, census. He is 53, Elizabeth is 52, Mary is 25, and Amos D. is 22. It says he is a farmer.

In her obituary it says he died in 1903. That is wrong since it was in the paper in 1902.

In the Feb. 4, 1915, Auburn Courier, Thurs., "MRS. WALSWORTH DIES FROM HEART FAILURE Aged Woman Who Was Practically Alone in the World Expires at the home of John Sheffer. Mrs. Elizabeth Walsworth, aged 87 years, died at the home of John Sheffer, 340 West Eleventh Street from heart failure at 2:20 o'clock Friday morning, within less than six hours of the time she was one of merriest of the family circle. No plans for the funeral have been made. Mrs. Walsworth was born in Ohio near Findlay, but a detailed story of her life was not obtainable from friends Friday afternoon. She was practically alone in the world. Following the death of her husband about fifteen years ago, she built a a little house at 344 West Ninth Street and there she lived alone until nine weeks ago when her health began to decline and she decided to go to the Sheffer home to live. While her health had not been good, she had not been bedfast in recent months. She was up about the house Thursday as usual and seemed to be in her usual health at the time she retired Thursday night. Mrs. Sheffer arose at about 2 o'clock Friday morning to adjust the furnace and had she not done so Mrs. Walsworth would doubtless have died without the knowledge of the members of the household. Mrs. Sheffer heard the aged woman call, and going to her side Mrs. Walsworth told her that she was ill. Attempts to bring relief were unavailing, and before the family physician could arrive, the patient had breathed her last. She leaves three brothers, William Fisher, John Fisher, and Benjamin Fisher in Michigan, and two sisters, Mrs. Rebecca Gift, of Fostoria, Ohio, and Mrs. Sarah Bailey of Blakesley, Ohio."

In the Feb. 15, 1915, Monday Auburn Courier, "LIFE OF MRS. W. J. WALSWORTH "Elizabeth Fisher, oldest daughter and second of Jacob and Rebecca Fisher, was born in Starke County, Ohio., May 13, 1828. The first three years of her life were spent in the place of her nativity, but at the end of that period her parents removed to Richland Center, Ohio, taking their little family with them. In September, 1847 they moved to DeKalb county Indiana. In her new home she quickly united with the Baptist church when she was about 20 years of age. On January 15, 1850, she was united in marriage to William Walsworth, and the same years she transferred her church membership to the Methodist Episcopal church at what was then known as Pyles' Corner. She has been a valued and useful member of the church from that day, a period of 65 years. At the time of her marriage she with her husband moved onto their farm four miles east of Auburn, until their age and infirmities made it unwise for them longer to continue in the strenuous activities of life, when they moved to Auburn. Her she has lived in her own home until about two months ago when she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. John Sheffer, from whose home she quietly and peacefully, though unexpectedly passed to her heavenly abode in the early morning of January 29, 1915 at the age of 86 years, 8 months and 16 days. She was the mother of two children, Mary, who married C. B. Boyer, and Amos Walsworth. Six grandchildren were almost, if not quite as near to her as her own children. She also leaves six great-grandchildren. Three brothers, William, Benjamin, and John and two sisters, Rebecca Gift and Sarah Bailey. Her husband died July 26, 1903. both her children are deceased, and one of her grandchildren, Ida Hartman preceded her in death."

Marriage Notes for William Walsworth and Elizabeth Fisher:

Information from William J. Walsworth's obituary. In her obituary it says, 1850. I would believe his obituary until differently because she would have been alive yet to tell the date.

Children of William Walsworth and Elizabeth Fisher are:

- + 41 i. Mary E.⁴ Walsworth, born December 07, 1854 in IN; died February 19, 1902 in North Van Buren St., Auburn, IN.

11. George J. (Prob. Jefferson)³ Walsworth (Mary Ann² Latson, William¹) was born Abt. 1835 in OH. He married Anna Magoon July 03, 1864 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for George J. (Prob. Jefferson) Walsworth:

He is in the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co. census. He went by Jefferson sometimes too. (1850 census). He was 15 in the 1850 census.

He is also in the 1880 Union township census, age 46. His wife Anna is 30. He has a daughter Chilli 10, Levi 7, Celia 5, Nettie 3, and William 9 months.

In the April 2, 1896 Thursday paper, it says, "A letter from G. J. Walsworth, in Missouri says they have had a warm winter, but are having a cold, nasty spring. Still everything is looking fairly well. He has changed his post office to Lone, in Green county, that state."

In the Oct. 7, 1897 The Auburn Courier, "G. J. Walsworth sends word that he has moved back onto his farm near Arden in Douglas Co., Mo. His post office for a time has been at Lone, in Green Co. He writes that corn is good, wheat an average crop, oats potatoes and sweet potatoes are fine, with an abundant crop of peaches and apples. But the dry weather has delayed the wheat sowing."

Burial: Bassett Cemetery, Nebraska

Notes for Jeremiah (Jerry) Doran Likens:

He is in the 1870 Union Twp. census.

He is in the 1880 Union Twp. census. He has his father-in-law, Levi Walsworth living with them. Jeremiah is 43.

In the Feb. 13, 1890 Waterloo Press, "We are pleased to note that J. D. Likens, an old DeKalb soldier, is now treasurer of Rock county, Neb., with Bassett as the county seat."

"Jerre D. Likens, of Bassett, Neb., came to the reunion of the 30 regiment at Goshen, and also to this county to visit old friends." The Waterloo Press, April 16, 1891 Thursday

Marriage Notes for Matilda Walsworth and Jeremiah Likens:

Information from the family sheet done by Cheryl Kay Eastwood and Mark Anthony Suazo placed in the diary of Jeremiah Likens located at the Ft. Wayne Library.

Children of Matilda Walsworth and Jeremiah Likens are:

- + 48 i. Sian/Sion B.⁴ Likens, born December 12, 1864 in Auburn, IN; died May 01, 1958 in Kansas City, Mo.
- 49 ii. Estus Likens, born Abt. 1867 in IN.

Notes for Estus Likens: I think this is his name but I am not sure of the spelling in the census. (1880 Union Twp, DeKalb Co. IN). He is 13. He is in the 1870 Union Twp. census.

- 50 iii. Norah Likens, born Abt. 1871 in IN.

Notes for Norah Likens: She is in the 1880 Union Twp., DeKalb County, IN census. She is 9.

15. Charles E.³ Latson (Stephen², William¹) was born June 27, 1840 in OH, and died June 09, 1907 in Waterloo, IN. He married Sarah Ritter 1868. She was born Abt. 1846, and died February 06, 1921 in DeKalb County, IN.

Notes for Charles E. Latson: He is 21 in the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN census. He is a teamster.

In the Waterloo paper, June 13, 1907, "Charles Latson was born June 27, 1840 in the state of Ohio, and died at his home in Waterloo, Sunday, June 9, 1907 at 4 o'clock p.m., aged 66 years, 11 months and 14 days. He was married to Sarah Ritter in the year 1868, to which union were born nine children, four boys and five girls. Three boys and one girl preceded their father to the spirit world. On the 9th day of August 1862, Mr. Latson enrolled as a private soldier in Company H of the 74th Regt. Ind. Inf. Vols. In this company he rendered almost three years of faithful service, and was honorably discharged in June, 1865. He leaves a widow, one son, four daughters, two sisters, three brothers, twenty grandchildren, and other relatives to mourn his departure. The body was taken to the Auburn cemetery to await the great resurrection day. Funeral services conducted by Rev. D. O. Wise were held at the home Tuesday morning. A detail from Post 52 G. A. R. Waterloo, in which was formerly a member accompanied the co-tege to the burial."

I might not have the right Charles attached to his parents. According to Abbie Latson's obituary it says all her children are dead (in 1888). Because of this & the same thing mentioned in the covered wagon story - he prob. doesn't belong.

Notes for Sarah Ritter: Information from Ella L. Myles death records. 1880 Steuben Twp., Steuben County, Census.

The Waterloo Press, May 17, 1917 Thursday, Mrs. Sarah Latson has returned from Angola where she visited her brother, Simon Ritter."

Notes for William Earl Dole: Dr. Joseph C. Kimsey Family

Dr. Joseph C.² Kimsey was born 9 Dec 1819 in Virginia, the son of John¹ and Lydia (Bolen) Kimsey. His father was a native of New Jersey and his mother was born in England. When he was six weeks old his parents moved to Carroll County, Ohio and when fifteen years old, they moved to Allen County, Indiana, where he grew to manhood.

On 6 Feb 1845 at Blue Creek, Adams County, Indiana he married Mary Dill, who was born on 6 Jun 1828, the daughter of William and Sarah (Hatfield) Dill.

Joseph Kimsey studied medicine and kept a general store at Manmouth, Indiana for a few years. He then practiced medicine for a while at Fairfield Center in DeKalb County, Indiana and about the year 1855, moved to Salem Center, Indiana where he continued the practice of medicine and where he began a dry goods store about 1867. He continued in that business until he retired.

Mr. Kimsey tried to enlist in the defense of the Union but was rejected because he was not able to meet the test of the medical examination. However, on 15 Oct 1864, he entered the service as a drafted man, serving in the 29th Indiana Infantry, Company "K" and remained in the army to the close of the war. He was mustered out on 26 June 1865 and his name is on the east side of the monument in Angola, IN.

Joseph Kimsey died at the home of his daughter Mrs. Dole in Angola on 16 May 1910, aged 90 years 5 months and 7 days old. His wife Mary, died on 16 Sep 1905, both are buried in the Block Cemetery, Salem Township, Steuben County, Indiana.

Several sources stated they had 11 children, however only nine are listed in our county's cemetery books, as follows:

1. William Edward³ Kimsey (Joseph², John¹) was born 12 Oct 1851 in Allen Co., IN. He married on 11 Apr 1872 to Elizabeth Dole, daughter of John and Susana (Kirkwood) Dole, who was born the 19 Mar 1851 in Huron County, Ohio. He became a farmer, merchant, postmaster, and notary public. He lived in Salem Township, Steuben County, Indiana until he was elected county clerk from 1886 to 1894, when he moved into Angola. Afterward he returned to Salem Center, and in 1913 moved to Arizona for the sake of his wife's health. While there he developed some orange groves and became the president of the Scottsdale Bank until he retired. He also served as a justice of the peace at the time of his death, on 13 Apr 1924. His wife Elizabeth died 13 Oct 1932, both are buried in Circle Hill Cemetery, Angola, Indiana.

They had three children as follows:

1. Lois Irene 4Kimsey (William 3, Joseph C.2, John1) was born 9 May 1873 and grew to womanhood. When her father was elected as county clerk, she assisted him in the office as deputy. At that time, she met and became acquainted with a struggling lawyer from Columbia City, IN who came to Angola to attend to court matters.

In September of 1895, Lois Kimsey made out her own marriage license and they were married by the Rev. R.E. Knopf, Congregational minister at the Kimsey home in Salem Center on Oct. 2. It was a small family wedding with both sets of her grandparents present, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Kimsey and Mr. and Mrs. John Dole. After partaking of the banquet provided for this occasion, they left for a wedding trip to the east and south. On returning, they made their home in Columbia City.

2. Wallace D.4 Kimsey married Ruth Woodford and died between 1930 and 1940.

3. Morton Edward4 Kimsey was born 7 May 1889 and was an office manager of the Arizona Public Service Company. He died in Jan of 1974 in Scottsdale Arizona, at the age of 85 years.

2. Evans3 Kimsey, who died at 4 months of age.

3. Thomas Brenton3 Kimsey, who died at 4 months of age.

4. Joseph Elmer3 Kimsey, who died at 7 months of age.

5. Sarah Catherine3 Kimsey, who died 6 Jan 1859, age 4 years.

- 6.&7. A set of infant twins, that are buried in Block Cem.

8. Nancy Ellen3 Kimsey, was born 6 Nov 1859 and married the 6 Nov 1879 to Franklin Thomas Dole, son of John and Susana (Kirkwood) Dole, who was born in 1858. Frank Dole was a carpenter for many years, then he became a merchant, county treasurer, and owner of a canning business. Franklin Dole died in 1948 and Nancy died on 30 Apr 1938, both are buried in Circle Hill Cemetery, Angola, Indiana. They had four children:

1. William Earl4 Dole was born 28 Apr 1883 and married Edna Cowen, a daughter of Elmer and Francis Latson Cowen. She was born on 23 Jul 1882 and she died in 1972. .

2. Floyd J. Dole was born 3 Jul 1887, married Mamie Snyder and died in May of 1969.

3. Cora Mildred Dole was born 21 May 1890 and married Wayne McKillen, who was born 28 May 1890. She died 15 Jul 1986 and he on 15 Feb 1947.

4. Lewis Pyrl Dole was born 20 Mar 1897 and died 13 Jan 1957.

9. Mary Cora3 Kimsey was born in 1869 and married 8 Jan 1891 to George H. Parker, who was born in 1867. They lived in South Bend, Indiana and Columbus, Ohio for many years. George died in 1944 and Mary died 10 Nov 1937, both are buried in Block Cemetery, Salem Township, Steuben County, Indiana. They had at least two children,

1. Lois Berniece4 Parker married Emmett Knorr.

2. Morton K. Parker.

And Now The Rest Of The Story----

The struggling lawyer from Columbia City, that married Lois 4 Kimsey was Thomas R. Marshall, only child of Dr. Daniel and Martha A. (Patterson) Marshall. He was born in North Manchester, IN on 14 Mar 1854, graduated from Wabash College in 1873 and was admitted to the Columbia City Bar in 1875. He became Governor of the State of Indiana from 1909-1913 and then was elected the 28th Vice-President of the United States, under President Woodrow Wilson, from 1913-1921. He enjoyed much popularity, becoming known for his humorous remarks. In 1917, during a Senate debate and a long speech by Senator Joe Bristow of Kansas on the needs of the country, Marshall turned to a clerk and said: "What this country needs is a good 5-cent cigar." After his term in office ended in 1921, he returned to private life and a steady stream of lecture appearances, delighting audiences across the country with his wit.

Thomas Marshall died of a heart attack on 1 Jun 1925 in the Willard Hotel in Washington D.C. Mrs. Marshall was a gracious, capable assistant and mentor to her husband. After his death, she made her home in Phoenix, Arizona, where she died on 6 Jan 1958. Both Thomas and Lois Marshall are buried in Crown Hill Mausoleum, Indianapolis, Indiana.

33. Franklin James³ Latson (James J.², William¹) was born December 23, 1855 in Auburn, DeKalb County, IN, and died September 26, 1937 in Jackson, MI. He married Margaret C. (Maggie) Sigler June 03, 1885 in St. Joseph Co., Sturgis, MI. She was born 1861, and died 1940.

Notes for Franklin James Latson: He is in the 1860 Union Twp. census. He is 4.

He is in the 1870 Union Twp. census with the rest of his family. James is 51, Charlotte 48, William A., 24, Hariet 20, Franklin 14, Frances 14, Joel 12, and Alda 8.

April 23, 1896 Thursday, Auburn Courier, "Frank Latson is moving to Michigan."

In the Aug. 13, 1915 The Butler Weekly Record, "Frank Latson and family are here from Jackson, Mich., visiting his brother, Tode (Joel) and his many friends. It has been seventeen years since they left Butler and the city has so changed that he didn't know his old home on West Main St. When he left, many houses were empty and hadn't seen a coat of paint for ten years. Now our residences are pretty well kept up and the streets are paved and sewered. He says he lives in Jackson where the penitentiary is and he thought he had better come home and let his friends know that he wasn't staying there all the time because he had to."

Children of Franklin Latson and Margaret Sigler are:

- | | | | |
|---|-----|------|---|
| + | 118 | i. | Mildred Muriel ⁴ Latson. |
| + | 119 | ii. | Ruth Velma Latson. |
| | 120 | iii. | Trevor James Latson, born December 29, 1892 in Butler, IN; died in prob. NY. He married Georgia Roemmelt; born 1897; died 1963. |

Notes for Trevor James Latson: His name could be Treavor, unless there was another son. In the Butler Record, November 1912, "Treavor Latson, son of Frank Latson was here the first of the week visiting his uncle "Tode" and his cousins." According to the family history of Latson found in Indianapolis, it confirmed his name is Trevor. It also says he is buried in Woola=== Cemetery, Elmira, NY

34. Joel Henry³ Latson (James J.², William¹) was born March 1858 in IN, and died July 07, 1943 in Angola, IN. He married May/Mary Minnie Wyatt October 14, 1883 in Auburn, IN, daughter of Nathan Wyatt and Mary Gibson. She was born May 1865 in IN, and died 1946.

Notes for Joel Henry Latson: Information from marriage records of DeKalb County. It said Joel was a barber.

In the 1870 Union Twp. census he is shown with his family. He is 12. James is 51, Charlotte 48, William A., 24, Hariet 20, Franklin 14, Frances 14, Joel 12, and Alda 8.

1920 Pleasant Twp, Steuben County, Indiana, "Joel Latson 62, May 54, Guy 25, James 21, Fred, 19, and Beulah 17."

Jan. 10, 1889 Thursday, The Waterloo Press, "Mr. Latson the barber, buried his little child last Sabbath; it had only been sick a day or two."

In the November 26, 1896 Friday, The Butler Record, "Joe Latson says he only promised to let his whiskers grow but is under no obligation to quit shaving them off. It is a good thing to be small in stature occasionally so as to be able to crawl out of a small hole."

Feb. 28, 1902 Butler Record, "Joe Latson will move his barber shop into the rooms over the Morse & Co. store, formerly occupied by Dr. Fanning. Tode will put in some new furniture and a bath room in the back room. This will make him the nicest rooms in town."

In the March 14, 1902 Butler Record, "Tode Latson moved his barber shop into the rooms in the Sattison block formerly occupied by Dr. Fanning. Tode will put in some new furniture and probably a bath tub so that he will have one of the best shops in town."

In the Sept. 12, 1902 Butler Record, "Coz Altenburg while at Joe Latson's barber shop last week asked for a daily newspaper. He was cited to the table and told that the Plain Dealer was there. He picked up a paper and after reading a while said "that is a democrat lie," after reading a little longer he said, "that is another democratic lie," no republican would write such stuff as that." Mr. Latson then ask him what he had, and upon investigation it proved to the the Butler Record. We welcome our neighbor to the democratic party. We presume the type trust, the paper trust, and the stogie trust has opened his eyes.--Butler Herald. We can hardly respond to the Welcome above extended except to recognize the intimation it contains that in order to be eligible we must be a good liar. However, the article Mr. Altenberg was reading on our inside pages and was a war reminiscence written by an old soldier and of course the Herald does not want to intimate that an old soldier would lie when relating his army experience."

I might have Joel attached to the wrong James Latson. Will check later. He is 12 and he is living with them. I don't know what happened to him in the 1860 census when he was two because he didn't show up there. This is the right one....

Jan. 18, 1900, The Auburn Courier, "J. J. Latson was here a while yesterday. Just now he is making his home with his son, Toad Latson, in Butler. He reports that Mrs. Andy Baxter is in Toledo with her daughter Mrs. Rilla Duncan. His son Will, is with, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Plum at Waterloo and in very poor health."

In the 1900 Wilmington Twp, DeKalb Co., IN census, "Joel is 42, Mary 35, Arthur, 15, Ethel 13, Harry 10, Mary 7, Guy 5, James, 3, and another baby boy was just born in May 1900."

In the Sept. 12, 1902 Butler Record, "Coz Altenburg while at Joe Latson's barber shop last week asked for a daily newspaper. He was cited to the table and told that the Plain Dealer was there. He picked up a paper and after reading a while said "that is a democrat lie," after reading a little longer he said, "that is another democratic lie," no republican would write such stuff as that." Mr. Latson then ask him what he had, and upon investigation it proved to the the Butler Record. We welcome our neighbor to the democratic party. However, the article Mr. Altenberg was reading on our inside pages and was a war reminiscence written by an old soldier and of course the Herald does not want to intimate that an old soldier would lie when relating his army experience."

May 11, 1903, The Butler Record, "A new industry has sprung up in Butler, Tode Latson is manufacturing croquet mallits for the professional players in town. We would wonder if his skill were known that he would son gain a wide reputation."

In the July 10, 1903 Butler Record, it shows Joel is a member of a team. It says, "Ball Game The east and west side will play a ball game next Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30 at the ball park. Small admission will be charged at the gate for the benefit of the band. The players will be as follows: West side, J. J. Oberlin, G. W. Geddes, J. Latson, F. L. Farnsworth, Thomas Rudd, Wm. Oberlin, L. H. Higley, Wm. Holtzberg, W. H. Marsh. East Side: Wm. Mutzfield, Wes Husselman, O. H. Downey, E. L. Fosdick, Mr. Gilbert, W. S. Maxwell, W. C. Webster, A. Fulmer, H. L. Tess...Supplies to fill the place of cripples and no good players. E. P. Masters, J. C. Brown, Will Capp, Chas. Madden, Chas. Hiner, Dr. Shumaker, Eli Mutzfeld, Ed May, A. J. Price, Wm. Elden."

In the Oct. 21, 1904 Butler Record, "Mrs. Fannie Cowen, of Angola, is caring for her aged father, James Latson at the home of J. H. Latson. "

Butler Record, Feb. 23, 1907, Friday, "Joe Latson will move his barber shop into the Hamilton building on Oak Street soon. Miss McDonald will use the room Mr. Latson had for her trimming room to her millinery."

April 19, 1907, Butler Record, "Joe Latson has put up a new barber sign in front of his shop on Oak Street that is very appropriate for him. It represents him exactly---short, stubby, very bright and sensational."

In the May 7, 1909, Butler paper, "Tode Latson moved once when he didn't move. They picked up his barber shop, building and all and moved it over onto the corner of Broadway and Main street."

Feb. 25, 1910, The Butler Weekly Record, "Tode Latson wants to know whether we have taken upon ourselves, since he is about to leave, the populating of the town. No indeed, we can't promise a new one each year."

March 18, 1910, The Butler Weekly Record, "IN HONOR OF TOAD On last Monday evening about a dozen friends gathered in the New Process laundry in honor of J. H. Latson, who will soon depart for the wilds of Michigan. A general good time was enjoyed by those present until about 10 p.m., when a sumptuous banquet was served. Dr. Frank Fanning was chosen as toast master. After the toasts, Mr. John D. Mitchell in behalf of the friends in a few well chosen remarks presented mr. Latson with a very nice present, after which in departing each wished him success in his new home."

July 21, 1911, The Butler Record, "Joel Latson spent Thursday in Auburn. Mr. Latson was present at the laying of the corner stone for the old court house and had a special invitation to be present at the laying of the corner stone for the new building."

In the Butler, March 14, 1913, "Mrs. Roy Johnson and daughter, Gertrude visited last week with her sister, Mrs. Guy Griffith and family at Toledo."

April 4, 1913, The Butler Record, "Mrs. Guy Griffith and three children and Guy Latson of Toledo, visited over Sunday with their parents, J. H. Latson and family."

Aug 21, 1914, The Butler Record, "Mrs Caroline Walden of Tustin, Mich., who has been visiting her cousin, J. H. Latson and family for the past week has gone to Auburn where she is visiting relatives."

Sept. 25, 1914, The Butler Record, "Harry Latson of Lima, O. is visiting his parents, J. H. Latson and family."

May 7, 1915, The Butler Record, "Tode Latson is now barbering in the Tomlinson shop, in the room formerly occupied by the First National Bank. Tode is one of the best barbers in Butler."

March 24, 1916, "Mrs. J. H. Latson and two sons, Guy and James spent Monday night and Tuesday in Angola, the guests of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Fannie Cowen."

June 30, 1916, Friday, The Butler Weekly Record, "Mrs. J. H. Latson and daughter Buelah of Angola returned home Saturday after a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Johnson and family."

In a 1916 paper, it says "J. H. Latson, wife and three children, Fred, James, and Beulah left Wednesday for Angola where they expect to make their future home."

Feb. 2, 1917, The Butler Record, "Mrs. J. H. Latson of Angola spent a couple days last week with her daughter Mrs. Roy Johnson and family."

Oct. 5, 1917, The Butler Record, Friday, "Last Sunday the following Butler people took their pot luck dinner and went to the home of J. H. Latson at Angola, and spent the day; Sherman Robinett and wife, Miss Fern Robinett, Ray Treman and wife, Mrs. Francis Treman, Brown Mumaw and wife, John Mickey and wife, George Crawford and wife, George Swift and wife and grandson, Russel Sewel, Mrs. Wm. Richard and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Nettie Knepper and son

Paul, Mrs. Caroline Devore and son Lineal, Mrs. Hattie Campbell, Ernest Olds, wife and daughter Catherine, Miss Georgia Good, Wallace Knepper, Eli Stark and wife, Fred Pifer, wife and daughter Louise, and Dan Tomlinson, wife and daughter Orpha."

Nov. 23, 1917, The Butler Record, Friday, "Mrs. Harry Latson and baby of Percell, Okla., who has been spending the week in Butler with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Roy Johnson and family left Sunday evening for Angola to visit her mother-in-law Mrs. J. H. Latson and family. J. H. Latson accompanied her to Angola."

Sept. 13, 1918, "Mrs. Joel Latson and son James of Angola, Josephine Wyatt of Elkhart came to Butler Sunday evening and spent a couple of days with the formers daughter Mrs. Roy Johnson and family. They were enroute home from Liberty Center, Ohio where they were called to attend the funeral of a sister Mrs. Jennie Minnie, better known to Butler residents as Jennie Wyatt."

He died of congestion according to the death records of Steuben County, IN.

In a notebook at the library, "Mr. J. H. Latson was born in Auburn, Ind., in 1858, being the son of J. J. Latson, one of the early settlers of DeKalb County. He came to Butler in 1882, entering into a partnership in the barber business with his brother whose interest he purchased soon after, and has conducted a tonsorial parlor here ever since. He is know to his intimate friends as "Toad, the Barber." His close attention to business and careful painstaking work has won for a him a large patronage. He is the father of eleven children, eight of whom are living and well and hearty. He has taken first premium at most of our street carnivals with his babies, always having an infant of the proper age at the right time to draw the prize. Mr. Latson is a good citizen and enjoys the respect of all, being an enthusiastic worker in the local Maccabee lodge and a member of the Lutheran Church."

July 7, 1943, The Steuben Republican, "JOEL LATSON DEAD AT ADVANCED AGE Joel Latson, aged 85, died early Wednesday morning in the Cameron Hospital, where he had been a patient since Sunday; Mr. Latson, who was widely known in the community as "Toad," had been in failing health for the past several months. He came to Angola twenty-four years ago, from Auburn, his birthplace, and engaged in the barbering business. He had followed his trade of barber for fifty-eight years, retiring only a few years ago from active business. Surviving are, the wife, Mrs. May Latson, two daughters, Mrs. Roy Johnson of Hanna, Mrs. Gale Hanna, of Angola; three sons, Arthur Latson, Chief Boatswain's Mate in the United States Navy stationed at Seattle, Wash., Fred Latson of San Francisco, Calif. / and Harry Latson of Hanna; twenty-one grandchildren, and twelve great grandchildren. The body is at the Weicht Funeral Home where funeral arrangements are being completed."

Notes for May/Mary Minnie Wyatt: Her parents are Nathan and Mary A. (Gibson) Wyatt. They are buried in the Butler cemetery.

In the 1900 Wilmington Twp, DeKalb Co., IN census, "Joel is 42, Mary 35, Arthur, 15, Ethel 13, Harry 10, Mary 7, Guy 5, James, 3, and another baby boy was just born in May 1900."

In the Butler Record, Oct. 21, 1904, "Mrs. J. H. Latson and sister Jennie spent Sunday with their brother, Day Wyatt and family.

In the Butler Record, July 24, 1908, "Mr. J. H. Latson was taken to the hospital at Ann Arbor, Monday, where she will undergo an operation."

I believe her middle name was Minnie or her name was Minnie May. Her name is Minnie May.

(from Catherine Martin)

May 26, 1911, The Butler Record, "Mrs. J. H. Latson was called to Toledo, Tuesday on account of the serious illness of her little granddaughter, Pauline Griffith."

Dec. 10, 1931, The Butler Record, Thursday

James J. Latson, son of J. H. and May M. Latson, was born June 2, 1897, at the home of his parents in Butler, Indiana. He attended the public school there and as a student enjoyed such robust health and was so well developed physically, that he was a leader in baseball and was considered the best football player in school, serving as captain of the team. He was a member of the Butler band and at the same time an enthusiastic member of the local unit of the boy scouts of America. He had attended Sunday School at St. Marks Evangelical Lutheran church from childhood and at fifteen years of age he united with this church at Butler. His parents moved with their family to Angola, Ind., in May of 1916. In the following June he enlisted in Company K of the Third Regiment, Indiana National Guard. He was but seventeen years of age and his mother would not give her consent to his enlistment except he enter the service as a musician. He secured the position as alto horn player, winning over five others in a contest for the place. His first service with his regiment was for eight months on the border of Mexico. When the regiment was mustered into the Federal Army in 1917 for service in the World War he along with the other members of his company, received the regular injections of serum for inoculation against diseased, at Auburn, Ind. As a result of this operation he fell in a spasm of pain as he walked across the court house lawn. His comrade assisted him to their barracks and that night he suffered ten of these dreadful spasm in rapid succession. This was the beginning of the affliction which has continued for fourteen years. He spent several months in the government hospital at Camp Harrison at Indianapolis, finally received his discharge and came home to receive the loving care of his parents. Following an examination in a hospital in Fort Wayne, the expert authorities there decided the needle used in the injection of serum had punctured a nerve in his back in such a manner as to cause epilepsy. Soon after the authorities in a hospital in Cincinnati gave practically the same decision. He has been in hospitals thirty nine times and has undergone fourteen different operations. The government finally granted him a total disability pension in 1922, sent him to Notre Dame for a two-year course and received his diploma but was unable to hold a position of to make practical use of what he had learned because of his affliction. His sufferings finally became so intense they were unbearable and his case came to its final desperate extremity as he was taken to the Lutheran hospital in Fort Wayne on Wednesday, Nov. 25. The doctors told him he had only about one chance to recover against many to die. He replied, "I would rather die in this attempt to get well than to live on and suffer as I have done. I will take the chance." The dangerous operation was performed on Saturday. He rallied only for a short time and passed away on Sunday, Nov. 29, at 12:30, aged 34 years, five months and 22 days. Two brothers and one sister preceded him in death. There survive, of his immediate family, beside his sorrowing parents, four brothers; Art of Bemington, Wash., Harry of Healdton, Oklahoma, Guy of Angola, and Fred of San Pedro, Cal. Three sisters also survive him; Mrs. Ethel Hanna of Angola, Mrs. Mary Johnson of Butler, Mrs. Beulah Brooks of Angola; also fourteen nieces, eight nephews and one great nephew, besides other relatives, neighbors, and friends who will remember him as a loving and generous hearted son and brother, and a true soldier who made the supreme sacrifice as surely as if he suffered and died on "Flanders Field." Funeral services were conducted at the Weicht funeral parlors in Angola and at the Lutheran church in-----at 1:00 and 2:00 p.m. respectively by Eld. J. O. Rose. The Angola unit of the American Legion attended both services and gave him full military honors in their beautiful and impressive burial service."

Generation No. 4

41. Mary E.⁴ Walsworth (William J.³, Mary Ann² Latson, William¹) was born December 07, 1854 in IN, and died February 19, 1902 in North Van Buren St., Auburn, IN. She married Cyrus C. Boyer June 09, 1882.

Notes for Mary E. Walsworth: She is in the 1860 Union Twp., DeKalb Co., IN census.

In her obituary in the Auburn Courier, Feb. 27, 1902, "Mary E. Boyer, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walsworth was born near Auburn, Ind. Feb. Dec. 7, 1854, and died at her home on North Van Buren Street Auburn, Ind., Feb. 19, 1902 at 6 o'clock p.m., aged 47 years, 2 months, and 12 days. She was married Cyrus C. Boyer, June 9, 1882. To this union two children were given, a son Carey and a daughter Nellie. In her girlhood she was converted at Waterloo, Ind., under the ministry of Rev. W. H. Daniel, now Presiding Elder of Fort Wayne District. She at once united with the Methodist Episcopal church and was baptized by Rev. C. W. church. She as devoted to the church and as long as her health would at all permit she was found in her place sometimes indeed when really unfit to leave her home. She was a member of the Rebekah Lodge and one of the Ladies Literary Club of Auburn, and was much beloved in these societies. She was a devoted mother and her chief care was for her children. She was anxious to live for their sake, but finding she could not she committed them and herself to God and peacefully passed away. A good neighbor, a devoted mother, and a dutiful Daughter has passed within the vale, leaving, son and daughter, father and mother, and brother with a host of friends to weep over their loss. But earth's loss is her gain. The family of the deceased, including all, wish to express their gratitude and thankfulness for assistance and sympathy in their late bereavement. Your kindness will not be forgotten."

Notes for Cyrus C. Boyer: Information from Mary E. Boyer's obituary.

From the History of DeKalb County, "Cyrus C. Boyer, section 20, Franklin Township, is a native of the township, born July 2, 1848, a son of Joseph and Sarah (Jackman) Boyer. Joseph Boyer was born in Stark County, Ohio, Sept. 1, 1821, and in 1836 came to DeKalb County with his father, Peter Boyer, who entered 160 acres of land on section 17, Franklin Township. He was a man of fine business qualities, and by good management and strict adherence to business, he became one of the most wealthy and influential men of the township. He died March 9, 1881. Cyrus C. Boyer is the third of eight children. He received a fair education, such as the schools of Auburn, Waterloo, and Angola could afford. With exception of six years spent in study and in business, in Waterloo, he has always devoted his attention to agriculture and stock-raising. He has a large farm in a high state of cultivation and fully stocked with improved breeds of cattle, sheep and swine. Mr. Boyer was married June 9, 1881, to Mary E. Walsworth, daughter of William J. Walsworth, a pioneer of DeKalb County, now a resident of Union Township. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer have two children - Carey W. and Nellie W."

Marriage Notes for Mary Walsworth and Cyrus Boyer:

Children of Mary Walsworth and Cyrus Boyer are:

- + 137 i. Carey W.⁵ Boyer, born September 26, 1882 in Waterloo, IN; died Bet. 1967 - 1968 in Warsaw, IN.
- 138 ii. Nellie Boyer, born August 18, 1884.

Notes for Nellie Boyer: Information from William J. Walsworth's obituary.

In the Auburn Courier, January 26, 1905, "Miss Nellie Boyer came up from South Whitley Thursday, and is expecting to go to New York City, next week. She is here for a good by visit with her many friends." Miss Nellie Boyer returned to South Whitley this forenoon, and will proceed to pack up and get ready to go to New York City. A large number of Auburn friends who have watched her success so far will keep up a deep interest in her future in the new field. We wish her abundant success." Also, "Miss Nellie Boyer started this afternoon from South Whitley, on her eastern trip, going as far as Cleveland over the Nickel Plate road. There will be sad partings at South Whitley with the young people, with whom she has been associated in the Atoz office so long, and a still greater number will miss her in Auburn. but her change in location brings a promotion in work and in wages, and we all believe she is making a wise move."

In the Waterloo Press, August 5, 1897, "Cary and Nellie Boyer are the proud possessors of a new wheel - a gift from papa."

In the birth records of DeKalb County, it says that a female infant was born to Cyrus C. and Mary Walsworth Aug. 18, 1884. I got the birth date of the other daughter off of the gravestone so I presume this is the daughter that was born in 1884.

42. Amos B.⁴ Walsworth (William J.³, Mary Ann² Latson, William¹) was born September 30, 1856 in DeKalb County, IN, and died February 01, 1906. He married Carrie Bassett August 02, 1881. She was born May 1860 in IN, and died Aft. 1906.

Notes for Amos B. Walsworth: He is in the 1860 census of Union Twp., DeKalb Co., and he is 4.

In the 1880 Union twp, DeKalb Co, IN census, it says he is 22 (He is living at home) and he is also a teacher.

He and his family are in the 1900 Union Twp. census. Amos is 44, Carrie is 40, Ona is 16, Ida is 15, Charles is 12, and Duane is 10.

In the Waterloo Press, Feb. 14, 1884, "Amos Walsworth of Union township, was in town one day last week, and looked so pleased that we ventured to inquire the cause of his smiles. He said it was a girl, and weighed eight and one-half pounds. We both smiled."

Sept. 16, 1886, Waterloo Press, "Mr. Amos Walsworth, son-in-law of Charles Bassett, is making a prospecting tour through Kansas."

In the Oct. 16, 1902 Thursday Auburn Courier, "A.B. Walsworth's Stock Farm A. B. Walsworth, living on the Postal Telegraph road, four miles east of Auburn, has been breeding full-blood Shropshire sheep and Shorthorn cattle for the past sixteen years. During that time he has shown at the principal county fairs of this state and Ohio, winning a fair share of the prizes. His Shorthorns are headed by "English Chief," a son of the "Imported Mystic Archer." He has been using an imported ram in his flock of Shropshires for the past three years, resulting in a flock that he has a right to be proud of, and is paying him good money. His cattle at the Wabash Combination sale last September brought the highest price of any offered. He has demonstrated that it costs the farmer no more to raise a calf that will sell for from $75 to $150 than it does to raise one that will only bring from $10 to $15. He has at all times young stock for sale and his guarantee is as good as the bank."

In the Dec. 26, 1903 Butler Records, it mentions, "Amos Walsworth will have a sale of his personal property east of Auburn, Dec. 29. Shortly after the sale he will go to Oklahoma, Texas, New, and Old Mexico in quest of a location."

May 3, 1904, The Waterloo Press, "A card from Amos B. Walsworth, dated Enid, Okla. Feb. 22, says "I have located here and of course will want THE PRESS. I have located in the best part of the Territory and have bought the best farm in the locality. Enid is a great railroad center and one can go from here on ten different lines. The population is about 13,000. My health is much better than when I came here, and I think that in time I will fully recover. Farmers have their spring plowing all done and will sow oats next week."

The subject of this obituary was born in DeKalb county, Indiana, Sept. 30, 1856, being the only son of William and Elizabeth Walsworth. He was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Bassett, August 2, 1881. To them were born five children, one of who has deceased. Brother Walsworth's father died July 26, 1902, and sister February 19, 1902. Of his immediate family the mother, his wife and four children survive. He was converted in 1883 and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Norris chapel in this county. For four years his health has shown evidence of a breakdown. Resorting to every means to preserve his health and strength, with other available means, he removed to Enid, Ok., two years ago. Two months were spent in California but in vain. He returned to Enid, and with perfect christian resignation, having made every arrangement and was preparation for departure, he laid down the cares of life and went to his reward on the other side. He died at 10:10 o'clock February 1, 1906. The disease was tuberculosis of the throat. The mother, his widow and two children, Ida and Charles, were present at the funeral services. Mr. Walsworth's business was extensive and brought him in contact with a wide circle of business relations. His friends were numerous, and extended as widely as his business activities. His integrity as a true christian gentleman was characteristic of all his dealings. He has laid aside the active duties of life to enter upon the reward of the faithful in the home beyond. The remains were viewed by many friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Sheffer, on Indiana Avenue, and were attended by a large congregation of sympathizing friends. Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist church in Auburn, by the pastor Rev. M. A. Harlan on Monday, February 5. Interment was made in Woodlawn in charge of G. S. McCord, undertaker."

Griffith of Toledo, who was terribly burned with hot taffy last week, while visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Latson, was taken suddenly worse Tuesday, the severe shock causing spasms. She is better at this writing."

In the Butler paper, April 9, 1915, it says, "Mrs. Wm. DeVore entertained Mrs. G. C. Griffith and three children, Edna, Pauline, and Lila Margaret of Toledo and little Miss Fern Robbins to six-o'clock dinner on Thursday evening."

May 21, 1915, The Butler Record, "Pauline Louise, the daughter of Guy and Ethel Griffith, of Toledo, Ohio, was born September 29, 1910 and passed away May 15, 1915, aged 4 years, 7 months, and 16 days. This is the fourth visitation of the death angel in this home, the last one being but three months ago. And this little one, just as she was budding out into days of usefulness, is called away. Two sisters are left in the home. Surviving are the parents, the grandparents, J. H. Latson, and wife of Butler and Aaron Griffith, of Corunna and a number of other relatives. Death is no respecter of persons. The little one, just at the beginning of life, is taken away, while the grey haired are left. God alone in his wisdom can know why the children so early are called to pass from time to eternity. But "he doeth all things well," and into his care we may commit our loved ones, awaiting that day when all, young as well as old, shall be gathered around the throne of God in heaven. The funeral service was held Monday at 2:00 p.m. at the home of Roy Johnson, Rev. Gardner officiating. Burial in Butler cemetery."

Another source said she died in 1910 but obviously the above information cancels that out. Information from the Aaron P. Griffith and Raymond Alfred Griffith family biographies in the 1837-1987 DeKalb County History Books.

- v. Wilma Marie Griffith, born November 07, 1914; died February 17, 1915.

Notes for Wilma Marie Griffith: In the Butler Record, Feb. 26, 1915, "Wilma Marie, infant daughter of Guy and Ethel Griffith of Toledo, Ohio, was born on the 7th of November, died February 17, aged three months and ten days. Twice before has death invaded this family and taken a little one home, and this third visitation is an added grief to those who hoped to oversee and enjoy the childhood and youth of a loved one. Three sisters, beside the parents, survive, also the grand-parents, J. H. Latson and wife of Butler, and Aaron Griffith of Corunna, and a number of other relatives. Few were the days of this little rose-bud in the home of her parents. Like a little flower she blossomed, but to fall before an early frost. As the grass of the field so is life, for to-day we are and tomorrow we are gone. As for this little one, we have confidence in Him Who took infants in His arms and blessed them, and Who said, "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." The funeral service was held Friday at 10:30 A. M. at the home of Roy Johnson, Rev. Gardner officiating; burial in Butler cemetery."

Johnson who was employed as a Pennsylvania railroad freight agent here several years ago, died last Wednesday afternoon in the Holy Family hospital at La Porte. The Johnson home was at Hanna where Mr. Johnson has been agent for the Pennsylvania for the past 11 years. Mrs. Johnson was 58. Her death was attributed to complications. The body was brought to the Johnson funeral home where services were held Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. E. C. Reidenbach, pastor of the Butler E. U. B. church, officiating. Burial was made in Butler cemetery. Mrs. Johnson was born in Butler on Feb. 10, 1893 to Joel and Mary Latson, and her entire life, except the last 11 years, was lived in Butler. On August 14, 1910 she was united in marriage to Roy H. Johnson, and they were the parents of two daughters. Surviving besides the husband are two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Slentz of Fort Wayne and Mrs. Catherine Snyder of Toledo; eight grandchildren; three brothers, Arthur Latson of San Francisco and Harry Latson of Harrison, Ark.; and a sister Ethel Hanna of Angola. Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Butler temple of Pythian Sisters and a past chief of the organization."

Nov. 3, 1916, The Buter Record, "Mrs. Roy Johnson and two children returned home Saturday from Angola where they have been visiting her parents, J. H. Latson and family."

Sept. 18, 1952, The Record-Herald of Butler, Thursday, "ROY JOHNSON, HANNA, DIES AT AGE OF 64 YEARS Roy H. Johnson, 64, of Hanna, Ind., formerly of Butler, died in the Holy Family Hospital, LaPorte, on September 3, of a heart ailment, following a 17-day illness. Funeral services were held at the Johnson funeral home in Butler on Sept. 7, with the Rev. E. C. Reidenbach, pastor of the Butler E.U.B. church officiating. Burial was made in the Butler cemetery beside his wife who proceeded him in death less than one year. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Slentz of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Catherine Snyder of Toledo; also one brother, Bert Johnson of Carlsbad, Cali. Mr. Johnson was born in Butler to Mr. & Mrs. David Johnson. He was raised on a farm two miles west of the city, and attended Butler high school. Mr. Johnson had worked for the Pennsylvania railroad for more than 30 years. He was to have retired next March. The most of this time he worked as freight clerk and agent in Auburn and Butler. However he was transferred to Hanna about 12 years ago. Mr. Johnson was active in the K. of P. lodge, having been Chancellor Commander of the Butler lodge. He was also a member of the local Masonic lodge."

He went out west with a brother and had a restaurant. The town is famous for rodeos.

He was raised by Sarah Jane Johnson and Eli Deems of Butler.

137. Carey W.⁵ Boyer (Mary E.⁴ Walsworth, William J.³, Mary Ann² Latson, William¹) was born September 26, 1882 in Waterloo, IN, and died Bet. 1967 - 1968 in Warsaw, IN. He married (1) Fern Keckler/Cackler. She was born 1888, and died 1936. He married (2) Agnes Shannon Mock July 14, 1944.

Notes for Carey W. Boyer: Information from William J. Walsworth's obituary.

In the Waterloo Press, August 5, 1897, "Cary and Nellie Boyer are the proud possessors of a new wheel - a gift from papa."

Auburn Courier, Aug. 12, 1897 "Almost Got a Wheel Monday evening Carey Boyer on North VanBuren street, came home and leaned his wheel up against a tree that stands just outside the walk. Shortly after this, just as the darkness was fairly on, Mrs. Stringham, a neighbor happened to come along and to her surprise she saw the figure of a man going toward the wheel. He took it up as if it were his own and started away, when he happened to see Mrs. Stringham, when he dropped it, and disappeared in the growing darkness. If she had happened along a minute later, Carey would have lost his wheel past all chances of finding. And it would have been a serious loss to him as he not only uses it daily to deliver DAILY COURIERS, but for many other trips he has to make. His sister, Nellie also, uses it freely, along every day, and had it been taken it would be almost like a teamster losing a horse. But it all reminds us of a general carelessness as to bicycles. Go where you will over town, at stores or residences, you find these costly rigs standing carelessly at all times of day and night, for many leave them all night. The next we hear of it, some one may be out $50 or $75 by carelessness. A bicycle costs nearly as much as a horse. People lock up their stables. It will be well to see that their bicycles are safe. Carey almost sleeps with his now.

Information from Evergreen Cemetery inscription book. His tombstone says 1967 but a book that had his obituary had a note saying it was in the paper in 1968.

Mans. Harris

Charles Harris and

William Harris Exrs

Let the Testaments issued with will annexed be it remembered that on the 27th day of December 1869. The will of man Harris was duly admitted to probate in the office of the Clerk of the ^{County} Court of Common Pleas Court of DeKalb County, Indiana, by the testimony of James E. Rose one of the subscribing witnesses to said will and the testimony of two witnesses in presence of with the certificate of probate thereon in due and lawful manner and figures thereon, and with further recitals that on the 11th day of January 1870. Charles Harris and George W. Harris came into the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of DeKalb County Indiana and filed their application for letters as Executors of said will, which application is in these words and figures thereon, and said Clerk being sufficiently advised in the premises and fully satisfied that said applicants were the persons named in said will as the Executors thereof, and that they were suitable persons to administer a said said Estate, and they having filed their bond with the Surety thereon which bond is approved by said Clerk, and is in these words and figures thereon, and having taken and subscribed and filed the oath required by law, in these words and figures thereon. Letters Testamentary with the will annexed were issued to them by said Clerk in these words and figures thereon.

Will of Moses Haines Recorded December 27, 1869. J. H. Lanning Clerk.

- In the Name of the Reverend Father of all Mankind being of sound and disposing mind in view of the certainty of death and wishing to settle mine and in particular to dispose of my property after my death do make and publish this my last will and testament.
- First. It is my will that all just claims against me shall be paid out of my estate.
- Second. I will and bequeath to my wife Mary Haines the undivided one third part of my farm, it being the East half of the South East quarter of Section one (1) in Township thirty four (34) North of Range fourteen (14) East in DeKalb County in the State of Georgia and three hundred dollars out of my personal estate.
- Third. I will and bequeath to my son Charles Haines the undivided one third part of said farm as described in article second of this will.
- Fourth. It is further my will that the remaining one third part of my said farm be equally divided among and between my four daughters to wit: Jane M. Bates, Mary Reid, Celestia Horton and Laura Bennett.
- Fifth. I will and bequeath to my daughter Jane M. Bates one hundred dollars out of my personal property if there be much remaining after payment of my debts as mentioned in article first of this will and the payment of the three hundred dollars to my wife mentioned in article second of this will.
- Sixth. I will and bequeath to my son George M. Haines twenty five dollars out of my personal property if so much remains after the payment of the debts in article first, second and fifth of this will.
- Seventh. It is my will that all that may remain of my personal estate not disposed of in articles first, second, fifth and sixth of this will be equally divided among and between my four daughters mentioned in article fourth of this will and my son Charles Haines. And as I have already given to my son George M. Haines eighty acres of land, I give him nothing but the amount specified in article sixth of this will.
- Eighth. It is further my will that the bequest to my four daughters made in article fourth of this will be upon the condition that my son Charles Haines shall have the privilege of using the said third part of my farm - bequeathed to my four daughters for the term of four years from the date of my death, with the further privilege to said Charles Haines of paying to said Legatees mentioned in article fourth of this will at any time within four years from my death the value of their several shares in said farm, at the time of my death, together with six per cent interest thereon from the time of my death until paid, and on payment to them of said amount their shares of said farm or the shares of so many of them as the said Charles Haines shall by that time have paid as provided in this article shall be the property of and belonging to the said Charles Haines.
- Ninth. I hereby revoke all former wills by me made and constitute and appoint my sons Charles Haines and George M. Haines Executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal and acknowledged this as my last will and testament, this 13 day of December, A.D. 1869.

Moses Haines.

Signed and acknowledged by Moses Haines as his last will and testament, in our presence and signed by us in his presence. James E. Rose, William D. Wright.

The State of Indiana DeKalb County 201

Be it remembered that on the 27th day of December 1869, James E. Rane one of the subscribing witnesses to the within and foregoing last will and testament of Morris Haines late of said County deceased personally appeared before me Joseph R. Lanning Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of DeKalb County, in the State of Indiana and being duly sworn by the Clerk of said Court upon his oath declared and testified as follows that is to say that on the 15th day of December 1869, he saw the said Morris Haines sign ^{his name to} the said instrument in writing as and for his last will and testament. And that this deponent at the same time heard the said Morris Haines declare the said instrument in writing to be his last will and testament, and that the said instrument in writing was at the same time at the request of the said Morris Haines and with his consent attested and subscribed by the said James E. Rane and William Durrell in the presence of said testator, and in the presence of each other as subscribing witnesses to such, and that the said Morris Haines was at the time of the signing and subscribing of said instrument in writing as a person of full age (that is more than twenty one years of age,) and of sound and disposing mind and memory and not under any coercion or restraint and the said deponent verily believes and swears to the foregoing.

Rane Not.

James E. Rane

Sworn to and Subscribed by the said James E. Rane before me Joseph R. Lanning Clerk of said Court at New Haven the 27th day of December 1869, In attestation whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the Seal of said Court.

Certificate to Recorder, Real Estate Devised by Will

General Code, Sec. 10528

Probate Court, Columbiana County, Ohio

To the Recorder of said County:

I hereby certify that on the 31 day of January, A. D. 1917, the last will and testament of John W. Copeland, late of said County, was duly admitted to probate in this Court, and the same has been duly recorded in vol. 32 page of the Record of Wills in this office.

That by the terms of said will certain real estate was devised to Charles O. Ramsey and Frank P. Ramsey.

That the following is a description of said real estate such as is contained in the will, to-wit:*

(Here describe said Real Estate in the language of the Will and if not specific, such as would be necessary in making a deed, then after giving said description, say "The following is a specific description of said real estate," and describe it accordingly.)

To Charles O. Ramsey: Item II. I give and devise to my nephew Charles O. Ramsey the twenty five acre tract of land I now own and which is situated in the north east quarter of section three of said Franklin Township in said county and state.

To Frank P. Ramsey: Item III. I give and devise to my nephew Frank P. Ramsey the two undivided shares owned by me in the old Copeland home farm situated in the north west Quarter of section two of said Franklin Township in said county and state, and the personal property and effects belonging to me at my death, subject to the provisions hereafter specified in this will.

Item IV. It is my will and I so devise that out of the personal property and effects devised to my nephew in Item III. the funeral expenses, just debts, and the costs of a monument which last shall be two hundred dollars, shall be first paid by my executor hereinafter named, and said devise of personalty shall be subject to the further provision, - that after paying expenses monument and other things provided in this item, if the surplus when added to the undivided two shares set forth in Item III, shall

* If there are several parcels devised separately to different persons write the word "To" and give the name of the devisee of the first parcel before describing it. And then follow similarly with the next devisee and his parcel, and so on.

JOHN W. Copeland

be in excess of the fair value of the twenty five acre tract devised to Charles O. Ramsey, then such excess shall be equally divided between said Charles O. Ramsey and Frank P. Ramsey, it being my intention to make the share of each as near equal as may be.

Item V. I further will and devise that the devisees above named shall take care of and provide a home for their mother Jennie Ramsey and their Aunt Mary Copeland during the lives of the said Jennie Ramsey and Mary Copeland if they shall so long remain single and unmarried, and in the event of either of said parties marrying, then the duty of said devisees to take care of and furnish a home as aforesaid shall cease. Above devisees made conditioned with the provisions of this item. And while not unmindful that I have other kin, I make within devisees as I do from the intimate association of care for these devisees, and the attention each have given me.

Lindesmith Monument Records Pioneer Day

War Heroes Are Buried Near Lisbon

By Janie S. Jenkins

On a grassy knoll in a little Columbiana County churchyard are the graves of three brothers, all Revolutionary War soldiers, who have not been forgotten because the grandson of one of them made sure they would not be.

Indeed, the Rev. Eli Washington Lindesmith also made sure he himself would not be forgotten, and 22 years before his own death in 1922 had an imposing granite monument erected in St. Paul's Cemetery near Dungannon on Columbiana County Route 407.

That monument to himself is also a complete family tree and on the rear face is a plaque containing the names of all of his relatives, beginning with his paternal great-grandfather, Joseph Lindesmith, "soldier of the War of Independence."

It was 13 years after Father Lindesmith had his own monument in place that he decided to also mark the graves of his relatives.

In a now scarce history of the Bethesda Presbyterian Church, owned by Don McKarns of Summitville, is a letter dated March 3, 1913, to Thomas McKarns from Father Lindesmith. He wrote, "I am now getting a gravestone for my great-grandfather Joseph Lindesmith and his two brothers, Jacob and George. All three were Revolutionary soldiers. He is buried at Trinity Reformed Church."

Trinity Church Road winds off Route 30 five miles west of Lisbon and the white frame church, now a Friends Church, looks out upon fields of drying corn, vining bittersweet and the trunks of massive trees. Behind the church is the well-tended cemetery.

The grave stone ordered by Father Lindesmith, who was a priest at St. Philip Neri Church, Dungannon, from 1890 to 1892, is easy to find and the inscription on the bronze plaque tells not only of the Lindesmith brothers' heroism.

It reads: "Erected by Rev. E. W. J. Lindesmith, Catholic Priest Chaplain in the United States Army, Member of the Society of the War of 1812, Member Western Reserve Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, in Memory of his Great-Grandfather Joseph Lindesmith, Soldier, Bugler and Fifer in the war of the American Revolution, and Jacob and George, Brothers of Joseph, Revolutionary Soldiers."

In the same cemetery are markers for Father Lindesmith's grandfather, Daniel, who fought in the War of 1812, and for his father, Jacob, color

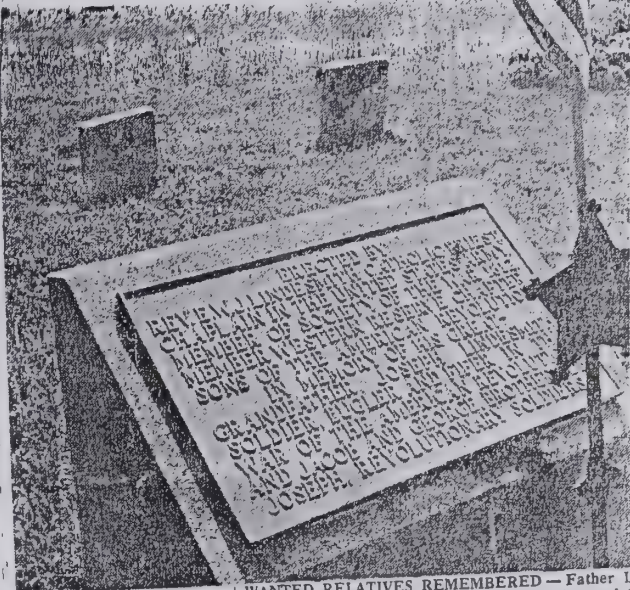

MONUMENT ERECTED BEFORE DEATH—The Rev. Eli W. J. Lindesmith, Columbiana-born priest who was a great-grandson of a Revolutionary War soldier, had this imposing monument for his own grave erected 22 years before he died. It is in St. Paul's Cemetery, not far from St. Philip of Neri Church, Dungannon, where he once served. He previously served 11 years as an Army chaplain in the Rocky Mountains during the Indian Wars.

bearer with Capt. Lucy's Troop. War of 1812. Grandnephew of two soldiers of the War 1812. Great-grandson of a soldier of the War of the Revolution of 1776. Ordained priest, July 8, 1855. Served as chaplain in the Rocky Mountains, during the Indian Wars, from June 19, 1880, to Sept. 7, 1891.

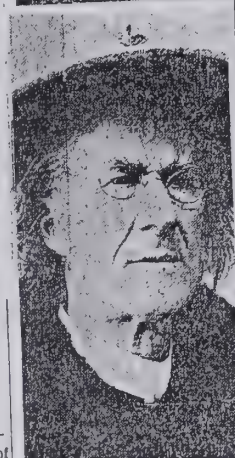

The plaque is confusing in several areas, beginning with his age when he died. The number "95," apparently ordered by the funeral director, contradicts his actual age of 94 if the death date inscribed, February 6, 1922, is accurate. The dates of his pastorate at St. Philip Neri also conflict with his record of service in the Indian Wars.

A more complete history of the Columbiana-born priest who spent 67 years in the priesthood is found in "The March of the Eucharist from 'Dungannon' Son of a volunteer soldier, written by the late Bishop James A. McFadden and pu

Place marker at grave of Revolutionary soldier

LISBON -- Members of the Lewis Kinney Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, placed a veterans' marker and flag at the grave of a Revolutionary War soldier at Trinity Friends Church Cemetery Saturday.

The ceremony followed the annual Flag Day luncheon held at the Wick Hotel and attended by 20 members and Rev. and Mrs. Paul Gerrard and Elizabeth Hurd, guests. Mrs. Elizabeth Duke is regent of the DAR.

The marker was placed at the grave of Joseph Lindesmith, who died in 1817 at the age of 66. He was a bugler and fifer, served during the entire Revolutionary War and was present at the surrender of General Cornwallis. His brothers, Jacob and George also soldiers, are buried at the same location.

Present at the ceremony were three of Joseph Lindesmith's descendants, Esther Smith, Margaret Warwick and Mrs. Hurd. Mrs. Smith gave a greeting to those attending.

The Rev. Gerrard spoke briefly about the Revolutionary War and the nation's Bicentennial which will be celebrated next year. He expressed his fear that like so many things in this country the celebration will go commercial and urged the DAR members to try to instill in others reverence and respect for the history of this

Marked in STONE

Just three weeks, Americans will be celebrating Memorial Day — the day we remember not only our ancestors and friends, but those who gave their lives that we might live in freedom.

Many cemeteries throughout Columbiana County are rich with the history of this area and families proudly proclaim those who are veterans. The cemeteries in the Dunganon area especially provide an interesting visit.

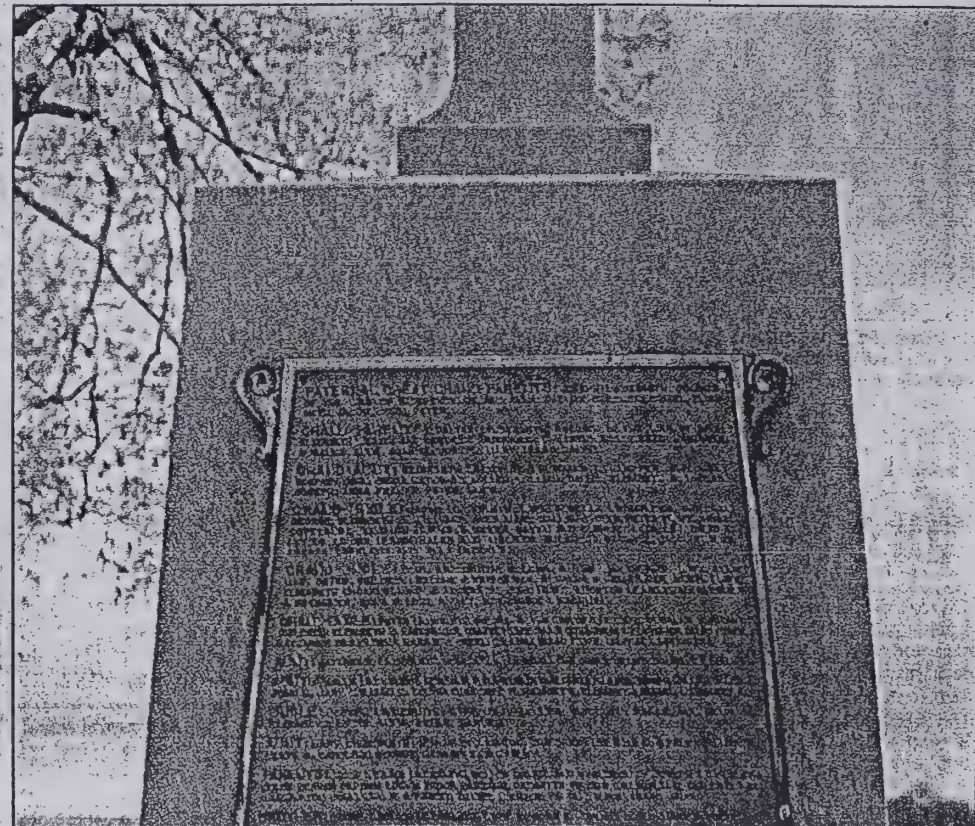

It has been 100 years since the Rev. Father Eli Washington John Lindesmith had his huge, imposing but beautiful monument erected in St. Paul's Cemetery in Franklin Township, just south of the southwest corner of Hanover Township, on Gavers Road.

Father Lindesmith was a priest at St. Phillip's Church in Dunganon.

These three, who served as soldiers in the Revolutionary War, are buried at the Trinity Reformed Church Cemetery at the site of the church which later became Trinity Friends Church. The new Friends Church is on U.S. 30, but the cemetery remains as does that first building.

There is a family monument, but off to the side of it is the stone placed by Father Lindesmith with the inscription which reads, "Erected by Rev. E.W.J. Lindesmith, Catholic Priest Chaplain in the United States Army, Member of the Society of the War of 1812, Member Western Reserve Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, in Memory of his Great-Grandfather Joseph Lindesmith, Soldier, Bugler and Fifer in the war of the American Revolution, and Jacob and George, Brothers of Joseph, Revolutionary imposing but beautiful monument erected in St. Paul's Cemetery in Franklin Township, just south of the southwest corner of Hanover Township, on Gavers Road.

Father Lindesmith was a priest at St. Phillip Neri Church in Dungannon from 1890 to 1892.

In addition to identifying Father Lindesmith on the front, the back of the monument is a family tree of that time. It lists more than 220 family members beginning with his paternal great-grandfather, Joseph Lindesmith. Anyone wanting to research can find the list at the Lisbon Lepper Library.

Father Lindesmith lived 22 years after having the stone erected in 1900. The inscription on the front of the stone says age 95, but if you read the birth and death, he was 94. He served as priest of St. Phillip Neri Catholic Church from 1890 to 1892 — a lone Catholic in a family of Protestants (Ed Copeland, longtime resident of Millport says people speculate on this and wonder if his mother was Catholic.) Lindesmith also presided over Protestant funerals.

The tombstone was apparently brought to the cemetery in three pieces. The bottom section, according to Copeland, weighs 10 tons, the center section is 17 tons and the top about a ton — 28 tons in all. It reportedly was shipped to Millport and sent to the cemetery on a funeral wagon pulled by eight horses which made three trips.

According to family members who have related through the years, it was during the frost season and manure was taken from the stables and thrown onto the road to keep the wagon from sinking.

In Dungannon, about a mile further northwest, one can find a log cabin. The cabin, which was the home of Daniel McCallister, was the site of the first Mass celebrated in Northern Ohio by Catholics. The cabin became known as St. Paul's Catholic Church, was located near the cemetery and later moved where it now sits.

The marker proclaims it the "Birthplace of Catholicism in Northern Ohio." Then, 150 years ago, a new church, now named St. Phillip Neri was constructed in Dungannon.

Father Lindesmith's inscription reads, "Rev. Eli Washington John Lindesmith, erected in 1900 prior to his death on Feb. 6, 1922, 95 years old. Chaplain of United States Regular Army, born Sept. 7, 1827, son of volunteer soldier, grandson of a soldier of War of 1812, grand nephew of two soldiers of War of 1812, great grandsons of a soldier of War of Revolution 1776, ordained priest July 8, 1855, Chaplain

Copeland said Joseph was married, the brothers were not.

Other family stones at Trinity on a large family plot you can find include Father Lindesmith's grandfather, Daniel, who fought in the War of 1812, his father Jacob, a color bearer with Capt. Lucy's Troop; a brother, Jason, enlisted in the War of the Rebellion as a private in Capt. William Ramsey's Co. K and was discharged July 5, 1865, in Cleveland as a second lieutenant.

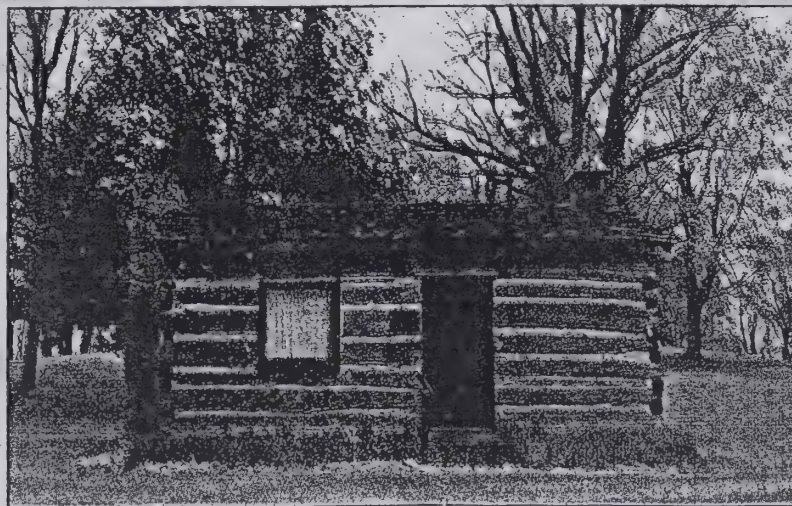

Father Lindesmith also has a stone erected at the Bethesda Presbyterian Church Cemetery. This stone states "Erected by the Rev. E.W.J. Lindesmith, Catholic Priest, Chaplain in the United States Army in honor of Daniel McKarns, Irish Catholic and Patriot after the defeat of the Patriots in 1798. He fled to Free America and he and his wife Rachel attended Mass at Daniel McCallister's home. He died in 1819, age 41 years, and was the first buried in this cemetery. ABOUT THE AREA

The rolling hills of southern Columbiana County provide the scenic background for our home. This area is rich with history. Persons interested in genealogy can find information on family histories at the Columbiana County courthouse just minutes away.

Our custom-built home is furnished with antiques and family heirlooms and is located on top of a hill with a view in all directions.

761 The two guest rooms, with double beds are on the main floor, and share a full bath. Smoking is allowed in the family room. Children are welcome and can help feed the sheep and cattle.

Guests will enjoy a full country breakfast with lots of hot coffee or tea and good conversation with your hosts, Dorothy and Edwin.

At our location, we have a beautiful view and nice scenery. To our west 30 miles is the Football Hall of Fame at Canton.

There is a lot of history around us. The Sandy Beaver Canal is close, also the big and little tunnel for the Canal. To the North, we have Guilford Lake (300 acres in water) which was used to raise the boats 142 feet west of Lisbon. We had several Indians camp nearby.

We have one of the best Angus herd of cattle in the United States near us. They have about 700 female cows.

Hanoverton has a row of homes that was built before 1850. Some of the homes were used to move the slaves north before the Civil War.

General Morgan was the southern General who took his army the farthest north in the Civil War and he surrendered near here.

We have here at our B & B a weather station and it will celebrate its 97th birthday in July of 1989.

We have one Catholic Church a mile north of us and another one three miles south with a Presbyterian Church one mile south. They are all out in the country.

HOW TO FIND US

On Route 11, Exit Route 154 West to Lisbon. There pick up Route 30 West for about eight miles. Turn left on Gavers Road 407 or Dunnganon Road and follow that for .8 miles. Take the middle road, which is Bethesda Road, for about 1½ miles.

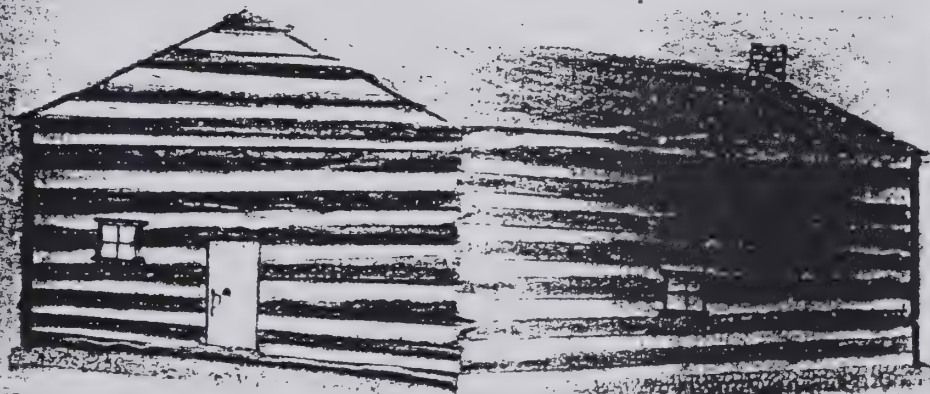

Coming the West or Southwest, take Route 9 or Route 30 to Kensington. At Kensington, take route 644 East for four miles and then turn left at Bethesda Presbyterian Church sign and go 5/8 mile to the top of the hill. HERE WE WELCOME YOU.

We suggest calling ahead for reservations. For Reservations and Information, call 216-223-2198.

Circuit Court.—The after part of last week was mainly occupied in hearing the "Clover Huller case," in which M'Donald et. al. tried to recover from L. S. Goodwin et. al., the price of a Clover Huller, which the defendants claimed would not work according to warrant. After listening to a multitude of witnesses, the jury failed to agree, and it will probably be necessary to try the whole case over again. In the case of the Glenn & Hall manufacturing company vs. Gishwiller, another Clover Huller case, the plaintiff recovered a judgment for $95. Judgment by default on a note was also taken, in the case of Jackson vs Sattison. As will be seen by a notice from Mr. McClellan, printed elsewhere, preliminary arrangements have been made for a settlement of claims against the Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago railway company, which is likely to result in taking a large number of cases from the docket, without further litigation. Upon calling over the docket Saturday noon, it became apparent that little business would be transacted, if Judge Woods returned on Monday. Accordingly, after arranging that J. E. Rose, Esq., should take the bench on Monday, for the trial of Bennett, charged with stealing a coat in this place, the Court adjourned.

On Monday Bennett was arraigned, and made oath that he was under twenty-one years of age. In consideration of this and other circumstances, he was let off with ten days imprisonment and a fine of two dollars and the costs of the suit.

Mrs. HAINES, mother of Mrs. M. J. Bates, of this city, who has been living with Mrs. Bates for some months past, died last Monday evening, aged about 82 years. The remains will be conveyed to Butler, DeKalb county, to-day, for burial. —Kendallville Standard, 5th.

SCHOOL GIRL POETRY

Forty Years ago, Young People Were About Same as Now

The following lines were composed by an Auburn school girl, Miss Hattie E Altenberg, now the widow of the late G. W. Hanes whose home for many years has been about two miles west of Butler. The lines are dated July 3, 1859, but were probably composed a month or so earlier, while the school was in session. It will be seen that the names of about all the students are woven into the lines. The article is headed:

SONG OF THE SCHOLARS.

Come students and listen a moment I pray
And hear a few words which I have to say Concerning the scholars who went to the school
And when they were under Mr. Larimore's rule.
There was Miss Dessa George, neat as a plum,
And Mr. Charles Roedel she had 'neath her thumb,
And frequently Mr. Gross she would happen to meet
And accidentally run over a cow in the street.

And little George Ralston and Eli Lessig
They thought they were some, if they were not so big,
But then that's all right, and their words may prove true
For nobody will argue but what it's just so.

There was Miss Sarah Nimmons and Leo Gillig,
I am sure you will laugh when I tell you of it.
One night how Sarah from Leo ran away
And it grieved him so he could not study next day.

There was Eugene Benner and Miss Carrie Roedel, Sometimes they would laugh and sometimes they would giggle;
But in a short time they both left our school
So Mr. Larimore had them no longer to rule.

And now comes Miss Moody and Mr. Guy Plum Miss Moody seemed to think that Guy he was some,
And Guy, he admired her beautiful way
And would offer to assist her in her algebra.

Samantha Patterson, I must tell how.
When she would meet Mr. Rohm, how polite she would bow.
She would pass out and exclaim, "It's a very fine day."
And he would answer her in some similar way.

Emma Dittmar and Hartman, of them now I speak,
When they attended our school, they look very meek.
It was seldom you'd see them laugh, or ever,
But never scornful, Oh, never, no never.

And now Mary Rhodes, I think it is time.
That you and Mr. Foster appear in our rhyme.
How you used to study and sometimes get crossed
When you went to recite in your Paradise Lost.

Hattie Pembroke and Joseph McKay I'll not pass,
How they used to recite in their grammar class;
Sometimes they would study nearly half of the night,
For fear they'd not have every word pared just right.

And now comes Em. Latson and Mr. Sam Mac,
He thought he was some, with his large silk cravat
Sometimes he'd go home with Em a kiting
And then read a piece on the art of handwriting.

And now Mr. Browning, I'll bring you in my lay (And now please do stop, I heard some one say.)
So I hope I've not slighted any amongst all
So, I'll bid you good by till the term opens next fall.

At The Poor Farm

Quite a number of our active church workers went out to the Poor Farm yesterday afternoon and held religious services for the benefit of the inmates. They were led by Rev. Henry Arlen, who preached to them. Mrs. Ehlers was another active member of the party others being C. E. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. S. Duck, Miss Edna Davis, Miss Athens Hoffman, Mrs. Dr. Baxter and Miss Dollie Husselman, Mr. and Mrs. Mott, Geo. Schmadels and Mrs. Simp. Johnson. The inmates took deep interest in the meeting to the great gratification of the visitors. And all unite, in praising the good condition of the institution and the care given to the inmates. They say it is a model of neatness and good order, and the most perfectly kept they ever saw. As the visitors are all private citizens, their testimony is very complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Bartels. They go again in two weeks.

Tramp Arrested.

A few days ago a freight train pulled into the Garrett yards, when a brakeman noticed that the seal of one of the cars was broken and an investigation found a tramp inside. The fellow, who gave his name as James McDonald, boarded the train a few miles east of the Junction at which time two other men whom he did not know were in the car. These fellows, he said left the train at the last stop before reaching Garrett. Several boxes of merchandise had been broken open, but the value of the goods taken was not learned. McDonald was lodged in jail by deputy Sheriff Hartford last night and will be held pending further investigation.

OBITUARY

Vera Esmeralda, daughter of Wld. and Katie Feagler, was born Feb. 26, 1899 and departed this life July 1, 1899, aged 4 months and 5 days. She leaves to mourn her early death, her parents and one sister. She budded on earth to bloom in heaven. The funeral services were conducted in the Lutheran church at Richland Center by Rev. E. E. Campbell.

Mr and Mrs. Feagler desire to thank the choir for their excellent music and the neighbors for their kindness, for their assistance during the sickness and death of their child.

Blaze at the Junction

Dr. Baxter, while on a professional trip at the Junction this forenoon, had a chance to do a little fire department business. The old log house belonging to Mr. Morry, just at the west, caught fire and made a big blaze. Everybody rushed to the scene, and got out the agricultural implements stored in it, and the only contents lost were about ten bushels of oats. The building was burned. The supposition is it caught from a passing engine.

Grant and Wilmington.

H. S. McIntosh reports a grand success for the graduating exercises of Grant and Wilmington townships last evening. The meeting was held at Norris Chapel, the point most convenient for both. The graduates were Carleton Hanes, Percy Close, and Albert Girardot, but there were volunteer orations by Marguerite Wym, Alfred Moudy and Dean Metcalf.

There was music by a local orchestra, the Waterloo male quartet, an instrumental number by Miss Madge Jackman, of Waterloo, and a solo each by Miss Emma Butler and Carl Voss, of Waterloo, and H. S. McIntosh. Supt. Coe was also present, and altogether the two townships have reasons to be proud of the occasion.

BUTLER.

The glorious Fourth came to Butler in a very quiet way and but little demonstration was made even by the smallest boy.

The bicycle factory has absorbed the lawn swing factory, and we may no longer look for an advance in the price of the comfort so much enjoyed by the girl and her best fellow after the stars come out these warm summer nights.

J. A. Campbell and wife spent last Saturday and Sunday visiting friends in the big swamp southeast of Ma ville, Allen county. They report wonderful changes in this heretofore, most inaccessible region. Great ditches have been cut from the river, back into the interior by steam dredges and low wet lands drained into these ditches and a vast vast region that few years ago was almost inaccessible is now blossoming over with great stretches of vigorous corn and oats. The little town of Woodburn station is located here. For a long time it was difficult to reach it, as roads if there were any were about impassable; now nice graveled pike runs to it and the town only about four years old is growing rapidly. The country around being cleared very fast, and good houses and barns dot the roadsides where three or four years ago were only tangled brush and miry wallows. The land is black loam, and the vicinity is destined to become the garden of Allen county.

John Thiel, an old resident of our place is reported dead in Michigan.

R. C. Campbell, daughter Vera, Mrs. Hamilton spent the Fourth in Napoleon, O.

Edon, O., had many Butler people 4th of July guests.

Log Cabin in the Park by David Hanes

The following article is from the Hamilton News, September 23, 1960. It was written by David Hanes as a "Local History" assignment for Letha Teegardin's history class. His sources of information were Sadie Merchant, Cliff Johnston and Robert L. Hanes.

On the south side of Hamilton Lake lies an island of about twelve acres.

Before 1900 the only house close to the island was a log cabin. The cabin had not been built to live in. Instead it was used as a rendezvous for gambling and drinking.

The activities at the cabin were really booming around 1900. The people who frequented the place were living it up. Many people were opposed to the cabin. They looked upon it as we do some of our rough night spots. In 1901 the cabin was burned. It was thought that someone built it on purpose because of its bad name. 765 that went over the bridge. Some time around 1940 the road from the island to the Bellefontaine Road was turned over to the county for maintenance. The county removed the wooden bridge and built a causeway of fill dirt with a small cement bridge to connect the road to the island. This formed an opening for the water from one part of the lake to reach another part.

About the year 1913, Mr. Charles Hanes leased the hotel from Mr. H. Henry and in the year 1916 Mr. Hanes bought the inn from Mr. Henry and the rest of the island with the exception of about three cottages. For a while he operated, in addition to the inn, a dance hall which was open to the public.

The beach at the inn was for the benefit of the public and out in the center of the island were public picnic tables. Many people came to spend the day picnicking and swimming.
After a few years Mr. Hanes decided that

Former Goshen Sailor Enjoying "Sea-Fever"

Aug 6, 1979 The Goshen News

By BILLSHEFFER

Last September Fred Wagner, a native of Goshen and a retired U.S. Navy lieutenant commander now living in San Diego, was suffering from a bad case of "sea-fever."

The "illness" resulted after learning from an old commanding officer that a navigator was needed aboard the submarine Auguste Picard sailing from Bremerton, Wash., via the Panama Canal to Mobile, Ala., on lease to find sites for oil drilling rig operation in the Gulf of Mexico.

Evelyn, his wife of 32 years, knew the "sea-fever" symptoms and with her blessing Wagner chucked his sales job with a cordage company and found himself at age 50 scrambling through the hatch topside into the conning tower to take the midnight watch aboard the Picard as it cruised low and slow on the surface off the chilly northern coast of California.

From his vantage point in the open fiberglass conning tower, Wagner watched the seas breaking over the deck of the 93-foot sub and wasn't concerned until the conning tower began shipping in seawater faster than drain outlets could carry it away.

Soon a foot of water collected in the conning tower, creating two problems for Wagner, one of which he'd never encountered in 27 years aboard submarines or surface craft. He'd been cold and wet before, but getting trapped topside was a new experience.

The foot of seawater collected in the conning tower and sloshing around Wagner's legs covered the sealed hatch leading below to snug quarters being enjoyed by his five shipmates. He was resigned to a long night.

Dawn found Wagner cold, wet and hungry with rough seas still covering the hatch and making it too risky for the tugboat accompanying the Picard to come alongside to take him aboard. He had radio communication with his crew below, but they were of no help.

Splicing together lines and attaching a life preserver, Wagner trailed it behind the sub to the tug where crewmen lashed on a "care" package. He reeled in two cold meat sandwiches, a thermos of coffee, and a Mars bar. He slowly savored every bite of the candy bar.

Twenty hours after taking the midnight watch, the Picard made port at Crescent City, Calif., and Wagner welcomed dry gear and a hot meal before continuing the otherwise uneventful cruise to San Diego where the brightly painted orange and white submarine is now docked.

Wagner computed time and distance and figured that a man walking steadily night and day would have covered the distance from Bremerton to San Diego in the same time as the Picard.

The Picard, built in France and named after the noted French statosphere balloonist and deep sea diver of the 30s, was commissioned for the Swiss National Exhibition during 1965-66 and carried some 33,000 passengers who thrilled to underwater views through portholes.

A toy the Picard is not. It has a 13-foot, 6-inch draft, displaces 165 tons, and its 1 1/4 steel hull can withstand an operational dive depth of 2,078 feet. Optimum sub-surface authorized time is 10 hours.

Horton Maritime Explorations of Vancouver purchased the Picard, which was shipped from France and then sailed across Canada. Nearly two years were spent converting her to an instrumented work platform making her an all-weather vessel that can acquire geophysical and oceanographic data.

The Picard was also the world's only "sailing" submarine. On deck was a 48-foot mast with more than 4,000 square feet of sail area which on a breezy day and its diesel-electric power system operating produced a speed of 5.6 knots surface running.

The mast and sail have been dismantled and replaced on the deck with TRAC, a tethered remote control device with video camera which Wagner has learned to "fly" when the sub is submerged. Wagner, who after retirement earned a helicopter rating, said "flying" TRAC is quite similar. It moves about in any direction and returns a video picture to the sub.

Since no ship of foreign registry operating in U.S. waters can carry paying passengers due to federal regulations, the Picard will never be a sightseeing sub, Wagner explained.

Wagner and his wife, who left Goshen after visiting with his mother, Mary Wagner, 313 E. Washington St., relatives and friends, won't leave San Diego if the Picard continues to the Gulf. At this point the Picard may have enough work off-shore in California and may be permanently based at San Diego.

If the Picard leaves, Wagner still has a treasure chest filled with memories of sea-going days.

Shortly after navy retirement, Wagner's first civilian job was "torpedoed" in court. He was hired as a technical advisor by Bing Crosby Productions in making a submarine thriller from the novel "Incident 1000." His company learned that another film company was plagiarizing, took it to court and won. But the other company was too far along in production, bought the film rights, and produced "Gray Lady Down."

One of six children of Mrs. Wagner and the late Carl Wagner, Fred graduated from GHS in 1946 and enlisted on his 18th birthday. After boot training at Bainbridge, Md., and electronics school at Corpus Christi, Texas, he was assigned to decommissioning World War II ships at San Francisco where he went home with a shipmate and met Evelyn, who liked the way he did dishes. They were married.

Trying to raise a family on a seaman's pay was tough and Wagner considered returning to civilian life after his first hitch. He'd worked tree trimming for three summers for the late Gus Sylvester and telephoned Goshen everyday for a week hoping for a job before his hitch ran out.

The phone call was never answered. Wagner re-enlisted, came home on leave and found that Gus had been vacationing in Maine.

Wagner wanted submarine duty for the extra pay to support a growing family after an old salt told him subs were the way to go. He finished in the upper 10 percent of his class which enabled him to pick sub duty on either coast. He picked West and, with the exception of two years in Norfolk, Va., as the admiral's cryptographer and communications officer, San Diego has been home.

Wagner's first submarine was the Red Fish, a World War II veteran with quite a bit of tonnage to her credit. In his six and a half years aboard, Wagner went from seaman to quartermaster first class. There was a notable pioneer cruise into Arctic waters under ice with no freshwater showers for 29 days. Later he would serve aboard the Bowfin and Volador.

Sub years were good years; reading everything from agriculture-and-ordinance (as Westerns were called) to classics, the rattle of caged dice of Acey-Ducey games, and comments coming from 30 shipmates crammed in corners watching a movie for recreation. Food was the best with all meat being boned before taken aboard.

On June 2, 1960, Wagner was promoted to chief quartermaster and received a commission as ensign on the same red letter day. But he knew the navy's educational requirements prevented him from submarine command.

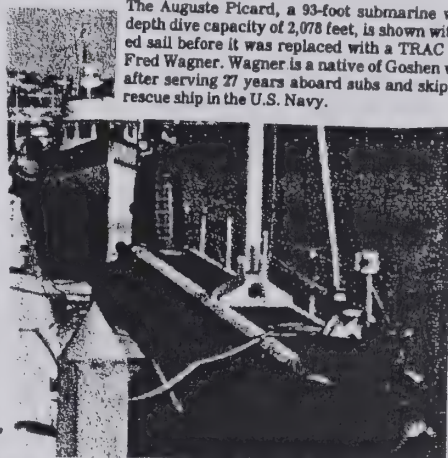

Above all, Wagner wanted to stay operational, so he left submarines and later was given command of the Florikan, ASR 9, a sub rescue ship with the McCann apparatus which saved some of the crew of the Squalus sunk off Portsmouth in 1939. His ship, a 2,100-ton vessel of 252 feet length and 40-foot beam, carried 85 to 90 crewmen out of San Diego.

Before retiring he was in command of the Saturation Diving School where the world record working dive of 1,010 foot was set during a 14-day period.

Wagner couldn't talk his son, Raymond, into joining the navy. Raymond is a ski patrolman during the winter months at Boise, Idaho. A daughter, Janette Soden, and grandchildren Shaun, 4, and Charisse, 2, reside at Lakeside, Calif.

The Auguste Picard, a 93-foot submarine with an opera depth dive capacity of 2,078 feet, is shown with its mast and sail before it was replaced with a TRAC device opera Fred Wagner. Wagner is a native of Goshen who joined the after serving 27 years aboard subs and skipping his or rescue ship in the U.S. Navy.

Lt. Comm. Fred Wagner, U.S.N. Ret., and his wife Evelyn, visit with Wagner's mother, Mrs. Mary Wagner, 313 E. Washington St., before returning to their home in San Diego, Calif., where he is navigator and one of a largest, privately owned sub

COS ALTENBERG.

Cos Altenberg, Pioneer Local Lawyer, Dead

At 94, Probably Was Oldest Practicing Attorney in State.

Cos Altenberg, aged 94, veteran of the Civil war and perhaps the oldest practicing attorney in Arkansas, died suddenly about 11 a. m. Tuesday at his home, 1001 Cumberland street.

Hearty and active almost up to the hour of his death, Mr. Altenberg practiced law as a pension attorney in the same office in the Folk building for 32 years, moving his office to his home two years ago at the death of his wife. He has lived on the same home site more than 55 years.

Mr. Altenberg attended the Memorial Day ceremonies Monday at National cemetery and placed wreaths on the graves of former members of the Grand Army of the Republic, with whom he served the duration of the Civil war.

Born in Auburn, Ind., March 14, 1842, Mr. Altenberg joined Company A, 4th Indiana Heavy Artillery, at the outbreak of the war between the states and served in the same company until the war closed.

Immediately after the Civil war Mr. Altenberg entered Ann Arbor Law School at Ann Arbor, Mich., and upon his graduation he moved to Augusta, where he lived until 1876, when he moved to Little Rock. He was married to Miss Martha J. Crise, also of Indiana, June 19, 1876.

Mr. Altenberg served in the state legislature as a representative of Pulaski county in 1881 and is a past department commander of the G. A. R. At his death he was a member of the National Council of Administration of the G. A. R. He was also a member of the board of stewards of the First Methodist Episcopal church South, Eighth and Center streets, more than 55 years.

Mr. Altenberg is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Elsie Fee of Little Rock and Mrs. A. E. Sweetland of Lufkin, Tex.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. Wednesday at the chapel of R. F. Drummond & Company, in charge of the Rev. C. M. Reeves. Burial will be in the family lot in Oakland cemetery. The family requests that no flowers be sent.

J. H. LATSON

Mr. J. H. Latson was born in Auburn, Ind., in 1858, being the son of J. J. Latson, one of the early settlers of DeKalb county. He came to Butler in 1882, entering into a partnership in the barber business with his brother whose interest he purchased soon after, and has conducted a tonsorial parlor here ever since. He is known to his intimate friends as "Toad, the Barber." His close attention to business and careful, painstaking work has won for him a large patronage. He is the father of eleven children, eight of whom are living and well and hearty. He has taken first premium at most of our street carnivals with his babies, always having an infant of the proper age at the right time to draw the prize. Mr. Latson is a good citizen and enjoys the respect of all, being an enthusiastic worker in the local Maccabee lodge and a member of the Lutheran church.

Virgil L. Hardin Joins Will-Sell Realty Sales

Virgil L. Hardin

Virgil L. Hardin has joined Will-Sell Realty Sales as salesman. Mr. Hardin was born at Winslow, Indiana, where he graduated from High School. He studied business administration with the University of Maryland. After retirement in 1957 from 22 years in the U. S. Army with service during World War II and Korea, Mr. Hardin located in LaGrange County. He was employed for two years at Sealed Power Corporation, then left there to teach for three years in the U. S. Department of Defense School at Toledo, Ohio.

Mr. Hardin resides in Clay Township just west of LaGrange with his wife, Florence, and their son Tom who is a student in LaGrange Junior High School. Mrs. Hardin is a native of Goshen, Indiana, and her mother moved to LaGrange after her marriage to the late Walter Atwater.

Mr. Hardin has been in training with Will-Sell Realty Sales since October, and has taken special schooling for this work. He has qualified for his real estate salesman's license with the State of Indiana Real Estate Commission. His added assistance to Will-Sell Realty Sales will help them render broader and better service to their clients and this community, which they have been serving since 1939.

Susan Griffith starring in dinner theatre production

"The 1940's Radio Hour" is the Dinner-Theatre production the Steuben County Players will perform this week at the Potawatomi Inn in Pokagon State Park. Hamilton's Susan Griffith has the role of Ginger Brooks, a singing waitress turned star. The show is a Christmas Broadcast for the "boys overseas" in 1941. Although the play is somewhat a comedy, it has many of the hit songs of the day - Chatanoga Choo Choo, Blue Moon, Daddy, Blues In The Night, and many, many more.

It is a show to be enjoyed by all ages, but if you remember those days it's sure to be even more fun.

Dates are Wednesday, November 20; Thursday, November 21; and Saturday, November 23. Dinner begins at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $8.00 and are available at Carper Insurance.

Dear Folks all – The Round Robin is at our place again and I will add my little bit, before we send it on. I finds us all on our feet yet.

We are busy husking corn now with machine – the weather has been so slow but is running more from? – able now. Eston was the only one on the list that we have helped husk, that didn't have to wait, a day or a week, as the care might be on the weather. Started in Wednesday just before noon and finished Thursday during the afternoon. Machine moved up to Roy Campbell's and husked out some before night. The weather held them back until yesterday forenoon, and as the weather looks favorable, expect to be there tomorrow and next day. Pretty fast work! When Roy C. is done there will be five jobs, on a total of about 20 days work; done since the 10th of November.

Well, Ella there is not so much to write about the roads new, except that there are 3 or 4 big auto-trucks hauling gravel all along each truck making 4 to 6 trips a day. The state has charge of the work, and are repairing the road from the State line to Kendallville or somewhere up thereabouts. The great "chuck hole" up at Sinen's? has had about "umpty-eleven" loads of gravel thrown in.

Another of the neighbors is gone. Wm Harwood. He died rather suddenly. Taken with neuralgia of the heart Friday morning and dying in the afternoon.

We were interested in the news, that John G. had announced his engagement and coming marriage in December. Everybody from here sends congratulations, and well wishes to him and the prospective Mrs. Gardner.

And say John! Why not come down after the important event, and see what it looks like in the north-east corner of Indiana. I don't believe you have been here since you used to list to "Whoa-Bill"

Well this all for this time. Wishing a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Hello Mother:

Thanks for the nice welcome letter always glad to read your letters and the comfort they give me. I am so much better, I can not say how to thank Mary. She has done more for me than they could possibly do at the Hospital. She has me Sugar free. Last Friday I had divine deal? Down to 144 lbs – Had terrible pains in my stomach and was really miserable. I am not weighing 159 lbs. Pain much less and feel so much better. & all this is thanks to Mary and you all – who are always behind me. I have kept right on working and since coming back from your place I have done $282.00 in business – Lots of new patients – always on hand Have to refuse some. Had Earl make all new screens for the house cost $32.00 but now the bugs stay out. Am sorry Louise went home by coming up here I guess I always spoil everything. Well all I can do is to try and keep my Health. We are having hot weather. I am installing an automatic oil burner for hot water – cost about $1.25 a month to operate and all the hot water you want. Will see how it works out. We want you to get up here to see our outfit. We have the best ad is very inviting for the patients. The best always pays. Mother Hornaday is still with us, she is helping out fine. Write often and rest assured I am lots better thanks to Mary – She knows her stuff.

To my dear children, I received one letter yesterday crowded full of letters from each one of you to another, and with special request for me to say a few words. I would not know how to start in my first chapter best after reading your good letters over, I see nothing to be afraid of only pen and ink as if can talk to your dear children easier if only I was in hollering distance. We are all normally well and enjoying this beautiful spring seems so we never had such a nice spring. I wish you could all see over the farm just today. To me it is almost heave below, still it has its cares and hard work to make it so even with all the sun and rain from above. As I read over your letters seperately I was so proud of my children not a word of murmuring conflict in your daily work, but everyone seems to be progressing and gaining financially and best of all enjoying life as it passes. Eston Clara and Carl have gone to Waterloo to see Mrs. McCague who is very sick, and they will call on Altas folks too. I did not venture out as there is a cold wind and April showers almost any hour before will we all be next sacred Easter Sunday no doubt most of you will hear good sermons from the churches and nice singing. Well dear children all be good and lets try and live so we can meet without the loss, of one, where there will be no more sorrow or tears with love you my dear children

My Dear ones – all

I am as happy to receive all your lovely Christmas cards – every one personally – and all are so pretty and ere comes the birthday cards (4) already this morning – The letters from all of you were lovely – altho I can not answer – have noted every thing in them – I hope you will all be together, as most of us will be during the calls in P.M. by the children expect 15 for dinner, expect to stay in bed all day, as I can not take it easily any more. May Louise and family are here, Louis is at Dorothy's and John Pat will be here New years __ have of absence – Weather fine and all as well as can be – snow gone – Thanks, Carl for the pretty handkerchief – it my blue – May you all be well and enjoy the Infant's birthday and may we all meet in heaven and see Him in all his glory is the wish of your loving sister Ella

Butler Ind Feby 5, 1888

Dear Brother

I have waited till now, and cant write half what I would like to. We are all well excepting colds. Carle has a real hard one but is up and around. It has been moderate weather for nearly a week and yesterday it commenced to rain and came very near spoiling our sleighing but it turned to snow, so that it is about as good as before. It is freezing some tonight and I hope the snow will stay a little longer. Ware are dong little on meeting except the chores, but hope to get down to work again soon. I would like to fix up my fence a little and be ready to put up wire fence as soon as we can set the posts.

When the boys were out from Mich we made a partial for Camie to work for his Uncle Isaac this season. His Will says there is an 80 acre lot that can be bought for $12.00, on easy payments, near him, He (Will) thinks there is a good bargain in it.

Camie is anxious to try his hand, and I think it is the best think he can do. I will assist him on the first payment and all I can afterwards. It will give him some aim in life if all events and I will protect him from loss if in my power provided he lend a helping. Camie has offered to work six months for $100. We think it the best place he could go and shall feel as though had a home there. If he goes he will start in the first part of April.

Hanes Aldrich & Co. started 2 car lodd? Stock for Buffalo last night. Just below Estiston? (7 miles out) they were wrecked. I hear that they had nothing of value killed but were badly "shuck up" some other party but 30 of his head. Our nice red heifer was aboard. I think she had rather been at home, don't you? Ella Written side-ways at top of letter: I presume if there is any loss that the R.R. co. will adjust it.

Alten has stored away his letter you wrote him an he reads it several times a day. He has his answer written to send with this. I will write again soon. There are others that will order wire when I do, there will be large quantities used here soon. Give my love to all as ever your brother CW or GW Hanes

The first of these is the fact that the majority of the respondents were male. This is a limitation of the study, as it is possible that the results may differ if a larger proportion of females had been included. However, the majority of the respondents were also from the private sector, which may also limit the generalizability of the findings.

Another limitation is the fact that the study was conducted in a single organization. This may limit the generalizability of the findings to other organizations. However, the study was conducted in a large organization, which may increase the generalizability of the findings.

Despite these limitations, the study has several strengths. First, it was a quantitative study, which allows for the use of statistical analysis. Second, it was a cross-sectional study, which allows for the examination of the relationship between variables at a single point in time. Third, it was a survey study, which allows for the collection of data from a large number of respondents.

In conclusion, the study has shown that there is a positive relationship between the use of the Internet and the use of other information technologies. This suggests that the Internet is not just a standalone technology, but rather a tool that can be used in conjunction with other technologies to enhance productivity and efficiency.

Further research is needed to explore the relationship between the use of the Internet and the use of other information technologies in more detail. This could include a longitudinal study, which would allow for the examination of the relationship between variables over time.

The study also has several implications for practice. First, it suggests that organizations should encourage the use of the Internet and other information technologies to enhance productivity and efficiency. Second, it suggests that organizations should provide training and support for employees to ensure that they are able to use these technologies effectively.

Letter from Charles Heffelfinger Jr. to Sarah Hanes Heffelfinger

Easter Sunday

Dearest Mother –

Your voice sure sounded good this morning only wished we were together and talking instead of being so far apart. We are glad that you are feeling good, but sorry you have not been so recently. Louise had been feeling so punk lately & expenses so big, we first gave up our apartment in Talladeige? And moved back here. I am going to find a room there for myself, as going back and forth each day will be more expensive than ever. It costs me around $14.00 a week for gas, oil, etc. & then my car bill is $14.00 a month. Plus a bank loan of $185.00 plus a debt to Dad of 150.00 so I can figure on little or nothing left to live on when I get through paying bills. It's hard to do, but I have to make 50.00 a week to pay expenses. The small town is no longer – small town. Everything seems to go on a basis the same as big towns do, and one can make as much, if not more in a small place than a large one. I wanted to tell you that if the finance company calls on you or any of the boys there, to co-sign the note I have there, why don't sign it. It is not necessary at all and I have never welched on a debt and don't intend to start now. I can handle that note easily enough without their bothering anyone about it. I think, when we came here, I owed them $200.00 and now it is only 150.00 so they cannot worry about such a condition. I'm so glad we got to talk to you, it sounded so good, I hated to hang up. I was afraid you might have been away and we would miss you! We went to the Doctor's yesterday and he says about Sept. 6th. He seems to be about 40 yrs. old, vears concientious and has a reputation of well standing for general practice as well as O.B. cases. However, Louisa and I both are going to miss Howard and Mary and I don't think anyone else can quite come up to expectations as they. I must write them, as I haven't done so since I've been here. I work day and night and don't have a great deal of time, but have intended to wright this long time. Our best regards to all in special wishes to yourself from all. Charles Jr.

Letter from Probably Sylvia Altenburg Bates to Hattie (Harriet) Altenburg Hanes abt. 1908

My dear sister

I received your good letter in due time, and should have a several? before. I was very glad to hear from you once and when I read Clara was intending to get married I knew just how you poor souls feel. I have experienced the same and today I got a letter from Mary Jane telling me she is married. Now I know you must feel the parting keenly, even as I did but what can we do we just have to make the best of it but it is but natural and right for them to marry to this proper ones. I hope Clara will be happy and make a good wife and housekeeper and I am sure she will ever remember to honor and love her dear mother. My Marion, my baby with all her household duty and comes to see me almost every Sunday. Well you have dear Carl yet. I hope he will be a great comfort and another blessing to you is your good health, compared to what it used to be, since I last wrote you I have been "under the weather" so to speak. I have been having neuralgia I think any how in my head and face and have had such a queer _____ in my mouth and tongue and I have had it for about six weeks. My tongue feels just as if it had been scrubbed. I haven't done much for it for I didn't know what to do and was almost ashamed to see a Dr. because I can't see anything wrong, and my appetite is so poor as has been lately. I have to compel myself to eat. I had been lately. I heard lately lemons are great for the some?, I tried taking them as a medicine so last evening I made my lemonade with out sugar and took a glass this morning. I repeated the same and also this afternoon and I am feeling as if I wanted to eat more. I believe it is what I needed. Hattie is here and has done all my work. She thought I ought to have a Dr. but I thought nay and of course I come out ahead. Well I am getting better but oh so poor I'm a frightened I think my weight is 107 pounds. Hattie, I have had such a hard cough through the last 2 winters and it had commenced on me again the season.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring transparency and accountability in the organization's operations.

2. The second part outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data. It mentions the use of surveys, interviews, and focus groups to gather information from stakeholders. Additionally, it discusses the application of statistical software to process and interpret the collected data.

3. The third part describes the results of the data analysis. It highlights the key findings and trends observed, such as the increasing demand for certain services and the declining interest in others. These findings are presented in a clear and concise manner, supported by relevant charts and graphs.

4. The fourth part provides a detailed analysis of the factors influencing the observed trends. It explores the role of external market conditions, internal organizational factors, and the preferences of different customer segments. This analysis helps to identify the underlying causes of the trends and provides insights into potential future developments.

5. The fifth part discusses the implications of the findings for the organization's strategy and operations. It suggests ways in which the organization can leverage its strengths and address its weaknesses based on the insights gained from the data analysis. This includes recommendations for improving service quality, enhancing customer engagement, and optimizing resource allocation.

6. The sixth part concludes the document by summarizing the key points and reiterating the importance of ongoing data collection and analysis. It emphasizes that the organization should continue to monitor its performance and adapt its strategies as needed to stay competitive in the market.

My Dear Children

In later years of my life, my great desire has been to preserve our loved ones homestead intact, that one and all might meet under its cherished shelter as long as either your loving mother or I should remaining with you. Being fully conscious of my approaching demise, I have executed my last will and testimony in which I bequeathed to your mother all my realty and personal possessions, absolutely and unconditionally with power to settle all claims against the Est. trusting to her good judgment in final disposition of it to our beloved children and hoping that you may have many happy reunions before she is call to do so. Believing that you all will approve of this course as a wise one.

And you Dear Children I can only commend you to the mercies of the Great Creator of the Universe in whose presence we must all meet and who doeth all things well.

My Dear Sister: & Family –

Your letter and Carl's were recd a day or so ago – were glad to hear that you were all well and that you have the blessing of helping save one poor soul. Your help to Mr. T. must be a living example of Christ's work – care for, and helping the sick and needy – and as we all must admit that we could have called him every day at one time. However his disrespect to dear Father is the worst that we can harbor against him but your conduct towards him now shows plain by that it was Father & Mother's example of forgive & forget and then to all for him in the time of suffering –

He must certainly think of this when you come with your helping hands to relieve his suffering ---- and it makes him more penitent and humble – you can rest assured that when he has passed on that he will ask many blessings of our Heavenly Father –for your-

It will always be a great comfort to you – after you have had time to rest your weary tired body – to know that you sacrificed so much for them. With much love and many happy returns of the day --- Ella

Butler Ind Feb 25 Tuesday noon

Hi - Met and Walter - Just came from the Weirich office (anyday for shot) and talked with him about sister Sarah. He said that he could hardly believe it himself. How the brake in Sarahs high had so almost completely taken care of itself.

I can't undestand just how but it seems that the bone was crushed together some way that it got itself in the right position and is holding there so firm. He was able to move her about in almost any position and that even without pain they will take one more xrays picture to make positive then bring her to the convalescent home here in Butler perhaps in a day or two where she will be close to Clara and I. I didn't get over to Garrett very often as I am not sure of myself had a hard day yesterday but was ok today Stayed at Mary's at Auburn Sunday night and yesterday all morning Slipped a little but that is not uncommon for me and with all and all had to change a tire to get home.

Well I wanted to tell you about Sarah and how glad we are for her condition. She suffers no pain from the break and said she told him it was the other leg that was broken and her stocking was to tight on her right leg (the broken one) that has a weight on.

Clara is sure busy looking out for her. Don and Jane were down last week but a lot of help they are they stayed over Sunday.

Outside of being a little lonesome I am doing fine and was glad to get your letter so when you feel husky write again Your brother Alt

Dear Daughter, Brother, and Niece-

If I don't write to all of you at the same time, I will not get around. We are so glad to get letter from you, that we ought to write you oftener than we do but I am so tired every night that it seems a big job to write. Yet I am feeling quite well and believing health is improving.

____ Mother/Hattie? Has not been real well for sometime but is getting all right now. It is very dry here and might have been very cool for nearly two week. There has been light frosts several mornings but no damage done. We are leaving both (the frost and drouth) on account cloverseed, buckwheat, and corn might be damaged several hundred dollars. I had the finest stand for cloverseed I ever saw, but the drouth has damaged it some already. The ground is so dry that we can plow only one acre a day with a 3 horse team. And ____ the work has only commenced for preparing the wheat, but we shall not put out much wheat (some consolation) Our Buckwheat looks real nice. So you know that means pancakes next winter. Sarah is going to write, will leave space for her Mamie. I will answer your god letter ____ I just hope you girls will beat your former record at School (that wont be easy to do but you can) and help Miss Hurd lots with her work and if she don't like ti Ill explain matters. Well I must close with Love to all Answer Yours Alt Hanes

I hope you are all well today. I am anxious to know how you like your new teachers, and what course you will take for the year in your studies tell me.

Wednesday 1 p.m.

Dear Ella I will just add a few words as we are going to ____ after the milkman comes. I have been up to see Mrs. Jennings this forenoon she was riding home from Waterloo on the hand-car and got dizzy and jumped off and hurt herself very bad. Her face is all cut to pieces. (No Campbell story) The doctor took some bones out of her nose, and the skin above her eyes was torn loose nearly to her hair One shoulder put out of joint and her neck is all blue and both of her hands I could only see her mouth as she was bandaged so much but I do not see how she can get well. Clara send love to you and wants you to write.

My hand feels better today than it has for a week. Sarah wants to get a dress for herself today. Miss Hallett wants to make it and take lesson for pay and that's good for Sarah. I think she will go to Michigan Lots are going to Columbus on that excursion Jane and Big Will are going Metta has been helping her pa all day Your Ma

Dear Ones All - I'm sending you something precious - It happened this way - Have decided to burn all my treasures that I thot might be hard for someone else to do and which not be kept as dearly as I have held them - The Letters from Pa and Ma were written soon after I went to stay at Uncle Cameron's You, Clara and Carle and Alt may not remember what wonderful letters they could write because you were not away from home so much - but Sarah probably has some saved and knew what a booster it was to get a letter from home - These two I've kept in the bible that they gave me, and I've read them over many, many times. I'm keeping only the ones they wrote me when I joined the Catholic Church - Burn them if you do not want to keep them - we all get in that fix later on - but I know you will enjoy them - with them sacred memories - Lovingly

I'm anxious to hear that Sarah kept right on improving and that she is out in the sun and enjoying the yard. I'm sure you have the same weather as we have had – two days up to 80 degrees but cold wind from north and cool evenings. Need rain --- will try to write next week have been using all my strength to keep up and help Mary with the house cleaning – It hasn't been warm long enough to get me warmed through yet. David feels about that way too – Haven't hear from Ida but am mailing a card for her birthday – “With much love to all – its late and I'm all in tonight – Rug is beautiful – you know I rolled up my old _____ and sent it for the _____ one – you know how? Have ordered too small 22 x 42 – and a 10 ft runner for my bedroom.

From Clara McCague to Laura Wilmetta Atwater - postmarked July 15, 1960

Thursday Eve

Dear Sister – your card rec. today sorry you do not feel good – I was afraid you were sick. Hadn't heard from you I wonder if you and Florence got in that bad storm on your way home from the funeral. George wrote it was terrible on their way back. It was bad here. I was alone, but was not afraid – we have had so much rain, the farmers are working early and late when the weather permits. I have rec. 40 sympathy cards since dear Sarah is gone and I am trying to answer them so many had such beautiful messages. I have copied two I got from Chi. They were friends of Sarah's and I had written many letters to them for Sarah, since she had been bad, the one had the poem written on the back of the card and it seemed it was written expressly for Sarah, for it sounds just like her life – the other was a letter they wrote me of the memorial gift, they were giving in her behalf. I would have sent the letters, but I do want to always keep them – it shows what a Christian life can leave behind – Her pastor mailed his sermons to her and she never missed one in 10 yrs. When she was well – she did love to get them, read them over and over.

I have been to the Home several times since she is gone, the first time – I just thought I would die – the most terrible feeling came over me – It seems I had to see her or hear her voice. I have been out all p.m. visiting the homes, taking the "Upper Room" a daily devotions, our church has. The ones that can't read, will read it to the ones that cannot – I have vowed to dedicate my life – as long as I am well enough to go – to all these unfortunate ones – They hunger and cling for a few kind words or a hug and a kiss – God only knows what a lonely life Sarah would have had – had I not been able to go - & I want to carry on just the same. I called as the Shehi Home in the north end and the first patient to call "Hello" was Anna Smith Conkle, she is partially paralyzed & in a wheelchair – Her mind is quite good. One Gedders is there at that Home, she has had strokes & quite helpless. Saw old Frosty (Ora) Copeland there, but his mind is a little bad & didn't know me. Yesterday I had a treat, Minnie Walter and Mary Cherry spent the P.M. with me. Walter and Sada are living with Eldora in Indianapolis, but Walter is staying here, as Jason is at the point of death in the Hosp. We really thrashed out old times. Walter talks all the time and I don't believe he has forgotten a crook or turn that has happened at our house. Dr. Howard Aldrich is their Dr. at Eldora's.

If you have happened to see the U. S. Steel Hour on TV last eve. The story was taken from a book James McCague wrote – "The Great Gold Mountains" he had sent me the book – but the play didn't sound much like it. Can't do much with a book in 45 minutes on TV. They mentioned his name several times during the program.

Well my neighbors road have separated and it's a lonesome place over there – I do miss them especially at night – not to see a light there, Janet & Gene are coming down Sat. to clean up the place and I hope, get another renter. I am sending you a letter rec. from Virginia – she told me to send it on to you. Got a letter from Dorothy M. (prob.

Mallioux) and she was there at Wm. and Mary's helping take care of David (prob. Gardner) guess he was pretty tired after the trip.

The next week after Sarah died, I was simply all in – I wasn't sick – my old legs wouldn't perk right – I slept half the time – feeling pretty good now – I want to come and see you – but next week he have a call –d? Meeting and I have to be here – but will try and come some time later – Know you are tired of this chatter – so I'll say Good Night and loads of love Clara My love to Florence, Virgil, and Tommie

Home Saturday July 26. To my dear Children

I will make an effort this p.m. to fulfill my obligations with pleasure, am only ashamed to think how long I have held this chain of letters and promise not do so again without a reasonable excuse if no more, Am feeling lots better, but very lame as its hard to get around without assistance, hope and pray by the time I am an old woman I'll get over this lonesome We have just finished threshing wheat and all the folks have gone to Lem Campbell's to help. I am alive and almost seared on account of the extreme heat, thermometer is up to 95 degrees just now, understandably drowsy. Am? Thankful I am for the privilege I have had this summer of seeing all my children except dear Sarah and I surely will see her yet this fall and to know we are all able to be around and tend to the duties of our families and what a blessing I only hope it will continue for a long time to come, and at last only be gathered in our Father's home not made with berets? Lovingly from Ma

Dear Clara – Your letter and money came ok and it seems we all are getting to old and worried to unite like we used to. I don't get _____ as I ought but am feeling every day but my work is very light and it's a shame to take my money for what I am doing now – Maybe if I go more work I would work off my stomach trouble any way I don't cut out a thing solid yet - & it since Jan 10th Nov coffee meat or anything but softer foods and milk. I suffer a lot night & if this thing don't start to get better soon its going to go into something serious of _____ is _____ and I feel any thing like it may drop in on you Sat Eve & back Sunday. Ida is coughing some lately too so aint sure about coming. About work we have July _____ is best time as I'll have to wait – About work on house July _____ is best time as I'll have to wait – for you but too on place. Went broke on car? Am sending diagram of work waited? But do not get anybody excited yet – Lewis? S. says $150.00 ought to do a good job as per this specification and he will do it – for that – if I can get it done. I have not written him yet but he figured it that Sunday at Mets and by his folk ade it high enough to be save. Kids an all working. Baby _____ been sick had _____ 3 to 4 times. His tonsils again. Is better now – See Sarahs often and take them riding every week. They expect to have their damage _____ soon – Hope for _____ got out from _____ by now – We have had more bad weather – been cool lately – Everything was backward up toward Milwaukee too Must close & dill do better myself next time. My Dear Sister:

I have put off writing to you for so long that today I say "do it or die" one of my sayings when I mean to do it today – at any cost so – Seems to me that I have had several letters from you recently but the one that I'm answering now is the one from you on that memorable Palm Sunday.

I want you to know how much I have shared your Hanes (Altenburg & think) emotion all these days and rejoice with you for the answer to your prayers – I know & am sure that with Eston's sound character, and from such an honorable family that he does not have to change or be made over – but just to take the step & say --- "Lord here I am I believe". We can never forget how mindful & dutiful he has always been to his mother & father & their family and to our own dear Mother in her last years – but my dear sister let me put my arms around you right here and tell you that the big winning card was your own Christian Life – sacrificing so much to help others and forgiving Well we have just been to a big golden jubilee celebration of Mother Mary Bernadine head of Mercy convent – there were many notables including our archbishop – with his long train carried by two pages The Bishop's robe is the same color – cerise – or light cherry – as the cape given to your friend For Bennet when he was elevated to Monsignor – It is nice that you can get acquainted with him, for isn't he stationed at the church where, your niece was married recently? It's truly wonderful how people can work together now, in the common cause and for religion I'm always so glad to have the colored and Jews helped. They have been used so shamefully – May God bless and keep you – Remember us in your prayers Love as ever Ella in November or December, 1839, they arrived. Immediately they built a log house and two families occupied it in December, '39 as the early settlers in De Kalb County, Indiana. A mild winter favored them and scant provisions brought with them and a few dollars in their pockets only, furnished the supplies for the family of Altenberg and his brother-in-law, Levi J. Walsworths. In the coming spring they were to seek provisions by hunting and fishing and carrying corn meal from fish creeks, where the Houten settlement had occurred. The Altenberg family consisted of father and mother and three children, Daniel W., Mary Jane and baby Henry E. Subsequent to their arrival there, an additional member, Harriet E., and then the humble servant, David Cosper, the undersigned; subsequent to that, Sylvia E., and then William J. and lastly, Frank Altenberg. All of the children of Daniel, Sr. are deceased at this time, except your humble Cos Altenberg of Little Rock, Arkansas.

Note - do not name

The tribe of Altenbergs, from the above statement, is quite numerous, so much so that I refrain from attempting to name the same. Only a few years ago, I visited Portland, Oregon and Sacramento, California and I found kinfolks there of my father, Daniel, Sr. In 19 I, with my daughter, Rose Sweatland, attended the G. A. R. encampment and we found a branch of the Daniel Altenberg tribe in Portland, Maine, and on our return by way of Cincinnati, Ohio, we found many kinfolks. I am advised that in the city of Chicago, at the present time, the Altenberg tribe of kinfolks by marriage, and also in the city of Milwaukee, Wisconsin there are kinfolks of the tribe.

Mr. Chairman: In conclusion, please give my best respects to the few who are attending this home-coming of Haineses and Altenberg, and assure them, that in my old age, I would like to be with them, consult with them and talk with them, and assure them that my tribe of Altenbergs I am especially pleased to record that the history is greatly commendable, and none to my knowledge, have ever wrecked a bank or served a ~~pent~~ penitentiary sentence, and the most of them are members of the different churches in the localities wherein they reside.

And, if the Good Lord spares my life, and that of my beloved daughter, Rose, we will try to be with you at the next home-coming meeting.

Our best wishes.....

My dear niece:

I haven't forgotten your kind invitation to attend the re-union of the Haines and Altenber families, to be held in your city on Monday, September the Seventh, 1931. My daughter, Rose, (Mrs. A. E. Sweatland of Lufkin, Texas) arrived and is here with me at this time and we have both tried to make our plans to attend the reunion and enjoy the pleasures of the day, with each and all of our relatives, of whom we are so very fond and of whom we see so very little. We are both sending you our best wishes and hoping that you will have a very delightful and happy occasion.

Please give our love to one and all, and realize that it is just my physical condition that will not permit me to be there with you, but believe me truly, my heart is with me and I shall be thinking of you through the day.

Dear Cam and Ida:-

I haven't very much to tell you about papa's last,,, it was so sweet and peaceful. I was with him during the last ten days and we had a lot more of our lovely visits together. The last several days his mind was wandering at times and he called for Martha and it seemed hard for him to understand that she was not with him. He was wonderful and near active to the last and helped himself five minutes before he passed away. In fact, he walked to the end of the hall and back, lay down on the bed, took two short breaths and it was all over. The last time he was out of the house was to attend Memorial Day services, the 30th; he rode all morning in the car and enjoyed the services at the cemetery, came home at noon, tired and hungry. He ate three meals a day faithfully until the very last day. His passing was as peaceful, as comforting as anything of this kind could possibly be. He was all for going to the convention and never, for a moment, gave up thought of being there. I will be here for some time, don't know just how long, getting affairs straightened out. I possibly will come up to Chicago for a day or so, to get my business straightened out there, before returning to Texas, but will let you know nearer the time, and make a definite date. I was glad to get your little note this morning. Am sorry to say I cannot be at the Convention, the G.A.R., or the family reunion at Goshen, Indiana, this year. I am sending you lots of love.

Paul

Little Rock, Arkansas,

To the Chairman of the Haines-Altenberg Home-Coming, to be held at Goshen, Indiana:-

Greetings by Cos Altenberg of Little Rock, Arkansas and well wishes!

Brief Statement from the undersigned, as to the Haines family and also, as to the Altenberg family, as he has been advised up to date.

Moses Haines, or Haynes, settled in De Kalb County, Indiana at an early date, one mile east of old Norris Town, now the city of Butler and about one miles west of Gunsenhauser Corner, three miles east of Butler, and were the parents of a large family of children and remained on their homestead for many years, while their family grew into manhood and womanhood and left the old homestead for different parts of the United States. Possibly my first acquaintance, as a boy, was with Charles Haines, son of Moses, who was at that time classified as a school teacher, and he courted and won the heart of my sister, Mary Jane Altenberg, and they were the parents of quite a large family. Subsequent to that my acquaintance with George William Haines was at my father's home near Auburn, Indiana, when he courted my sister, Harriet E. Altenberg and they were married and parents of a large family. The next acquaintance was with Oscar C. Bates, whose mother, Jane Bates was a daughter of Moses Haines, and he courted and married my youngest sister, Sylvia Altenberg, and they were parents of a family of large proportions. My three sisters, who married into the Haines family, are deceased, and their children are quite numerous, but I well recollect that the child of my ~~oldest~~ oldest sister was named Moses Haines, son of his grandfather, and his grandfather, in his middle age, to my knowledge, prided himself upon his grandchild and never, in my life, have I seen the affection of a grand-father to a grand-son as that of grand-pa Moses Haines on his grand-child.

As a witness to the life, character and reputation of Moses Haines and his wife, who were early settlers in De Kalb County, Indiana, they were honorable, respected and the old gentleman, Moses, was loyal to his country, his people and especially to the Democratic Party. He was a life-long Democrat, and a real friend of the Altenbergs. Further, I am a witness to the fact that the Haines tribe consists of, and in the veins flow honest American blood, none better to be found anywhere in America.

The tribe of Daniel Altenberg and Sarah Jane Altenberg, his wife, are of German descent and can retrace back to Saxony, Germany, from there to Holland, Europe and then to the Mohawk Valley, New York, and settled near Utica and Albany, New York. My father, Daniel Altenberg, and his kinfolks resided near Rochester, New York and his marriage with my mother, Sarah J. Latson, I am not certain as to the date. They emigrated West by way of Toledo, Ohio, Hudson, and Cold Water, Michigan and Union Town, thence to Auburn, Indiana.

Dear Sir:

I had the usual
Visit from people in ___ No. 10 on Saturday
They wished a new trial, but as I saw no reason to change my mind, I could not agree to do it. Then they went to Judge Best who is acting as their Attorney, and he thinks they can get a jury trial before a county Superintendent. I though not. At all events would not agree to do so until I could get Counsel from some impartial source and so have written to State Supt. Smart to see whether they can oblige me to do this. If they can I shall be obliged to call a jury and re-open the case, and let the jury settle the matter, as I am already committed. and see no reason to change my mind, but everything tends to confirm me in the opinion that the decision was for the best. I now write this in confidence to let you know just what they are trying to do. So you may be aware of what is going on and not take any action that would commit you any more than has been done already. They cannot do you any Especial injury, but am satisfied will take every oppurtunity to annoy you, as they seem to think you are to blame, notwithstanding that I called their attention to the fact that you had selected the old site and that it was myself who chose the new one. I think they have also tried in some way to get the matter into court. Dont know how unless on a point that the contract for school house in No. 10 was let for old site, & is not now to be built on that. But cannot see what difference that would make. If you are coming this way soon, come & see me and we can talk more fully.

Truly Yours,
James A. Barns

hinder you from being just such little women as your father and mother will be proud of. Now both of you write often and accept love from everyone of us

As ever your mother

Sunday August 28, 1878

Dear Ella We received your letter last evening, was glad to hear you are all well and happy. This has been a busy day for us as it has been a pleasant one. We had Sunday school the first since you went away, and since dinner we have been down to Wm Ockers' grove to a deciple grove meeting, and what a crowd there was, I believe there was a hundred buggies, Your pa and I went out to Pa's friday and came home after noon yesterday, we found pa quite smart, we staid all night and got our buggy fixed

Little
Clara sends a kiss

We made a visit to Mr Eckharts had a nice visit but Anna was quite sick, the doctor was there I suppose next week your school will begin, so you will be busy as bees getting ready, you must send us a piece of your dresses, both of you in your next letter, I know Mrs. Hurd has her hands full making those dresses, "I've been there," I saw Rosa Fetter and Hattie Smurr and all the girls enquire after you and want you to write, but I wouldn't commence to coris - pond with many, you know when you go to school you will be pretty busy, and you must write home often, (see how selfish Ma is) Well it is real cool, I guess our hot weather is a thing of the past, we want to take up our carpet and clean this noon tomorrow, so we can set up the stove.

Maurine and Rosa was at the grove meeting they want to come up here tuesday and make their last visit as they are going home soon, I read a letter from Cosper since he arrived home, and he went across the lake and was in Milwaukee last sunday at nine o'clock went from there to Chicago, from there to St Louis and from there to Little rock, Nora Rogers has been here all day, guess she is going to stay all night. Will Hoblenctz was there and John Hob was married this morning Sarah and Metta was to town last night and Metta got her a new dress and she says Ike Stiefle gave her a yard of calico, and a nice peach, She says "I would tell Mame and Ella but the would come down and pull my ears" so I've told She staid with Carrie tonight Little Clara is pretty well but she has a sore finger, something like a runaround, mail is coming off every day, she sayes she sees you in the cars and you say, "I see little Clara," Mame Lackey has been sick, doctor has been there evry day for a week, they are working on their house, expect to get it up this fall, they are plastering Mr. Livergood's now, they say Mr Bundy has traded farms and are going to move away up beyond Waterloo, We are having lots of applicants for our school now Mr. Stough, Will Maxwell, Mine Did and Lena Herchle the Jewess, cant tell how we will get yet, Sarh will go if we get a decent teacher, I heard little Charly is better but not able to be up much, I was so glad to hear Uncle Cameron say you were such good girls, O how I want you to be nice true ladies, there is nothing to

Ella My Dear Child,

I take time this morning to tell you we are all well and Cammie arrived home safe and sound Wednesday 3 p.m. We all went to the fair but Pa he staid and went to the train and met him and when they came home and found no one have Cam drove right along and met us up by "Elm grove" I tell you we were glad to see him, Sarah left our load and rode back with him in the buggy. We have visited and questioned him until I think his strength is about exhausted, sometimes four or five will yell at once, and sounds like a flock of geese more than anything else, and

Of course it is not for premium but to show the groded schools made a grand display I feel anxious to hear how thy came out Well Ella I am going to write till I get done the next time I've just commenced ours Sarah wants to write so I will finish getting dinner for her Good by dear Ella. Mother just as soon as he is out of sight I think of something else to ask the children have had a nice time with there things, they pretended to divide them and write their names on them but evry card I see had "Altie" on it I felt so sorry about your stockings you get them there and we will send you some more money, I thought those stripped ones were plenty large they will do for Metta We had a nice time to the fair but I was very tired. Wm and Cammie went yesterday they had a nice warm day, but Wednesday it was cold and windy, very disagreeable, and today is raining all day, I saw your school work and there was nothing as nice as yours in our township I sent your map back yesterday

Clara is just as good as can be I bought her a red velvet bonnet and she is so proud. She talks of you evry day. And Carle has played the horns ever since he came from the fair they had swings but did not get them ready to swing I was sorry for they were such nice ones

Dear Sister Ella: I don't wait for answers or letters, when I get ready to write, she goes. Cam, looks like a picked chicken he has talked so much and hard we keep him bussy he keeps describing the sights he saw and about twelve listening, setting humped around him. He thinks you are getting along splendid in your lessons Mamie also now if you dont get home-sick you are all right. That pin you sent is very nice and I appreciate it more than I can write it is not a lace pin is it? Cam told me where to wear it, but I dont believe he knows We all went to the fair wednesday

Paper is getting short, so Good By will write again Sunday. From had a splendid time getting ready, every thing in a whirl the same as last year. Elva went with us all the rest of the school was there, but didnt march it was so muddy, had the best racing for several years. Saw Mrs. Gordon, she told us Clara A. has been very sick very low with mountain fever. Pa & Cam was to the fair yesterday, took cap in the buggy he got loose in the fair ground run all over, broke his bridle all in pieces I wish you could see him trot. Pa got a gig, and was breaking him for the race track, but didnt commence in time. I have got my crazy work most finished, those peices are just as good for something else. the children play with their glasses most all of the time

Dear Ella:-

I recd. your card last week. and although I did not consider it as an answer to my letter, yet I will write this time, but shall expect a letter in return. I know you must have had a lovely time, while at home; wish I could have gone along. Sarah wrote last week, telling us Cam had gone to Michigan; please tell me what his address is, and how long he is going to stay there. I know your Xmas presents must be awfully pretty. Do you finish school this year? I have just started, after a two weeks holiday and it seems so hard to study, but I guess I shall get used to it. I have eight studies now and am going to take up two more Civil Government, and Astronomy. Do you study Philosophy, and if you do how do you get along with it. I have so much trouble, I can't understand it at all. Do you know whether Miss Read ever intend to answer my letter or send me her picture? If she does not, you may have it that is, if you want it. As she had said, many times, that she would exchange photos with me, when I sent mine, I thought she meant what she said, and would keep her promise. If she will not let you have it and if she does not intend to send hers, please tell her, if she

it will reach me; and the next time I will know to whom to send my picture I know she is going to be mad but I can't help it. I wish I could see your opera glasses I know they must be very pretty. I went to the opera house the other night with my fellow, and had an awful nice. He has a season ticket and wants me to go almost every night but having to study at nights I hardly ever get to go. He is quite attentive: is always sending me something: the last, a large box of nuts; the other night he said he was going to send me the Golden Days for a year: I don't know whether he meant it or not, but I hope so. Well I suppose you are so disgusted already you can hardly sit up so I will change the subject.

Did you see George Bundy and Homer Lackey when you were home? As it is almost time for school to close I must stop writing, for I have been doing this on the sly, and just as soon as the teacher looks I have to go to studying. Write soon & please go not forget to tell me Cams address,

Yours affection -

Little Rock March 21, 1888

Dear Cousin Ella:

We received your kind "short but sweet" letter yesterday morning accompanied by your picture think it is just as near like you as it can be although I did not know you thank you very much for it.

We are having beautiful weather the peach and pear trees are all in bloom but it turned suddenly cool yesterday evening accompanied by a heavy frost last night and we are afraid the peach crop is spoiled.

I study about an hour every night on Arithmetic and Grammar and sometimes on Physiology I ranked first this month in my class.

Our hyacinths, tulips may-flowers and violets are all in bloom and there is strawberries in the market.

I suppose it is real cold where you are as it has been very cold all through the north for the past week.

Mamie received a letter from Cousin Quinn a week ago he said it was "only four degrees below zero" where he was it has not been down to zero this winter here.

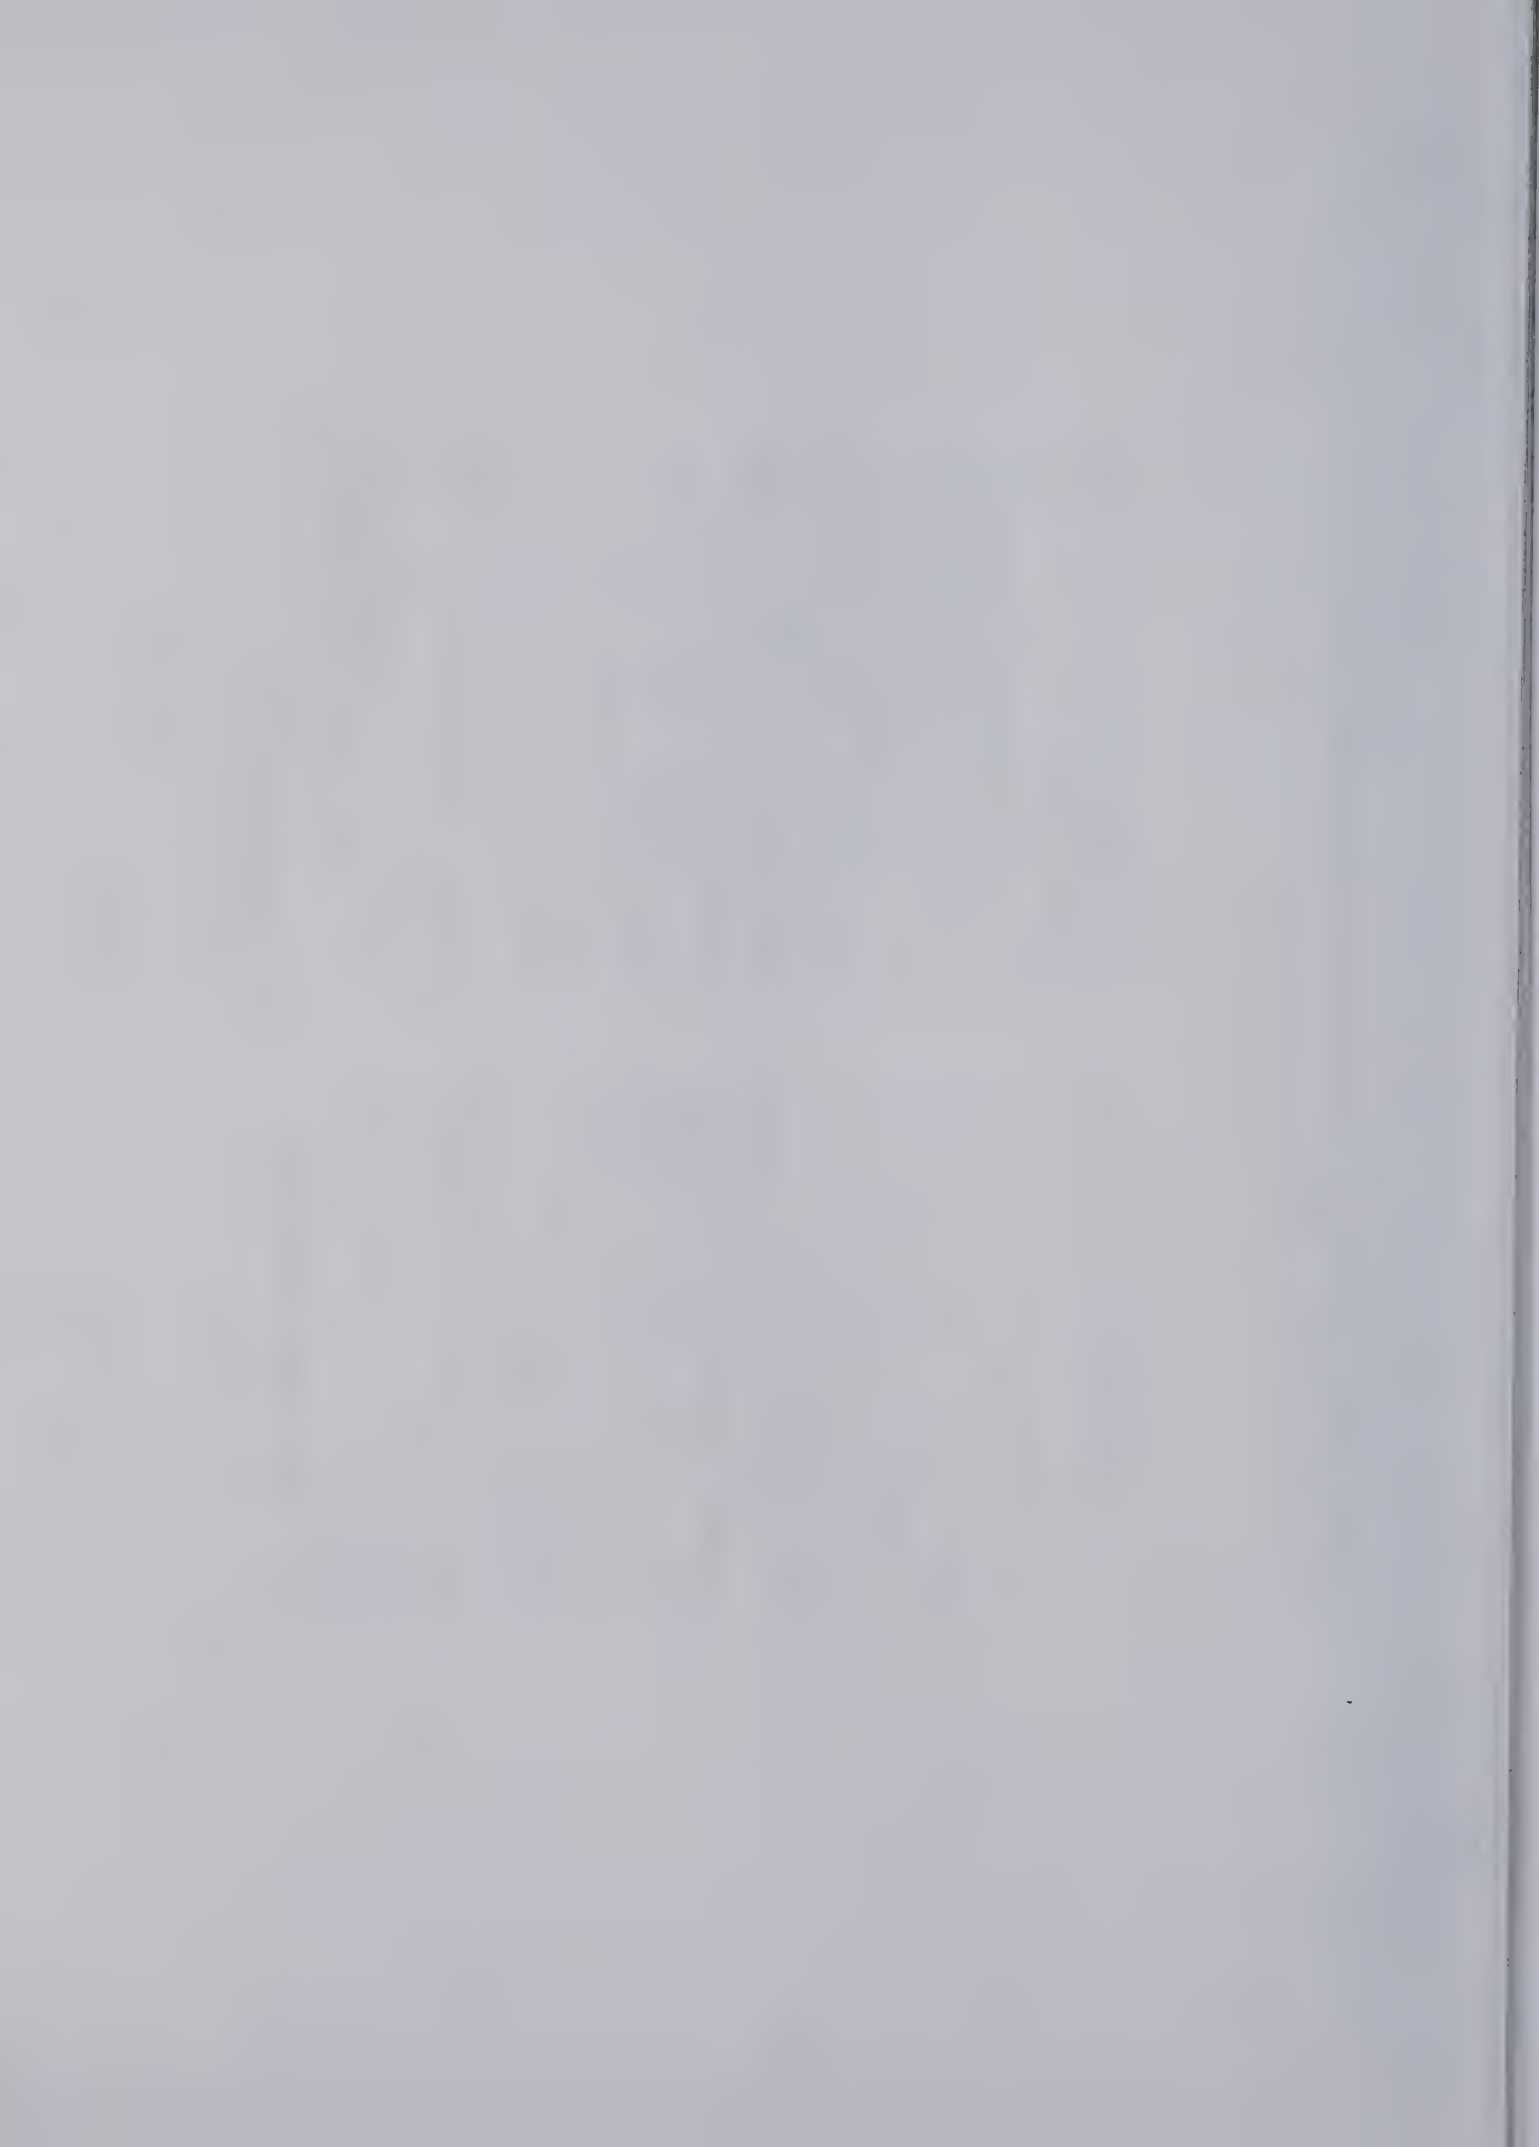

Papa has gone down town this evening and we are all alone.

Elsie is making a collection of Cigarette pictures she has 294 now and gets some most every day.

I will close as this is the second letter I have written and I am sleepy.

Good By ever your loving cousin Rosa Altenburg

P.S. Write soon. R. A.

Dear Daughter Ella I Wanted to write yesterday but was so uncommonly busy In the morning After Carle and I went to sunday school and after dinner I went over to see old Mrs. Yarby who is very poorly and I don't believe she will ever get up again, Well we recivd all of you letters and was sorry to hear Uncle Cameron is not well, hope he is all right before this, he will have to be very careful what he eats, there is lots of sick people around here I am so sorry you had the headache so hard, but we all have that, I have been in bed all forenoon with it, feel pretty good tonight, And poor Mamie did she have a headache I hope you will both feel well to commence your school, I see in the Evening Wisconsin a long piece about your schools but nothing of your ward, Mary Jane had a letter from Sarah saying she and Henry got home all right, but they will be back

Ella that young man that come here after you, was very nice looking he dorne up and I was in the parlor, he asked if Miss Hanes was at home, I said yes he said I mean the young Miss Hanes, I said Ella! Yes, Well I told him you had gone I asked him if there was anything special he wanted, he said No looked quite disappointed and drove off, cant tell who he was, but I believe it was Mr. Cone

Jane was down and we had a nice visit, She was disappointed by not seeing you all. She sent her love to you all just as soon as they can strengthen up their business, We three children will start next Monday on that excursion going to Columbus, and Henry and Sarah will come later Mary Jane in very poorly with her shoulder and I begin to feel afraid it will be the death pf her, if she don't get better soon She looks very bad, Mosie is home on a two weeks visit, looks nice and healthy I think that flannel dress will look real nice made up plans, I think you can wear it to school Did it Mrs Hurd think I was bad off to send it to her but I would'nt thought of making it that way and of course would botched it up so you would had on good of it Cammie came home saturday night and is home yet, but expects to go away again Wm George and Albie are still (Attie) at their plowing and putting in tile We have not had any rain yet, and are having such cool nights, Our Buckwheat and clover is in danger of frost - evry night - I do hope it wont freeze them especialy the buckwheat Hattie Smurr is sick, had the doctor today Wish you could all come and eat muskmellns, we are having lots of them I saw eleven ripe ones today in the garden Sarah is talking about going to Michigan yet, She thinks Edd will go home with him, Metta is a good girl works hard and fast. She takes Clara on old jack with her to get the cows nearly evry night, She talks about you evry day, We all want to hear from all of you as often as once a week Tell Mamie we will answer her good letter soon (It wasn't saucy) and hope to hear from Uncle Cameron too love to Mrs Hurd And accept Lots for you own dear self, Mother

My Dear Ella

This is the opening letter for another year for me, and we recieved yours night before last, was glad to hear of your safe arrival and pleasant trip, and that all of you are well D?n included, and that Mrs Heard was pleased with her apron, I thought of you nearly all night, got up to see if it was'nt about morning found it was only 1,o,clock, then I considered myself very foolish and went to bed determined to have a good sleep but was awake before day-light, when I got up in the moring I felt as though I needed a good scolding, Sarah Mett Carle

Jock and the buggy

and Clara, here gone over to Mr Copelands to get a plow point, Mett will stop on the way and pick some elder berries, Wm and George are trying to plow but it is so hard they have to use three horses, Sarah went to town yesterday fond Mary Jane sick in bed

You know we went onto to see Henry's folks off, but when we got there found Henry real poorly, so he did not dare to start but will go monday is he is able He has a throat If he is not able to go they will send for the children, poor afflicted brother how I pity him Mary Jane wants Clara to stay with her if she comes,

We feel pretty lonesome I love you all the rooms shut up and not a noise in the chamber of any kind Bert hasn't put in an appearance yet but Sarah said he had his arm in his sleeve yesterday so much towards getting well Allie has been out with George all the time and behaves so much better this morning he was up at 5 - out to the barn Camie has'nt been home since you saw him

Last night Eli Barbay and Harr were here Jane heard that Ruby is no better yet My finger pains me some but I think it is better than it was, Hope Cameron found his business all right tell him to give his pardner a credit mark.

Tell Cameron and Mamie to write and all accept love from us all

St. Patrick's Day
Monday Morning March 17, 1890

My Dear Parents: -

Last night after I wrote you & after we had eaten lunch Uncle Cam thought he was bloated worse than common It didnt seem possible for his stomach to hold any more, but he looked terrible. When he went to bed he let out his drawers by tying string in the button holes. He sent Will up to the Dr. for some medicine, but it was this way. You know Dr. was here in P.M. & said he wanted to change his med.
& would send it right down
& when Uncle began bloating so fast or suddenly he want the medicine to hurry, the bloat has gone down some through the night he says but I see he uses the strings yet in his drawers.

There is a good deal of turpentine in the med.
and he took it at 12 and at 3 I guess it always effects the kidneys, and he says his stomach doesnt feel so hard this morning. I dont get up very early when I leave to get up night, well I am always up by seven, but this noon I woke up at 5 and coughed pretty steady till 6 then it was time for Uncle's
med. & I came down to stay, and I havent coughed once I was going to say since then.
Aunt Susan's head was a great deal better last night when she went to bed, don't know how she is this morning. Mame was all right and went hoe about 7o'clock last eve. Uncle Cam hasent got up yet and it is after 7. Said he slept well but I guess he has forgotten

Dr. Gray is coming down this morning. It snowed in the night & is still at it Cerelia commenced a washing but thinks they will go no further than the bluing water
Genie was here last night Willie was better & expected to start to school this morn.
He has been absent from school for 4 weeks.

Mamie & Will are talking of starting a butcher shop
Talk talk all the time
Nothing to start with, of course they are depending upon Uncle for a start as he never did anything for them Will wouldnt do the work but he would solicite & hire some one to cut the meat. Suppose Uncle will help them, he talks as though he would, but you don't catch Will working. I don't know how they will come out. Well it is 20 after 7 and Uncle is sleeping yet.

Breakfast is about ready

And I must close

The rest of us, Mamie Mrs Hurd and I were in the yard. Then after it had run a while they drew the bandage tighter and forced it up from the bottom of the stomach. The opening was just below the center A. Now we are in the hopes he can go to bed and sleep. Something he hasn't done for a long time. Those suffocating spells continued all day yest, and last night, in fact every since I wrote you last. We have been lucky enough to have help everyday. It took 4 most of time, and Will has staid the last 3 nights and helped the nurse Dr Gray said Aunt Susan & I must not be up so much nights, and then fan so hard the whole day long. but the last night we were up 3 times. Once for over an hour. He had terrible terrible time. Was first taken with a vomiting spell, and so bloated he nearly choked to death Couldnt bend over, or strain at all. Next he got to coughing which was just as bad. All the day before he couldnt raise his arms, up without bring on one of those bad spells. Now they are all over and he will be able, after he rests, to get in to bed.

Dr. Gray had a very very sick patient yesterday and could not get down to see Uncle Cam till late in evening But he telephoned to Dr. Washburn to come over in his place and see him. Washburn examined him and when he left said as soon as Gray got here to send him word and he would come back and together draw off the water Said that the skin had not been in good condition for tapping when he came before, but now, or there it was it was all right and that it would be such a relief to Uncle he didnt want to put it off a minute. It was late when Gray came, so they waited till this noon Washburn says that he wont fill up again in 2 or 3 years at least and may be never, but Gray said if he filled up at all it would be before that. All this was said before Uncle, so can't tell whether either meant what they really said. They expected to take 36 qts from him, Washburn thought that there would be that much, but instead only 14 qts. His stomach feels "gone" he says, and the water keeps running yet. Will and Mamie were both here last night. Will went over and opened the shop a while this morning and then came back to help us. Uncle has slept some this P.M.///It is now after 5: I stopped for dinner and then staid with Uncle up to present time/// Have had to change the cloths, three times, and each piece

Is 1/3 of a quilt, so you see it is still dripping. Aunt Susan is up yet but last night I was afraid she would be down sick today. She slept later then usual and is feeling better as a result. Uncle Cameron received your good & kind letter last evening. He tried to hold them up to read them himself but he hadent the strength so I read them to him He said "Now ha'nt them good letters; they are the kind that does a fellow good." He often wishes you would both be here and you dont know how I would like to have you come. Hope now that he will improve, he has a little room to breathe in and to store away a few victuals, and then his strength will come. Was glad you were better or suppose you were, you didnt say that you were sick. Hope the rest of the family are all well. Give my love to Charley & Sarah Camie Mettie & children

My Own Dear Parents:

Drs Washburn and Gray have Just gone. Have been here about an hour and in that time have relieved Uncle Cam wonderfully they tapped him and drew off about 14 qts of water. A wooden pail, like those you use at home was entirely full and about 2 qts in another He is quite weak now but so much easier for him to breathe. He looks just as if he was dropping through the chair, I tell him. We are so use to seeing the front of his chair filled out with a big stomach they tied a bandage around his stomach first and then used the instrument (put it in the skin) At first the water spurted out in a stream and Aunt Susan could hear it running in the pail while she stood in the dining room.

Dear Ella. It has been quite a long time since we have had a letter from you and the weeks that have gone by since I wrote you last have brought many changes some are very sad ones and of course they are not as sad for me as those who are nearer and dearer 2 refer to the death of Mr Coles son Jerome 2 presume David has written you about it. He died on the morning of Mar 1 after only sick 2 hours with paralysis and none realized anything after he was taken I feel very sorry for his wife she is only 23 years old and had been married 4 years. It seems such a heavy cloud to be cast on her young life. They _____ him to Hartford for burial his wife will return to her father's home which is in H They telegraphed me to go to Minnesota but I was sick and couldn't take the trip to save me But I think it was just as well Mr Coles daughter and husband came on with Etta and they done everything they could for her. I went out to Hartford and stayed until after the funeral. I could only wonder where the next blow would fall as they seem to come so surely one after another. Mrs. Genie Glenn has been quite sick with Pneumonia but is better or was the last I knew Jimmie Gardner is very sick but I presume you know what it I hope he will be better but I can't help but feel worried as I have a dread of pneumonia. David was in a few moments Sunday night to tell us how his brother was and he said Mamie was sick with grief and that Dr Rosewrause was attending her I have not heard since. There are so many sick all over the country. I believe it comes from the damp weather. I think cold weather is much healthier - It is quite pleasant to day and the sun is shining and I hope we will good news knows we have had little enough sunshine the last month I suppose you have heard of our change of residence and I just wish you could stop in and see how comfortable we are we only have three large rooms and two closets and a pantry but our rooms are very pleasant and much more convenient in every way than the others. We have folding doors between our front room and kitchen consequently have to keep our

Dear Parents and all

As I have a little time will try and write a few lines to let you I am still alive, we got hear allright and went to the shop but didn't go to work until noon, we looked for a boarding house in the morning and found one that will do, the only kick I have is they are running it on a paying basis to much.

Tell ma to get that address of the doctor it is in the desk in one of the pigions holes on the west side about the second or third place from the top and bottom, it is also in the letter from Bertha.

I got the letter you forwarded and if there is any more send it and send that machinist journal for there is a tool chest in it that I want to look at.

This isn't a job hear it is more of a graft, it is a shame to take the money.

Well this is all for this time, hoping to hear from you soon.

Dear Children I have held our family circle letter so long I am sorry but it aint as though we did not hear from one another only through this way. I had a good feast of the soul when I got through reading yours and I know they were the lest you ever wrote seemed evry word in them went to my heart and healed a lonely spot, but I am not complaining of my loneliness for I have no reason to but you forget sometimes

I am away up to Goshen and having a nice time with dear Metta and children and dear Sarah is here with us, on her way down home to stay indefinitely, till she recruits and rests from her cares. We expect to go on home Wednesday I hear from the farm most evry day, they are well and hus thinking to get their corn planted, Evrything is so beautiful how I wish you could all come home together this summer wouldn't we have a time long to be remembered, we did pretty well last year at your house Cammie didn't we, I had a happy birthday Matta made a nice dinner and Sarah came and we ate together on my 81 years of life, isn't that wonderful next Sunday is your Father's birthday he would be 91 years old had he lived seems life is but a dream I want to go home for (decoration?) you know the one reason, I long to be there on that day. I can't visit that sacred spot as often as I used to, Am feeling fine, if only for the rheumatism which I hope to outgrow in a few years

For see nither Clara nor Carl have written but I think when it comes around again, they will be there but direct to Clara McCague instead of Me will you I want you all to be good and write whenever this comes to you, but don't think you have to drop evrything to write, but don't wait until you forget it, and be sure and write with pen and ink, and excuse me, with all the love in mothers breast I say good by dear children,

Dear Metta And children Well here I am standing on my 82 birthday day, thinking of the many days it has been since I was just a little baby in my dear mothers arms and no doubt she was happy and proud of me, as all mothers are Dear Mother in heaven waiting for me come and I am only waiting for my Masters call, We have so many loved ones over there it seems, not as far as it used to well dear mettie Florence and Carl I need my nice scarf I guess you call it and your card Metta which was a pretty than ever I re'cd one from Camie just like yours except the verse was different but so nice received one from Beth and Wenella and Mary Hanes and a box of stationary from Ella I am writing on now a box of fruit candy from Camie, a $1 bill from dear Sarah and a beautiful plant Lady Washington? from Clara so you see hoe my children keep track of birthdays and all other days for me. If it wasn't for my dear children what would this world be to me Clara and Eston keep talking of going to Goshen and they might just as well go. for they can do nothing here on the farm till the water goes down

We have our housecleaning all done, new rug in sitting room porch painted parlor papered and everything looks clean come down quick while we are 'all shiny especially what we finished today to kitchen Carl cleaned to cellar and he did it good, wouldn't let us even go down in it but its all right, they water backed up in it twice which made it awful

We all (but Carl) went to Mothers day service and heard a beautiful talk from our Bro Burns and a good time all day, Clara got us each a carnation to wear
We had a calley the other evening that had lots to enquire about you Stella Parker used to be how she would like to see you. She has four children 3 boys/girl lives down in Cedarville Ohio is visiting Mr Reame Miss Rook has got home from hospital last week
We are expecting Ida and all the Children -3- about May 27 they are coming in their Ford Expect Roy Johnson back from Calaforne about that time You know he went there to his Fathers funeral, and is bringing back his ashes to burry in Butler cemetry Horror for me well I suppose Carl will soon be through this years school. I do hope he is getting through all right and Florence how long do you expect to hold your position

I hope as long as you want it Do you hear anymore from Mr Wagoner? No doubt he is very feeble, We had a nice letter from Sarah today, She is feeling better again, Ellas are all well Mamie has been back there and sold off everything and gone back to Calaforne to live now I hope she will stay there well evrybody has gone to bed and I must do the same. I am very lame through my chest and shoulders, but hope to be all right soon write as often as you have time and dear child try not to over work, you have only a humane endurance, with all the love I have I send to you and your children, As ever Ma died & also Mother Gardner Both of them had been quite sick for at least a year before they died & even though we missed them sorely we had no right to wish them back here on earth. I know Aunt Sarah earned her Heaven & it was time she was able to enjoy it. Earthly living is alright for us but when our work is done & our faculties begin to fail us we should all be more than glad to leave here & take up out permanent home in Heaven.

Only hope I'll be as well prepared as my mother, Mother Gardner & now Aunt Sarah
We are having a Mass said at one of my favorite missions. St. Joseph's Indian school in Chamberlain So Dek.

I know the little Indian children will help Sarah adjust to her new Home.
Last week I had to go Monday to see Dr. Hong because a summer cold was almost making one stay in bed
He gave me a shot of penicillin, antibiotic pills, nerve pills & cough medicine. Made me feel good in a hurry.
Wish you could manage to get up here for at least a few days. It's so restful & peaceful & the air is so sweet & pure.
I know you'll be missing Sarah until you die but anyone that knows you knows that you did everything you possibly could to make Sarah's last years happy.
I can't remember when you weren't taking care of someone.
Our Jean is going to have her 10th baby in the Fall & right now she isn't feeling very well. Cam & I are going to try to have one or two of her children up here

most of the summer.
One of them Kitty aged 12, is here now with her best friend. Their week's vacation end's tomorrow.
Cam is really pushing himself too hard these days.
He's laying the underflooring in our big living-room.
He's anxious to get it all laid & covered with tile before we have too many people walking on it.
Fishing hasn't been too good but we catch all we want to eat.
Will you please send this on to Aunt Met. I hope she's feeling pretty good.
Must write my daily letter to Jean now.
Love

Cam

To Clara McCague, From Gloris,
Jan. 19, 1972

Jan. 19th, 1972

Dear Aunt Clara:

Here I am at lunch time at my new job. It is really wonderful and the work is extremely interesting - even If I am at a loss yet for a lot of things. The people are very nice - most of the girls are young and efficient. Henry, the CPA worked with me all day Monday however it was like a case of the blind leading the blind. Luckily, he had made some notes while the other gal was still here.

I am in the Civic Opera building on the 18th floor. I don't have an office but am facing an office that overlooks the city so I get a view through his window. Mr. Roe wrote the nicest memo to me since he had to be out of town Mon. and again thanked me for joining the organization. There is a swell cafeteria on the 3rd floor where the food is good and the prices are down right reasonable.

Our entire line is agricultural advertising and the biggest ~~xxxxxx~~ client is Funk Seed and all their branches. Seems as though they specialize in corn seed. We also have Badger Northland who advertise a barn cleaner - "BRUTE STRENGTH WHERE YOU NEED IT" and a liquid manure system reading "MORE THAN JUST A SPEADER". So here I am, back on the farm.

Friday night the old gang gave me a wonderful party. The company paid for the Dinner and Mr. Kulik bought the drinks. The group gave me $85.00 and Mr. Kulik $100.00. Wasn't that nice. It still seems strange not to see the regular bunch first thing in the morning. John - one of the old timers - called me last night and Thor - one of the new timers - called. His wife wanted to thank me for the cake I had sent her, it was absolutely delicious. Something like a tort but made my an Italian bakery - think there were about 5 layers each separated with a different goodie. Eleanor bought that especially for me (the girl that has had all the operations) I have talked to her also. They are going to get a man for the job and from what they say are still looking.

Took the L downtown and home and that proved to be quite an experience. I'm Learning all sorts of things about the loop. For one thing it is really a busy place.

Hope you are feeling O.K. Just wanted to get a little note off to you so you would know things are O.K. but believe me I have no trouble sleeping. Was dead tired yesterday.

Stay well and I'll be writing more. Bye for now.

Love & Kisses,
Gloria

Dear Clara:

I have been trying to make up our family tree for the benefit of our grand children who have become very interested. Of course mother kept many records so I have quite a lot especially about the Bodine & Chamberlain families but nothing about the Altenburgs beyond Daniel and Sarah Latson Altenburg.

I have their dates of death as 1888 and 1863. Do you have anything else? Or can you tell me who might have? Who were their parents? You gave me pictures of Daniel & of his house in Auburn so I have those in my file but would appreciate anything else you can tell me. I can't even remember whether you were mother's cousin on her mothers or fathers side!

I have the Bodines back to Peter B, and Susan Ernen and the Chamberlains back to Jeremiah

I hope to get to Auburn some time in the fall & if so may make the Altenburg reunion.

Lots of love. Lois

Dear Mrs. Hanes.

I want to thank you for sending me notices of the Hanes family reunion during these last years. However, now that my husband and I have retired to Asheville, N.C. and are both eighty three years old there is little likelihood that I will ever get back to Indiana for a family reunion. I do not know Whether my cousin Robert Altenburg of Angola Ind. is still living. He and our other cousin have been the only remaining _____ relatives I have had for _____ years. I have found memories of visiting the Aldrich farm east of Hamilton and playing with Wilmette and I also loved visiting the Hanes farm between Waterloo & Butler and for a number of years stopped to visit with cousin Clara Hanes McCague when we come to Auburn in the summer.

With best wishes.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Timothy Wells

I am probably your "first cousin three times removed" or something like that. Cameron Gardner, my father, received your invitation to the Hanes-Altenburg Reunion. Thank you for including him, but as he is now 96 years old (97 in October) he must send his regrets.

His mother was Ella Hanes Gardner, my beloved grandmother. I remember her as a thin, small, energetic lady who was very important to me even after I graduated from high school.

Dad now lives with my sister, Jean Wenzel at 3231 Sunset Graze Drive Richfield, Wisconsin 53076.

Your card was addressed to Dad at the lake. He and I just happened to be here this week and I found it in the box. We are going back to Richfield tomorrow.

Greetings to all of grandmother's relatives. May you have a very successful reunion.

With love to all,
Sister Mary Gardner, O.P.

Dear Cousin Ellie;

We received your welcome letter about six weeks ago, and another letter containing your picture, last week. I think your picture is just lovely, it looks exactly like you: but you are such a young lady, I could hardly believe it was you. It looks like it was going to rain today, and the wind is rather cool. We have been having very pleasant weather for about a month. Don't you wish you were here to eat straw berries, as they have been in the market for about two weeks. You said you were going home, in June, for good, don't you intend to go back when school commences in the fall? We havent heard from Sara and the other Cousins for a long while; I suppose they are so busy, they don't even have time to think about writing letters, let alone to do it. The mocking birds are building their nest in the honey suckles by our porch; just the same place they had it last year. I do think, that to try and write a letter, when you dont know what to say is the dullest thing out; and that is just the way, I am today, cant think of a thing to say; so I will close. Good By, write soon Mamie Altenburg

Seated again to write
"home" and as usual "in a hurry."

Hope you are all better and well now. Have looked for a letter today and yest erday, but in vain since mom mail yest. Uncle Cam has had one of the worst spells this P.M. that he has had since first taken Dr. Gray came as usual this morning. He said that bloat had to go, and left medicine that he had taken before to be given at 11 o'clock Well he gave the same thing yesterday but it did no good. He took it at 11 and it vomited and physiced him a little bit Dr. said it hadnt started the bloat yet Well, while he was feeling so badly, little Sara Ardney was here and we sent her for Gray he has never seen Uncle have one of those sinking spells and thought if he could might prevent this next one

It was just Dr's _____ hours and his office _____ and _____

Dr. Gray got here an hour and a half had passed and Uncle was able to get into bed. Dr. told Aunt Sarah that he must have had

a congestive chill, but that he couldnt have done more than we did, had he died.
Says if he cant get that bloat started some way or other he will be pretty bad off. He can hardly lay on his back at all the bloat is so bad and last night he sat up most of time With every window open and door too, and then so hard to breath.
Poor Uncle Cam he says tell you that he thinks he will be able to get down by Christmas or New Years and then laughed

He felt so bad this P.M.
Mr. Ardney, little Sara's papa had just got back from Europe, and after nine weeks absence, and found Uncle just as bad off as he was when he went away.
He cried so hard, when he told us, but it was partly because he was so sick,
He has rested easier since he went to bed. Dr. will be down again tonight.
Mrs Davis is here yet Doesnt suffer quite as much as she did, and expects to go home the first of next week.
Her husband has been with her all this week so it is some easier for us. A little these men are in the road as a general rule.

But we keep our selves busy waiting on Uncle Cam Do all I can for I dont think we will have him with us very much longer Dr Golly, Miss Davis's doctor stopped in to see Uncle today. He said "Relief or he wont live a week". Dr. Gray is doing every thing in his power, but its most all un availing in the end. Havent seen Mame and Willie for a number of days. Mame & Will are here every day Will cut his little finger last week. It begun swelling and paining him

Yesterday He had the D. Look at it, He said was poisoned and to rest it. A man was to come and work for him today, but they dont get here till 9 o'clock So havent seen them today If you could hear Uncle Cam in the night you would think him crazy Night before last & last night he sang just as loud as he could for most an hour both nights or first night anyway. Then he talks to him self too much Guess he does it to pass away the time. Darkey was sick the other night and told Uncle he was going to get some pills to take and asked Uncle what kind he should get, So Uncle fixed him a dose to keep him awake nights or prescribed instead of gave Told him to go to the drug store and get a box of man drake pills and take at least thirteen. "Oh my". said Miller. "I never takes but 3 or 4" Well Uncle said they wouldnt hurt him any - way. Miller came next night but said "Dident take any pill: fort wouldnt need um" Dr Gray laughed when Uncle told him. He said "it would be a heap of darkey left if he took 13. Miller is no fool though Well Ma I hope you are well, I havent heard from you for we brought more home sick than ever and I didnt know before that there was any _____ for an increase.

Aunt S is extra well going the whole day long Celia and I are the trips (?) Give my love to Sarah & Charley, Camie and the children. When I think I dont dare say "Why dont they write"?

Dear Ones all - Wed Eve -

I re'cd a letter from Ida today and have read it twice - As a glad to hear she is better, but it sounds critical any way - and as Uncle Alt says we can only keep on praying for one another - it seems we are all stricken at one time or another, and continually-and I have also read over again five letters from each of the following, Sarah, Carl, Clara, Alt & Mett - Now all those were quite a visit indeed - but I've had this envelope addressed and pictures in it for over a week - just waiting to get down to writing - You asked about our trip to Florida - Its only talk so far and we will not go until after the first of the year if at all - I'm so glad to hear that Mett is planning her trip to Cal. but the biggest kick I get on "who is going where" is that lady with the grit, Sarah - Good for you, dear, for I know Clara will be with you-Do remember me to your friend Mrs Haas - I hope to meet her yet, some day We enjoyed your trip Clara to your friend Nellie K - and there is one more _____ & the Thornburgs - that I hope to meet also - I'm sure it will take another trip to Indiana - for I'm

they staid over night, but of all the cute dear children - Her oldest was 1 year where the twins were born - the twins are very strong & as healthy as normal babies & the three are all so good - Margaret herself looks healthier than she ever did when she was a girl & the easy way she cares for all three babies is a joy to all - that year's nurse's training comes in handy now - and the babies are so good they cried so little that I could not tell what they would sing - tenor, bass, alto, or soprano - so I told Margaret that's one thing I neglected to have Bill & Mickey sing together, Oh Clara I forgot so many things that day - that I'm still broken hearted about my negligence - Our celebration on the 26th Sept at church - High mass & thanks giving - with blessing from the priest On our 50 anniversary we repeated our marriage vows - but like this diamond anniv. - they call it that for so few reach 75 years - real -diamond anniv - sure if I ever "got through" visiting with all you & yours - that I'd try hard to meet our hero Myor Bowers & his family down to the ones I do know This is only thinking & I feel will never mature - but as they say "I can dream, can't I?" Tell us about your church social work - and let me give you a little advise Clara - If you keep on digging out those corners etc,etc, you will have the varnish all worn off - and your fingers too - Its nice that you can keep up with All that, and that you can take you self - any place, so independent like Keep it up for yourself & the sun shine that you give to others - Sorry to hear of Callie's breakdown - I felt that she was going home to something that was beyond her strength - Are they going to St Pete's? - Yes Mary can handle a crowd easily & enjoy herself at the same time she surely needed rest as we had 2 loads of company - on each of the following sundays, & surprised, after the reunion - the last was Margaret & family - Mother-in-law - to help with the twins -

We had lunch & visited and all went home thinking they had done it all up brown - but Grandma says "too much" too much" I'm feeling better, for I have rested up and lots of sleep has put my nerves back again - David is quite good but did you ever see anything upset him? Virginia has not been very well - but went up to their cottage last week end. - She had to take company with her & that never gives her the rest she needed this time, She is better they say today - Jean & Alvin have not decided to build yet this fall - and that worries Virginia, for she is so sorry for Jean - they can hardly exist in their few rooms but they will have to wait till spring to start building - Im as worried as our one for her very much - she has to leave here at 7 A.M. & works till 5.10 PM but I was not surprised when she told me she was quitting but low & behold that's Frances who was going to school at Teachers College on a scholarship - has quit also - & has a job - trying it out yet - I thought she was the most thorough & determined to get an education - but she says only

"she changed her mind" Hope John

ILLNESS FATAL TO COS ALTENBERG, 90

Civil War Veteran and Attorney Little Rock Resident 55 Years.

Cos Altenberg, aged 90, one of the oldest active attorneys in Arkansas, died at 11 a. m. Tuesday at his home, 1001 Cumberland street, where he had lived the past 55 years. He had been ill about two weeks.

He was born in Auburn, Ind., March 14, 1842, and at the outbreak of the Civil war, enlisted in Company A, Fourth Indiana Heavy Artillery, and served throughout the war. He then entered the University of Michigan Law School and upon his graduation moved to Augusta, Woodruff county, where he remained until 1876 when he moved to Little Rock. He was married to Miss Martha J. Grise, June 19, 1870.

After Mrs. Altenberg died two years ago, he moved his law office to his home from a suite in the Fulk building where he had maintained his office for 52 years.

He participated in recent Memorial Day ceremonies, placing wreaths on the graves of fallen comrades of the Union army.

He served in the state legislature as representative from Pulaski county in 1881 and formerly was department commander of the G. A. R. At the time of his death, he was a member of the National Council of Administration of the G. A. R. He also was a member of the Board of Stewards of the First Methodist Episcopal church, South, for more than 50 years.

Mr. Altenberg is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Elsie Fee of Little Rock and Mrs. A. E. Sweatland of Lufkin, Tex.

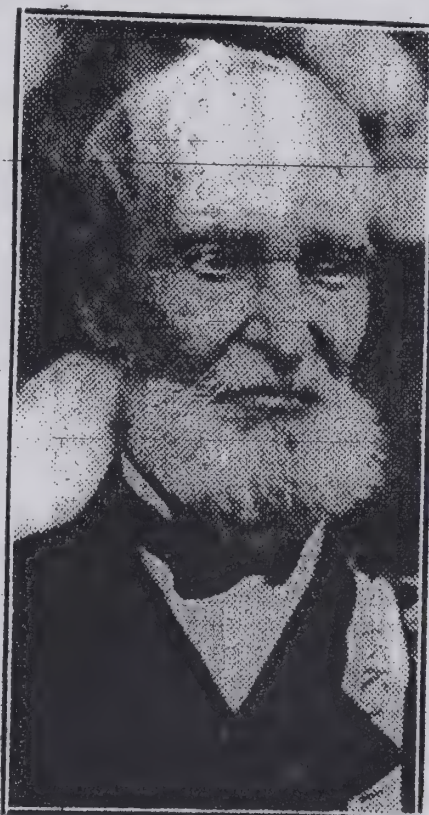

Funeral services will be held at the R. F. Drummond & Co. chapel at 4 p. m. Wednesday in charge of the Rev. C. M. Reves. Burial will be in Oakland cemetery. The family requests that no flowers be sent.

Members of the G. A. R. will be honorary pallbearers. Active pallbearers will be: Pat Crawford, S. P. Scott, L. C. Holman, John H. Hollis, Harry H. Myers and R. G. McDaniel.

W. S. Grant, Formerly Arkansas Publisher, Dies in California.

W. S. Grant, aged 72, of Yreka, Cal., formerly operator and owner of several weekly newspapers in Arkansas, died yesterday at his home in California. His brother, Elmer U. Grant, foreman of the Gazette, accompanied him.

Arkansas.

The rampant Colorado river threatening 340,000 acres of irrigated desert land in the vicinity of Yuma, Ari., is included in an exclusive item in the current issue of the Arkansas Gazette-Universal Newsreel to be shown for the first time today at the Arkansas theater. Working against time and the rising waters of the river, laborers bank the levees high with granite rocks hauled many miles from the mountain regions to stem the rushing waters and save the lands from being flooded by river.

Coney Island and what it means to more than 5,000 orphan children turned loose with an invitation to everything the resort offers is shown in another unit of the reel. Letter from Charles Heffelfinger Jr. to Sarah Hanes Heffelfinger

Easter Sunday

Dearest Mother –

Your voice sure sounded good this morning only wished we were together and talking instead of being so far apart. We are glad that you are feeling good, but sorry you have not been so recently. Louise had been feeling so punk lately & expenses so big, we first gave up our apartment in Talladeige? And moved back here. I am going to find a room there for myself, as going back and forth each day will be more expensive than ever. It costs me around $14.00 a week for gas, oil, etc. & then my car bill is $14.00 a month. Plus a bank loan of $185.00 plus a debt to Dad of 150.00 so I can figure on little or nothing left to live on when I get through paying bills. It's hard to do, but I have to make 50.00 a week to pay expenses. The small town is no longer – small town. Everything seems to go on a basis the same as big towns do, and one can make as much, if not more in a small place than a large one. I wanted to tell you that if the finance company calls on you or any of the boys there, to co-sign the note I have there, why don't sign it. It is not necessary at all and I have never welched on a debt and don't intend to start now. I can handle that note easily enough without their bothering anyone about it. I think, when we came here, I owed them $200.00 and now it is only 150.00 so they cannot worry about such a condition. I'm so glad we got to talk to you, it sounded so good, I hated to hang up. I was afraid you might have been away and we would miss you! We went to the Doctor's yesterday and he says about Sept. 6th. He seems to be about 40 yrs. old, vears concientious and has a reputation of well standing for general practice as well as O.B. cases. However, Louisa and I both are going to miss Howard and Mary and I don't think anyone else can quite come up to expectations as they. I must write them, as I haven't done so since I've been here. I work day and night and don't have a great deal of time, but have intended to wright this long time. Our best regards to all in special wishes to yourself from all. Charles Jr.

9-14-90

Dear Florence & Virgil -

I never did hear from you last spring so wonder if you didn't get to come down this year. I hope it wasn't because of illness - or accident again. I was home until June 27 - July 5 when I went to Kansas with a neighbor. I'll admit I am away from home quite a bit each day though not often at night.

Things have been going pretty well though problems seem bigger when there's no one to share. I had to put in a new air conditioner in June. Last December's 5" was really destructive to lawns here. My backyard is mostly bare dirt. I put out Bermuda seed and it didn't come up. Sunday we had our first good rain in weeks. I put on my raincoat and scattered Fescue seed. It takes a lot of water so now I water it lightly twice a day.

I keep real busy with volunteer activities - mostly church connected. This week was a real busy one - Monday A.M. meeting, also P.M. meeting, Tuesday an A.M. committee to plan a Sr. Citizen trip, then took cakes to the V. A. in the afternoon. Today I'll take a friend to Nursing Home to visit her husband. Yesterday I had a nice surprise. A cousin from Misamis and her husband had been to Mexico and stopped by enroute home.

Leeta is doing pretty well but is swamped with extra programming due to combination of end of fiscal year and troop activities. She's worked overtime several days, worked until 1:00 A.M. once and was called in at 4:00 A.M. another time.

The 27th of this month I'm going to my brothers in Mo. for a few days. He lives near Branson so I hope to see a couple of shows. His wife is a Bridge nut so expect will do some of that too. Leeta and I plan to visit Glenys in Salt Lake the first week of December. They're all fine - also Donna and her family. Donna's husband is in Naval Reserve as a Lt. Comm. in Nurse Corps so do have my fingers crossed for them.

Guess that's about all the news. I'm doing ok I guess but do miss Leslie so much. Really want to know how everything goes with you two dear friends.

Love,

Mary Agnes

My Dear Children

In later years of my life my great desire has been to preserve our loved ^{old} homestead intact, that one and all might meet under its cherished shelter as long as either your loving mother or I should remain with you. Being fully conscious of my approaching demise, I have executed my last will and testimony in which I bequeathed to your mother all my realty and Personal possessions, absolutely and unconditionally, with power to settle all claims against the Est.,

Trusting to her good judgment in final disposition of it to our beloved Children and hoping that you may have many happy reunions before she is called to do so.

Believing that you ^{all} will ~~all~~ approve of this course as a wise one;

And now Dear Children I can only commend you to the mercy of the Great Creator of the Universe, in whose presence we must all meet and who doeth all things well.

Your Loving Father

JUNIOR CLASS POEM

This is station W. H. S.
Announcing the class of '33
Stand by, folks, while we confess,
We think we're the best that can be.

The correct time we now will tell
We're always on the dot,
Between the ringings of the bell,
We find we learn a lot.

Our pennant we so proudly flaunt,
Of cardinal and gray,
The jolly spirit of our class,
Does truthfully portray.

We try so hard to make our grade,
And mark our worthy motto,
" 'Tis not the gale, but the set of the sail,
That determines which way we shall go."

We're just a bunch of peppy kids
Always in places tight.
We wish you well, and greet you, too,
And now sign off—Good Night.
